War Games: A high level Pentagon computer fails to make the difference between real war and a war game to a young computer genius. The results in this sleeper hit are terrifying to think about. Rated PG.

I Like to Watch: I like to watch this film. Rated X.

Raiders of the Lost Ark: There's danger and adventure around every corner for Harrison "Indiana Jones" Ford as he searches for the lost Ark of the Covenant. Steven Spielberg fashions an epic adventure full of romance, comedy and action. Rated PG. Friday and Saturday 7:30 p.m. and 9:45 p.m. Rudder Theater.

Murder By Death: Five of the world's most famous detectives are sent invitations by an eccentric millionaire to solve the most baffling murder ever committed. Rated PG. Friday and Saturday. Midnight. Rudder Theater.

Fahrenheit 451: Bock paper burns at a temperature of 451 degrees Fahrenheit, a fact known by every "fireman" of this repressive futuristic society. Oskar Werner defies his book-burning comrades and a vengeful government in his bid for freedom. Ralph Bakshi's animated version of Tolkein's classic tale of fantasy. Rated G. Thursday. 7:30 and 9:45 p.m. 701 Rudder.

A Romantic Comedy: Surprise! Don't know anything about this one.

An Officer and a Gentleman and 48 Hours: A strange double-feature. Officer stars Richard Gere and Debra Winger in a modern love story. 48 Hours stars Eddie Murphy and Nick Nolte. Rated R.

Zelig: Woody Allen has a new movie and critics seem to think that perhaps this is the best Allen film to date. Reports are that some of the traditional Allen concepts have begun to change starting with this film. Rated R.

Rocky Horror Picture Show: A classic cult film where the hero is a transsexual who delights in corrupting the innocent. This film is a wonderful social commentary and spoof on horror films. Midnight. Rated R.

Phantom of the Paradise: Not sure about this one, but I don't think I want to go to paradise. Midnight. Rated R.

Manor East
823-8300

Never Say Never Again: Sean Connery returns as James Bond to save the world from nuclear terrorism. Bond goes from England to the Bahamas and the South of France in pursuit of his long-time enemy, Ernst Stavro Blofeld. Rated PG.

Return of the Jedi: The third piece to the exciting Star Wars trilogy. I doubt seriously anyone exists who hasn't heard about this film. If you don't, well then, it's time to give Aunt Helen a call. Rated PG.

Evil Dead: Another horror-type film. Not sure what kind of blood and guts this one is specializing in. Rated R.

Post Oak:
764-0616

Risky Business: A delightful change of pace as far as teen-age adventures go. This particular film has wit and charm despite a few plot problems. Probably one of the most underrated films of the summer and fall. Rated R.

Waltz Across Texas: This is a new one on me. You'll have to see it to find out what it's about. Rated PG.

A year of Living Dangerously: Mel Gibson and Sigourney Weaver star in this movie about a journalist in Indonesia during a civil war. Rated R.

Schulman Six
775-2468

The Golden Seal: A family-type adventure about a little boy and a seal. Rated PG.

Mr. Mom: A new movie with no new ideas. The movie is what happens when daddy stays at home and mommy goes to work. Rated R.

Beyond the Limit: Richard Gere and Micheal Caine star in this just released film about two men in love with the same woman and how she influences them. The setting of the film is Argentina. If it's like other Gere films, there should be plenty of flesh scenes. Rated R.

Revenge of the Ninja: One of the endless Kung-fu movies that must be endured during any movie season. Rated R.

The Big Chill: A promising new movie. The story's about college buddies drifting apart. In college they all had been the non-conformists, but they now have become members of the establishment. Rated R.

Trading Places: Eddie Murphy and Dan Akroyd star in this humorous prince-and-the-pauper story. These two talents come together to make one of the funniest comedies released this summer. For good entertainment come see this one. Rated R.

Skyway Twin Drive-In 822-3300

Survival Zone: Supposed to be another horror flick. Rated R.

High Rider: Sounds like a motorcycle movie, but not sure. Rated R.

Vacation '83: Don't have to go far to see this. Rated R.

The Man With Two Brains: Steve Martin stars as a very accomplished neurosurgeon who marries a patient. The drawback is that while on vacation Martin falls in love with a brain. You can guess what happens, I hope. Rated PG.
