United Press International DALLAS — Former President Gerald R. Ford accused presidential candidates Wednesday of boring voters and called for election reforms to shorten the presidential political season to 10 months.

quium sponsored by Southern Methodist University. Presidential campaigns that run from 18 to 24 months could lead to less voter participation, he said.

"He's got another month or two at least in my judgment before he has to make a decision," Ford said. Ford also predicted former Vice President Walter Mondale would win the Democratic presidential nomination in 1984.

he could not understand Reagan did not also have the support he should have had.

"Deregulation is working very well in the U.S. airline industry. What it shows is regulation was a colossal failure. What regulation did was get costs out of line with the market place. Deregulation said the market place is going to determine what is a fair value for the consumer."

Charity may be in tax trouble United Press International CLEBURNE — Millionaire businessman Walter Mize says his new charitable organization has fallen into place so neatly it must have had divine force behind it, but the Internal Revenue Service may not share his conviction.

HOW TO LIVE WITH HERPES Herpes. You can't cure it. But you can control it and lead a happy, normal life. Research shows that two grams daily of the anti-oxidant BHT (butylated hydroxytoluene) for 60 days (with a 200 - 500 mg dosage, depending on body weight, after that) work to destroy the infectious qualities of the herpes virus. Studies show that BHT also helps your body attack cancer cells and slow the aging process. Call now 1-800-222-9080 LIFO
