GOOD EVENING. TONIGHT WRPP EXAMINES MORE PARKING PROBLEMS AT AAM. POLICE OFFICIALS ALSO HAVE PROBLEMS ESPECIALLY WHEN DEALING WITH SPOILED FACULTY, STUDENTS AND STAFF THAT DO NOTHING BUT WHINE.

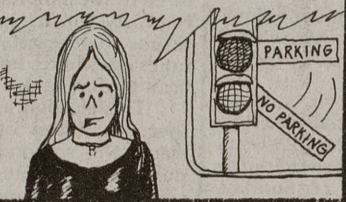

CAROLINE HEDGES

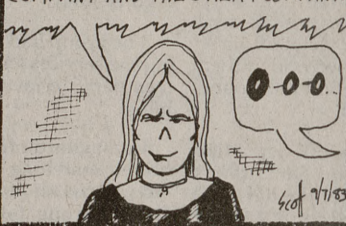

"IMPORTANT" OFFICIALS AND FACULTY, THE VERY PEOPLE WHO COULD USE REMOTE PARKING MOST EFFECTIVELY, USUALLY USE THEIR CARS ONCE OR TWICE A DAY, BUT DON'T WANT TO WALK MORE THAN 100 FEET TO THEM! THESE ARE ALSO THE ONES DEMANDING RUTHLESS ENFORCEMENT OF TICKETING.

STUDENTS ALSO HAVE PROBLEMS TO STRUGGLE WITH, LIKE BEING RESPONSIBLE FOR KNOWING ANY AND ALL CHANGES IN PARKING ZONES AND STREETS, MARKED OR NOT. THIS CAUSES STUDENTS TO BELIEVE THEY'RE NOT GETTING THEIR MONEY'S WORTH FROM THEIR PERMITS.

STUDENTS WOULD THEN RATHER RISK A FEW TICKETS THAN BUY A PERMIT WHICH PROMISES NOTHING. I DON'T MEAN TO GET NASTY, BUT YOU CAN ALMOST COMPARE THE PARKING SITUATION WITH THE PHONE COMPANY AND THE UTILITY COMPANY!

R.I.

HERE ARE MOST OF THE DORMS. THERE'S WALTON AND SCHUMACHER, THAT'S MC INNIS, OVER THERE'S DAVIS-GARY...

HUGHES AND KEATHLEY, BEHIND THAT'S FOWLER AND CLEMENTS AND THAT'S MOSES.

ARE YOU GETTING ALL OF THIS? YEAH, WHAT DOES "R.A.B." MEAN?

Wife demands U.S. action

United Press International ATLANTA — The wife of Rep. Larry McDonald wants the U.S. government to take stronger actions against the Soviet Union than those recommended by President Reagan, "to prove that the United States has not become a milquetoast nation."

"I'm angry and I want some action," Kathy McDonald told reporters following Reagan's televised speech Monday night.

Rep. McDonald, chairman of the John Birch Society and a nine-year Democratic member of the House from northwest Georgia, was among 269 people who died when a Russian fighter shot down a Korean Air Lines flight that strayed over Soviet territory.

Mrs. McDonald said "We've got to do something strong." She said the United States should cut off grain sales to the Soviets, stop tourism, and end gas pipeline equipment sales.

"I think it was a very good speech that President Reagan made and I think it should make the American people furious,"

Mrs. McDonald said. "Once again, we get a lot of rhetoric, signifying absolutely nothing. It was full of information about the incident, but nothing about what we're going to do about it."

Mrs. McDonald, who is considering running for the 7th District congressional seat left vacant by her husband's death, spoke briefly with reporters after watching Reagan's speech.

She said the sanctions she recommended would "at least put a crimp in their (the Soviets') economic life."

Reagan promised in his 1980 campaign not to use grain as an economic weapon.

McDonald opposed all trade with communist nations.

"The president himself mentioned that they shot down an airliner in 1978," Mrs. McDonald said. "Are they going to make a habit of doing this every five years?"

"I call upon the people who were watching tonight, and who were concerned about this situation, to write to their representatives and the president and demand action, not words."

Town overrun by hot rattlesnakes

United Press International BORGER — Police have killed between five and 10 rattlesnakes in Borger each week for the last two or three weeks, but so far no one has been bitten by the intruders, Police Chief Arthur Waight said Monday.

"It's extremely dry and I think they kind of went into town to find a cool place," Waight said of the snakes, adding he did not know how many had been killed by citizens and not reported.

He said the problem was worse this year than it has been in past summers. Only one snake had to be killed by police during the holiday weekend, Waight said.

He predicted Borger would get rid of its snake problem when the weather cooled. In the meantime, citizens finding snakes call police officers who snare the snakes and then have them destroyed.

"They're hunting us," Waight said when asked about his department's search for rattlesnakes.
