Steelers' Rivera injured in automobile accident

United Press International
PITTSBURGH — Pittsburgh Steelers rookie defensive lineman Gabe Rivera was injured Thursday night in an automobile accident in the suburban North Hills.

Rivera, the team's No. 1 draft choice this year, reportedly was taken to North Hills Passavant Hospital and then transferred by helicopter to another hospital, the identity of which was not immediately known.

A Steelers spokesman said Rivera was admitted to a hospital but that no other details were available.
