"You've got a real problem with that," Sherrill said. "Because when officials look at each other, they're going to wait and see who throws up his hands."
"One official said Murray broke the plane and the other said he didn't. It's not a very good thing for the officials to tell the players that you've scored and then have another say you didn't. And that's what happened."

But SMU coach Bobby Collins said there wasn't a thing wrong with the officials' judgement — just like there wasn't a wrong with the way the Aggies defended the Pro Bowl. "Just like they have a long, our defense made a play when it had to," said. "Winning teams make successful goal line stands had to make a big play, an

Oilers fall in overtime

United Press International
CLEVELAND — Rookie Boyce Green ran 21 yards for a touchdown with 8:26 left in overtime Sunday to give the Cleveland Browns a 25-19 victory over the Houston Oilers.
After both teams exchanged punts in the overtime period, former Texas A&M wide receiver Mike Whitwell intercepted a pass by Houston quarterback Gifford Nielsen on the Houston 35 and returned to the 21.
Green, who carried 13 times for 108 yards, then broke up the middle on the first play to hand Houston its 16th straight defeat. The Oilers last won Sept. 19, 1982.

The Browns, who led only briefly early in the game on the first of Matt Bahr's four field goals, tied the score at 19-19 with 53 seconds left in the fourth quarter on Bahr's 30-yard field goal.
Only one touchdown was scored in the second half, when Nielsen hit Mike Renfro with a 38-yard scoring pass to give the Oilers a 16-10 lead with left in the third period. Kempf missed the extra try.

Kempf kicked a 29-yard goal and Bahr added two to end the second-half score.
Paul McDonald, making first start of the year as quarterback for the Browns, hit 41 passes for 209 yards and one touchdown and two interceptions. Nielsen came on 11 of 25 for 152 yards

PRESEASON VOLLEYBALL TOURNAMENT

What better way to start off a weekend than with some thrilling Volleyball action! That's exactly what happened when 13 teams competed Friday, October 14, in the Intramural Preseason Volleyball Tournament.

The men's division had a total of 8 men's teams and 1 women's team, the women, "We Don't Care," beat their first round challengers the "Purveyor Poo-ahs" 15-8, 15-4, but bowed out in the next round. The men were left to battle it out alone, and when the smoke cleared "Ginsus" was victorious. Scott Rippetoe, Dave Wright, T.J. Packard, Scott Saenger, and Kip Smith made up the winning team.

In the Co-rec competition "Slurp and Burp" proved to be tougher than the other 3 teams. Edna Brown, Kris Boone, Mike Waldron, Tom Reber, Lisa Gracchino, Jeff McCracken, and Tim Willett combined their efforts to outscore the Imports 15-11, 15-10.

Team pictures were awarded to every individual of the winning teams and Intramurals "served up" a good time for everybody involved.

TEXAS A&M EXTRAMURAL SPORTS CLUBS

What clubs are totally student run and operated and compete intercollegiately on the national level? You guess it, the Texas A&M Extramural Sports Clubs! The 34 clubs provide students, regardless of ability, the opportunity to and to participate in activities and sports that are not otherwise available through the Athletic Department. Any Texas student is eligible to become a member. Extramural Sports Clubs also offer you the chance to gain leadership experience. Members are responsible for organizing their own programs, making facility arrangements, scheduling competitions, and working with their budgets. If you are interested in joining a club come by the Intramural-Recreational Sports Office at 159 East Kyle. For more information call Barbara Aiken at 845-7826.
