FAMILY EDUCATIONAL RIGHTS AND PRIVACY ACT OF 1974 DIRECTORY INFORMATION

To comply with the requirements of the "Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974," Texas A&M University must periodically announce publicly the policies and procedures implementing the act. Additional information is available from the Office of the Registrar. The different types of student records are maintained in various university offices and the chief administrator in each of these offices is responsible for them.

Generally, with certain exceptions, the law provides that students and former students have the right to review their records, request explanations concerning them, obtain copies and challenge records which they feel are inaccurate, misleading or otherwise inappropriate. The challenge procedure includes a full and fair opportunity for the student to present relevant evidence at a hearing. The law also provides that students may waive their right of access to confidential letters of recommendation and may also grant permission to release certain personally identifiable information.

The exception to this law, i.e., records not accessible to students, include educational personnel records in the sole possession of the author, records maintained for law enforcement purposes, employment records of non-students, records maintained by a physician, psychiatrist or psychologist and financial records of a student's parents.

The law also provides that in addition to University employees having a "legitimate educational interest," certain other governmental and quasi-governmental agencies and parents certifying that a student is carried as a dependent for income tax purposes may have access to the University can release "directory information" (such as name, address, telephone listing, major field of study, classification, date and place of birth, participation in activities and sports, height and weight of athletic team members and degrees and awards received, etc.); however, students may request that this information be withheld. To request that such "directory information" be withheld by the University from public disclosure through such means as certification of enrollment, the campus directory, address and telephone lists for university organizations, etc., a student must complete and sign the proper from in the Office of the Registrar.

The student must realize that approximately one month is needed to

The student must realize that approximately one month is needed to remove this information from materials already in circulation. However, the campus directory is printed only once a year, and after printing, no information can be removed

The student is responsible for renewing this request each September, and the validity of the requests extends from the date of the request to the following September 1st.
Individuals who have additional questions concerning the "Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974" or who wish to withhold "Directory Information" must contact the Office of the Registrar, Texas Asm University by Friday. September 23, 1983. A&M University by Friday, September 23, 1983.

Texas' crime rate increases

United Press International AUSTIN — Violent crime in Texas rose 8.4 percent during 1982, although the FBI reported a nationwide decrease in the crime rate and the number of crimes reported to police. The FBI Sunday said regional and national crime rates were down 4 percent, but Texas had a 4.2 percent increase. Arkansas, Louisiana and Oklahoma are included with Texas in the FBI's West South Central region.

While violent crime was substantially up in Texas last year, the murder rate per 100,000 population was down 3.1 percent. Nationally the murder rate dropped 7.1 percent and was down 0.7 percent in the region.

For the state's five largest cities, the FBI said Dallas-Fort Worth reported the largest number of crimes per 100,000 the crime rate reported by Dipeople — 8,047. El Paso had the for the first six months of 198 dipeople — 100,000 for the first six months of 198 dipeople —

Others were Houston, 7,612; Austin, 7,060, and San Antonio, crime rate was off three percent

Col. James Adams, DPS dire for the first six months of the year. He said decreases weren corded in every major crim category except theft.

Adams credited the 1983 decrease to "widespread" participation by citizen crime-fighting groups.

"Although the specific reasons behind this decrease would be difficult to determine I'd like to think that widesprea citizen participation in police crime prevention programs con tinues to be a factor," he said 'We hope this decrease in the crime rate will carry through the rest of the year."
Adams' view was shared by

Tex Martin, director of the Texas Crime Stoppers program
"A tremendous emphasis is being placed on prevention in the neighborhood crime stop pers programs," said Martin "The citizens are really getting involved." Martin said Go Mark White's administration has also helped law enforcement by emphasizing citizen participation. "He's very aware these crime prevention programs work," said Martin.

From cook and back again

MIAMI — Johnny Jones went from picking cotton to bus boy to short-order cook to superintendent of the nation's fill largest school system. Now, after being convicted in the "gold plumbing caper" of trying to bilk taxpayers for the cost of luxury bathroom fixtures in vacation home, Jones has descended from his $58,422-a-year schools position to another cook ing job, this time in Miami's Brownsville slum. "Since June 1982, I've been working in a restaurant that belongs to my daughter as the chiel cook and bottle washer," said Jones, 49, Dade County schools superintendent until his suspension in 1980.
