Research conducted Fellows earn credit

by Kelly Miller

Battalion Reporter The Undergraduate Fellows Program, a part of the University Honors Program, allows qualified seniors to substitute up to six credit hours of 485H problems courses for curriculum re-quirements — up to three hours per semester. The courses pursue research under the guidance of a faculty adviser. The Undergraduate Fellows Program is considered the capstone of the University Honors Program at Texas A&M. Students who complete the prog-ram receive certificates honoring their participation at an awards ceremony in early May.

In addition, special notice of their participation is made on the students' official transcripts, and they have the right to refer to this special measure of achievement on applications for jobs, fellowships, etc.

The program includes five aspects that provide a total re-search experience: • The research proposal. The proposal is four to six pages in length and is endorsed by the student's faculty research advis-

• The research. Regardless of subject, the student gains ex-perience in research design, data collection and analysis and the discussion of the results.The Community of Scho-The Community of Scholars. Each fellow participates in a working group of 10 to 15 fellows. The fellows informally present and discuss their research topics at monthly meetings in the fall and spring terms.

• Annual Symposium. In mid-April, when the research is finished, fellows present profes-sional papers on their work at a symposium just as they would at regional or national meetings of societies within their fields.

• Senior Honors Theses. The fellows write senior honors theses, which are bound and placed in the Archives of the Sterling C. Evans Library as per-manent records of their achievements

Dr. C.N. Pace, program coor-dinator, said the program is open to all seniors at Texas A&M who:

• Have an overall grade point ratio of 3.5 during the second half of their junior year when application is made; participation debate tonight at 7 p.m. in 701 Rudder. The proposal of the debate is that U.S. involvement in El not required, Pace said. All qualified students who submit satis-factory proposals will be accepted. "We're in our ninth year and it's been a very successful prog-ram," Pace said. Fifty-five undergraduate fellows from 33 different departments will parti-cipate in the 1983-84 program. The initial meeting for all fel The initial meeting for all fellows and advisers will be at 7:30 tonight in 206 Memorial Stu-dent Center. Dr. Gordon Eaton, provost and academic vice-president, will welcome the fellows. Dr. George F. Bass, director of the Institute of Nautical Archeology and a distinguised professor of anthropology, will deliver the keynote address.

Debate tonight on Salvador

ce major from Richmond, will speak against the proposal.

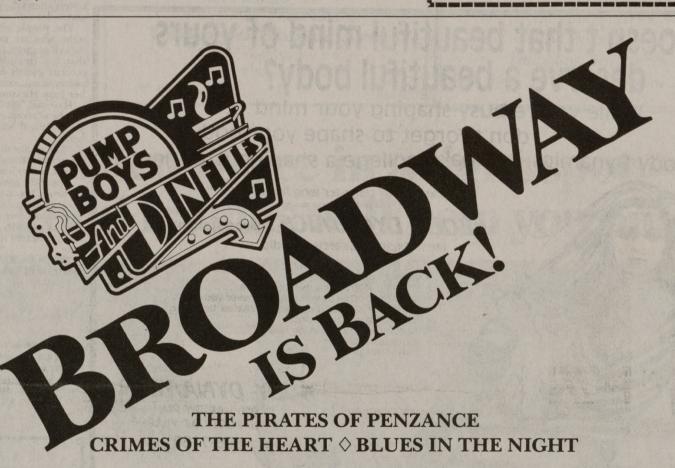

Wayne Cramer, debate coach and lecturer in the speach department, will mod-erate the event.

After the speeches have been given, the debate will be opened to the audience which will then get the chance to re-spond to the arguments. This is the first of three audience participation debates the team will sponsor this semester.

"Quality First"

The Best of Broadway is back in Bryan-College Station!

MSC Town Hall / Broadway is bringing Broadway back to Texas A&M for another triumphant season! Last year Town Hall/Broadway offered its first season ticket package to rave reviews. This year should be even better: more shows, more songs, more dance, more laughter. More of the finest theatre in New York, brought to Bryan-College Station for you! And all at a savings!

CRIMES OF THE HEART February 2, 1984

This Pulitzer Prize winning tragi-comedy takes us to an evening with the MaGrath sisters: Babe, out on bail from shooting her husband; Meg, the struggling singer on leave from a psycho ward; and Lenny, coming to grips with life as an old maid. A wonder of Southern Gothic humor.

"A crime for anyone interested in the theatre not to see this play."-New York Post.

THE PIRATES OF PENZANCE

Starring Maria Muldaur, October 23, 1983

PHONE #

Winner of three Tony Awards, this band of fierce yet totally fallible swashbucklers is pursued by their former apprentice, who is honor bound to exterminate them. They may yet be saved by their pursuer's starry-eyed love for the fetching Mabel, played by pop recording star Maria Muldaur. A giddy, rollicking adaptation of the original Gilbert and Sullivan operetta.

"If you go to the theatre only once this year, this is the show!"-Newsweek.

BLUES IN THE NIGHT

Starring Della Reese, March 27, 1984

A sultry, sizzling show about three women in 1938 hotel rooms crying the blues. Defiant, nostalgic memories of women who can neither live with men nor without them. Great blues and jazz.

"One of the best musical scores to hit Broadway in many a year."-Newark Star Ledger.

PUMP BOYS AND DINETTES April 16, 1984

Take Highway 57 from Smyrna towards Frog Level. Watch close and you'll find a gas station right across from the Double Cupp Diner, run by them Cupp sisters, Prudie and Rhetta. Roll into the station and them "Pump Boys" - Jim Jackson, Eddie and L.M. — will fall all over you, (if you're buying the beer, of course). Or just pull off on the side and get your ears filled with high octane down-home country rockabilly, bluegrass, gospel and blues.

"As refreshing as an ice-cold beer after a bowl of five alarm chili."-New York Times.
