Octopussy: This is the James Bond movie with Roger Moore playing the immortal spy himself. Maud Adams makes a return appearance and plays the leader of a band of Amazons who help James Bond in his exploits to save the world. Rated R.

MSC Aggie Cinema
845-1515

Tootsie: Dustin Hoffman stars in this award winning comedy about an actor who finds it difficult to find work so he plays his greatest role—an actress. Rated PG. Friday and Saturday. 7:30 and 9:45. Rudder Theatre.

Tommy: The Who wrote this rock musical which promises to be a visual experience to be remembered. Roger Daltry plays the lead. Rated R. Friday and Saturday. Midnight. Rudder Theatre.

Modern Times: This Charlie Chaplin classic is a satire on the beginning of industrialization. This is also the very first time that the Little Tramp's voice is heard. Unrated. Sunday. 7:30 pm. Rudder Theatre.

To Kill a Mockingbird: Gregory Peck stars in this, the film version of Harper Lee's Pulitzer Prize winning novel on prejudice in the South. Unrated. Wednesday. 7:30 pm. Rudder Theatre.

Plitt Cinema

Nightmares: The latest of the horror movies. This one is conceptually different than most however. The horror of this one is that it plays with scaring you with your own fears. Rated R.

Hercules: Muscles make money? That's what the producers must be counting on because that is about all this movie has. Rated PG.

Vacation: National Lampoon's latest comedy effort starring Chevy Chase. The story is about a typical American family on vacation and their adventures in travelling across the United States. Rated R.

Rocky Horror Picture Show: What happens when the all-American couple meets a transsexual and his trusty servants? They find out how much fun life can really be. This is a classic cult film and is bound to be around for a very long time. Midnight. Rated R.

Let's Spend the Night Together: This is a film of clips from the Rolling Stones 1981 U.S. tour. Midnight. Rated R.

Manor East
823-8300

The Man From Snowy River: Kirk Douglas stars in this western about a boy suddenly alone in the world who helps a girl struggling with life. This film is a test to see how long a theater can get away with showing the same movie. In Dolby stereo. Rated PG.

Return of the Jedi: The third piece to the exciting Star Wars trilogy. I doubt seriously if there is anywhere out there who doesn't know what this film is about. If you don't, well then, it's time to wake up and smell the coffee. Rated PG.

Metalstorm: Another silly boring and trivial science fiction adventure story. Rated G.

MSC Cepheid
Variable:
845-1515

A Clockwork Orange: A classic science fantasy movie based on the novel of the same name. A sure to be unusual film. Rated R. Thursday. 7:30 and 10:00 pm. Rudder Theatre.

Post Oak:
764-0616

Staying Alive: The sequel to Saturday Night Fever. John Travolta stars as a dancer who wins the lead in a Broadway musical, the only problem is that John Travolta really can't dance that well so the fog machine is turned on to hide his legs. The music is still by the Bee Gees. Oh Gee. Rated R.

Risky Business: A delightful change of pace as far as teen-age adventures. This particular film has wit and charm despite a few problems. Rated R.

Schulman Six
775-2468

War Games: What happens when a computer fails to make the distinction of a real war and a war game to a 14-year-old boy? See what happens as a young computer genius taps into the Pentagon's defense computers and plays war with the Russians for real. Rated PG.

Mr. Mom: A new movie with no new ideas. It is the idea of what happens when daddy stays at home and mommy goes to work. Rated R.

Easy Money: Rodney Dangerfield stars in this comedy about a party-going individual who will inherit a fortune if he can make it straight. Rated R.

Trading Places: Eddie Murphy and Dan Akroyd star in this humorous Prince and the Pauper type story. These two talents come together to make one of the funniest comedies released this summer. For good entertainment come see this one. Rated R.

Porky's 2: A sad sequel to an almost original film. This film takes the exploits of our high school friends and shows us how far juvenile humor can go before we go mad. Rated R.

Flashdance: This film has helped create a craze in New Music. This film has little plot and little acting but is nevertheless entertaining and worth seeing. Rated R.

Skyway Twin Drive-In 822-3300

Super Flirts: A mindless adventure in the drive-in experience. This time you can actually not watch the movie and still not miss anything. Rated R.

Sweet Temptations: How's this movie? See above entry. Rated R.

Wavelength: The aliens are coming, no they are already here. Too bad this movie is. Rated R.

Battlestar : I think that is the name for this movie, after all how can you remember the name when you can't even remember the movie. See above entries. Rated R.

Flashdance : A film with little plot and little acting talent but it has some of the most electrifying dancing and music that has come out of a movie in a long time. This film does for New Music what Saturday Night Fever did for Disco. Rated R.

On the cover: College just wouldn't be college without road trips, especially when you go to school in a relatively small town. To combat boredom, we're offering places to go — in another city — on pages 8 and 9.
