

movies on tap

Check theaters for specific times and prices. Movies subject to change without notice. All listings are current through press time.

Campus Theater 846-6512

Sophie's Choice: Meryl Streep and Kevin Klein star in this strong drama of a Jewish woman in a Nazi concentration camp. Rated R.

The Erotic World of Angel Cash Nothing needs to be said about this cinematic classic. Rated X. Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Midnight.

MSC Cepheid Variable: 845-1515

The War of the Worlds: George Pal's version of H.G. Wells' classic story of the Martian invasion of Earth. Rated G. Thursday. 7:30 and 9:45 p.m. 701 Rudder.

Plitt Cinema I&II&III 846-6714

Dead Zone: Christopher Walken stars as a man who gains precognition in a car accident. Martin Sheen also is in this adaptation of a novel by Stephen King, which just may turn out to be a classy Halloween movie. Rated R.

The Man From Snowy River: Yes, it's back. This Australian film gives a new angle to the cowboy myth and shows quite a bit of that continent's scenery on the way. Rated PG.

Cocaine Cowboy: Well, it's either one of those silly, old propaganda films like Reefer Madness or a moving documentary about the drug habits of a professional football player. Midnight. Rated R.

Zelig: Woody Allen has a new movie and critics seem to think that perhaps this is the best Allen film to date. Reports are that some of the traditional Allen concepts have begun to change, starting with this film. Rated R.

Rocky Horror Picture Show: A classic cult film where the hero is a transsexual who delights in corrupting the innocent. This film is a wonderful social commentary and spoof on horror films. Midnight. Rated R.

MSC Aggie Cinema 845-1515

An Officer and a Gentleman: If you have somehow missed this story about an air officer cadet and the drill sergeant who wants to destroy him, this is your chance to see it. Lots of steam with Richard Gere and Debra Winger. Rated R. Friday 7:30 p.m. and 9:45 p.m. in Rudder Theater. Saturday 7:30 p.m. and 9:45 p.m. in Rudder Auditorium.

Let's Spend the Night Together: This is the movie based on the Rolling Stone's concert tour in 1981. You can catch a glimpse of Mick before he turned 40. Rated PG. Friday and Saturday. Midnight. Rudder Theater.

Brittania Hospital: An update on the Frankenstein story, this farce on British society tells the world how to make the perfect man of the '80s out of spare parts. Rated R. Sunday 7:30 p.m. Rudder Theater.

The 39 Steps: One of Alfred Hitchcock's most famous murder mysteries. Unrated. Wednesday. 7:30 p.m. Rudder Theater.

Manor East 823-8300

Never Say Never Again: Sean Connery returns as James Bond to save the world from nuclear terrorism. Bond goes from England to the Bahamas and the South of France in pursuit of his long-time enemy, Ernst Stavro Blofeld. Rated PG.

Return of the Jedi: The third piece to the exciting Star Wars trilogy. Anyone who hasn't heard about this film must live in a galaxy far, far away. Rated PG.

Revenge of the Ninja: One of the endless Kung-fu movies that must be endured during any movie season. Rated R.

Wizards: This perennial midnight cartoon by Ralph (Fritz the Kat) Bakshi relates how a fumbling, sex-crazed wizard saves the world from his utterly despicable brother. Rated R. Midnight.

Post Oak: 764-0616

Risky Business: A delightful change of pace as far as teen-age adventures go. This particular film has wit and charm despite a few plot problems. Probably one of the most underrated films of the summer and fall. Rated R.

Something Wicked This Way Comes and Watcher in the Woods: This double feature should be a good deal if you like a little horror and pyrotechnics. The first movie, by Ray Bradbury, was a pretty good flick considering that no one saw it. Rated PG.

Independence Day: No one seems to know what this movie is about, but I definitely remember the title from this spring. Perhaps a romantic comedy of some sorts? Rated R.

Schulman Six 775-2468

Beyond the Limit: Richard Gere and Michael Caine star in this just-released film about two men in love with the same woman and how she influences them. The setting of the film is Argentina. If it's like other Gere films, there should be plenty of flesh scenes. Rated R.

The Big Chill: A promising new movie. The story's about college buddies drifting apart. In college they all had been the non-conformists, but they now have become members of the establishment. Rated R.

Brainstorm: Natalie Wood has become the star of this feature because she died while it was in production. She plays one of a team of scientists who discover a device that can make your dreams appear real. Rated PG.

Mr. Mom: A new movie with no new ideas. The movie is what happens when daddy stays at home and mommy goes to work. Rated R.

Trading Places: Eddie Murphy and Dan Akroyd star in this humorous prince-and-the-pauper story. These two talents come together to make one of the funniest comedies released this summer. For good entertainment come see this one. Rated R.

Under Fire: More South American intrigue, this time with Nicke Nolte and Gene Hackman. Hopefully it's better than Beyond the Limit. Rated R.

Skyway Twin Drive-In 822-3300

East

Black Cat and Cold Sweat: They have got to be cheap horror films, but if you're in the spirit, why not? Rated R.

West

Still of the Night and Evil Dead: There is no need to comment on the second movie (if that's what it is), but the first is a nice suspense thriller with big name stars — Meryl Streep and Roy Scheider. Rated R.

At Ease

Editor Rebeca Zimmermann
Assistant Editor Shelley Hoekstra
Staff Writers Ann Ramsbottom,
Cary Stegall, Angel Stokes

Album reviews

by Cary Stegall 4

The Executives — not businessmen

by Louis Hilgartner 4

On the cover: For some, midterms are over...for others, the cramming has only just begun. How are you holding up? For answers to midterm money blues, and reliable study clues, see pages 8 and 9. Cover photo by Dean Saito.