Federal deregulation has changed the way we own telephones. After January 1, 1984 you'll have these choices. Lease or buy the phone you're using now. Or buy a state-of-the-art telephone for about the cost of your old phone.

Compare. Your old phone is probably a manual system, using technology that hasn't changed in fifty years.

Telecom offers telephones with a whole lot more. Call forwarding. Conference calling. One touch dialing. No touch intercom. For about the same price as your old manual phone.

You will buy a telephone this year. Get your money's worth.
