Both Aggie tennis teams in tournaments this weekend

by Scott Griffin
Battalion Staff

Both Texas A&M tennis teams will be in action again this weekend — the men will stay at home to play in the A&M Invitational while the women travel to Austin for the Westwood Intercollegiate Invitational.

Both teams will be competing in their second tournaments of the year. The women won the Lady Cardinal Tournament last weekend at Beaumont, beating LSU 7-2 and defending tournament champion Houston by a 5-4 score.

Cannon was realistic about her team's chances this weekend. "The tournament will probably be decided between Trinity and Texas, but we're gonna try to make it rough on them," Cannon said.

Cannon said Wednesday the team will face even tougher competition in Austin. "Two of the top 10 teams in the country will be there — Texas and Trinity," she said.

Play will begin Friday at noon and will continue through Sunday.

The men will be staying at home this weekend to play in the four-way A&M Invitational. Southwest Louisiana, Houston, and Louisiana Tech complete the field.

The men are coming off what coach David Kent calls a slightly disappointing performance last weekend at the University of Texas tournament.

"Our performance was a little bit lower than I expected," Kent said Wednesday. "But we should be much improved this weekend."

Doubles play was the strong point of the team at the UT tournament. Greg Hill and Grant Connell won the doubles competition, beating teammates Joey Perry and Mark Smith 6-2, 6-0 in the final.

A&M had three out of the four doubles teams in the semifinals.

But Kent was not pleased with the singles performance. "We hope to improve our singles play this weekend," Kent said.

Hill is A&M's top singles player and is seeded fourth for the tournament.

Hill and Connell are seeded second in the doubles bracket.

Kent has a young team this season with five freshmen on the squad — Connell, Mark Smith, play hard. I hope we play well."

The Razorbacks will be trying to rebound from a 13-10 loss last Saturday to the Ole Miss Rebels. They got just 56 rushing yards on 38 plays, and Holtz indicated after practice Thursday that he still had not decided on starting running backs.

He said Carl Miller, Derrick Thomas, Bobbie Joe Edmonds or Billy Warren all were still in the running for starting slots.

He had indicated earlier that Warren, who average 5.6 yards in a win over New Mexico set a lot of action in Saturday nationally televised game.

Warren did not play in the Ole Miss game.

Running back Nathan still is nursing an injured string and will miss the Holtz said.

The game, which will broadcast to 10 states, will begin at 11:35 a.m. Saturday at Amon Carter Stadium in Worth.

Coach Jan Cannon says weekend tourney is tough

Joey Perry, Dean Goldfarb, Marcel Vos. And competing his problems was the loss of his top players from last year. Kimmo Alkio, who was forced to return to Finland for military service.

But Kent isn't discouraged. "We've got five good freshmen players," Kent added. "We hope to be in the top 20 of the year."

Tournament play will begin Friday at 1:00 p.m. and end through Sunday. On Saturday, the doubles final will begin at 1:30 p.m.

AGGIE NOTES: The A&M men's golf team is in place after one round at the Butler National Collegiate tournament in Chicago. The Aggies are first with a 298. The 18-hole tournament runs through Saturday.

Randy Johnson, Chris Chambliss, Tim Lincecum, who single out. Gene Garber, who captured the victory with a 4-3 win.

Foreman, 34, now has three home runs in his first shutout in six games. It was the second shutout suffered by Foreman, who stranded 11 men.

Thurs. practice leaves Holtz hopeful for game

United Press International
FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. — The Arkansas Razorbacks closed out preparations Thursday for the Texas Christian Horned Frogs on a note that left head coach Lou Holtz optimistic about Saturday's game.

"This was the best Thursday the team has had this season," Holtz said. "It's hard to evaluate our mood, but we kept the mental errors to a minimum today."

"TCU (0-2-1) will be a difficult task," he said. "I know we'll
