Washington keeps pace with Cowboys with 38-14 victory

United Press International
Sparked by Timmy Newsome's 52-yard tightrope act with just 47 seconds remaining in regulation, the Cowboys remained the NFL's lion tamers and the Buccaneers still were at the other end of the whip.

Newsome's TD catch forced an overtime and Dallas' Rafael Septien kicked a 42-yard field goal 4:38 into the extra period to bring the Cowboys an amazing 27-24 victory over hard-luck Tampa Bay.

The Cowboys, who remained a game in front of Washington in the NFC east, remained the NFL's only unbeaten team while the Buccaneers and the Houston Oilers are the only winless clubs.

With the Buccaneers leading 24-17, Newsome caught the ball in the left flat and appeared headed out of bounds in order to stop the clock. But he stopped just short of the sideline and then headed downfield, staying just inbounds and hurdling a would-be tackler along the way. Tampa Bay suffered the embarrassment of giving up an NFL record 49 points in the first half against Green Bay the previous Sunday but appeared to have at least partially atoned for that showing by outplaying the Cowboys.

At Chicago, Tony Galbreath and Darrin Nelson scored on long touchdown runs and Benny Ricardo kicked three field goals to lead the Vikings, 4-2. Galbreath, who rushed for 104 yards on 16 carries, scored on a 52-yarder and Nelson scampered 52 yards for a score on the third play of the game.

At Baltimore, Mike Pagel passed 68 yards to Curtis Dickey for a touchdown and ran for three key first downs to spark the Colts. The Baltimore defense recovered two fumbles, intercepted a Steve Grogan pass at the goal line and recorded a safety with less than two minutes left.

At Miami, Joe Danelo kicked a 36-yard field goal with just 62 seconds left in overtime and Joe Ferguson tossed a career-high five TD passes to help the Bills, 4-2. Uwe von Schamann missed two field goals in overtime for the Dolphins, who received three TD passes from rookie Dan Marino.

At San Francisco, rookie Eric Dickerson, the NFL's leading rusher, scored on a 15-yard TD run and rookie Chuck Nelson added a 41-yarder with a league-leading 645 yards rushing, carried 22 times for 142 yards, including a 49-yarder that set up his touchdown.

At East Rutherford, N.J., Ron Jaworski and Mike Quick teamed for two touchdown passes to guide the Eagles. Quick finished with six catches for 72 yards and Jaworski hit 16-of-31 passes for 241 yards and no interceptions.

At Los Angeles, Marcus Allen, who earlier threw for a touchdown, recovered a fumble in the end zone with 8:29 remaining to lead the Raiders, 5-1. The Chiefs had a chance to win when Nick Lowery tried a 48-yard field goal in the closing seconds, but it was blocked by linebacker Ted Hendricks.

At San Diego, cornerback Andre Young returned an interception 40 yards with just over two minutes remaining to lift the Chargers. San Diego's Dan Fouts completed 28-of-36 passes for 331 yards and one touchdown and backup Ed Luther threw for another TD as the Chargers improved to 3-3.

In other games, Cleveland nipped the New York Jets 10-7, Washington crushed St. Louis 38-14, New Orleans edged Atlanta 19-17, Detroit clobbered Green Bay 38-14, Denver topped Houston 26-14, Minnesota downed Chicago 23-14, Baltimore beat New England 12-7, Buffalo shaded Miami 38-35 in overtime, the Los Angeles Rams held off San Francisco 10-7, the Los Angeles Raiders nipped Kansas City 21-20 and San Diego beat Seattle 28-21. Pittsburgh is at Cincinnati Monday night.

DeBerg leads Denver past slumping Oilers

United Press International
HOUSTON — Experience may be the best teacher, but for now million-dollar rookie John Elway will have to wait his turn.

It paid off for the Denver Broncos, at least in the present, for Elway to watch seven-year pro Steve DeBerg operate Sunday against the Houston Oilers.

DeBerg, who had played behind Elway over the first five games this season, passed for two touchdowns and used running back Sammy Winder's burst to break a three-game losing streak by a 26-14 score.

Elway said he hated watching instead of playing.

"The way Steve played today, I don't know when I'll get another chance," he admitted. "So I'll prepare myself as the backup and make sure I'm ready whenever coach (Dan) Reeves needs me."

DeBerg passed for 149 yards without an interception. He allowed the Broncos to control the ball. The Broncos did not have to punt until the third quarter — a startling development for a team that had rated as the league's worst offense through five games.

He credited the Broncos' 253 yards rushing with the win. Sammy Winder collected 165 yards on 29 carries.

"They didn't know where we were coming from. Our offense was more diverse, and the Oilers couldn't figure out where we would hit them next. Plus, we executed," DeBerg said.

The Oilers, 0-6, lost their 13th consecutive game. Coach Ed Biles pointed to four lost fumbles, but it was his defense's inability to slow the Broncos' running at key times that doomed his team.

"You don't win giving the ball away times," he said. "It's figure out who won who team makes all the big and the other makes the big."

DeBerg hit tight end Egloff with a 7-yard wide receiver Steve Winder with a 24-yard strike, scores, and place kicker Karlis booted field goals of 45, 39 and 34 yards.

The Broncos, however, had averaged 25 points per game in their first five games. By half time they nearly topped that and ran up a 20-14 lead, two touchdown passes and two field goals.

The Oilers countered with a wild second quarter on son's first touchdown pass in the season, a 40-yard wide receiver Timmy Newsome. In a Monday on running back Earl Bell's 1-yard touchdown, three with 1 minute left in the game by the Oilers.

The Oilers were scoreless in the second quarter and they contributed a wide receiver Timmy Newsome, which continued bad fortune but it will fund four fumbles.

The Oilers, who are similar to on earn the Oilers starting 1983 Er amid rumors that the Oilers would try to obtain Newsome because of so Giants backup Phil Simms. This year and late in the game. Newsome was between, he passed for 184 yards, attempts. Newsome said it was a back-up of the 44,209 in attendance.

with a pass in the fourth quarter that sailed far over the head of tight end Arnold.

At that point, the Oilers trailed 23-14 and had had a third down and the Denver 27 yard line.

Nielson faked a hand into the line, stepped back looking at a wide open receiver 15 yards from the end zone. He threw a pass that Arnold no chance to catch.

Aggies won UTSA

by Chappelle Hester

Battalion Report

The Texas A&M cross country track team won the City of Texas at San Antonio meet Friday.

Arturo Barrios, a runner from Wharton College, led the Aggies by placing second with a 24 minutes and 44 seconds time. The Aggies are two seconds off winner Solar of UTSA.

"We were pleased with team's performance," Ted Nelson said. "Barrios' finish helps Aggies have a survey second in their history this season, having 85 percent without Barrios' member."

"We didn't go out the first mile and see the Depners were out in front of us we started picking them up two miles," Nelson said.

Andy Elliott, a senior Dallas Hillcrest High helped aid the Aggies by finishing fourth in the mile course on the campus.

"Aaron Ramirez, Treat (13th) and Stark (16th) all ran good and have run consistently," Nelson said.

The Aggies next meet Texas Invitational in town on Oct. 20.
