

OCA to finish street dance plans

Final plans for the Off-Campus Aggies' street dance will be discussed at the OCA meeting tonight at 6:30 in 601 Rudder Tower.

The dance, a fund raiser for the United Way campaign, will be Saturday at Culpepper Plaza from 8 p.m. to midnight.

"All we really need is more help with putting up the fence," Diana Horton, the student in charge of the dance, said.

Two local radio stations,

KORA and KTAM, will provide the music for the dance. Beer and soft drinks will be sold for 50 cents. No admission will be charged.

Other items to be discussed are bonfire buddies and party plans.

"We're still looking for more girls to sign up for bonfire buddies," Michelle Davis, OCA treasurer, said. "There aren't enough for the number of guys that signed up."

OCA also is planning a party for after the street dance, she said.

Police beat

The following incidents were reported to the University Police Department through Tuesday:

THEFTS:
 • A wallet from 213A Blocker. The wallet contained $3 in cash, a Texas driver's license, a Texas A&M I.D. card, credit cards and other personal property.

• A wallet from a women's restroom in the Engineering Building. The wallet contained $15 in cash, a Texas driver's license, a Texas A&M I.D. card and other personal property.

• A orange home-made 10-speed bicycle from an apartment complex on Avenue A, north of University Drive.

BURGLARY:

• An 8-track tape player and an AM/FM cassette stereo were stolen from a 1970 Chevrolet

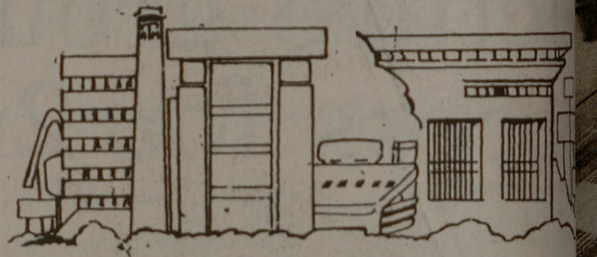

Camaro. The vehicle was parked in the student lot east of the John H. Lindsey Building (University Press).

• Coca Cola Co. and Chic Sales products were stolen from the concessions storage building in Kyle Field. A steel rod was used to pry open the building lock, University Police said.

OTHER:

• The front tires were deflated on a University Police car parked outside the Commons. The police officer was on duty in Aston Hall at the time.

Speakers seminar applications open

Applications are being accepted for the Student Speakers Seminar which will be offered during the spring semester. The seminar is designed to prepare students to speak events on behalf of Texas A&M. Seminar sessions will include topics such as the mechanics of speaking, speech preparation and delivery, often-asked questions and answers and practical experience. The seminar will be informal, enjoyable and designed to be useful both before and after graduation.

Places are limited to 25 students of sophomore or junior classification (or some five year seniors) with a moderate heavy involvement in campus activities.

More information and applications are available in the Student Activities Office, 208 Pavilion, or by calling 846-1133. Applications are due Nov. 24.

Hillel Foundation to sponsor speaker

The student Hillel Foundation will present a speaker, Dennis Prager, co-author of "Why the Jews," a new book on antisemitism, today from noon to 2 p.m. Prager's discussion of his book will be held at the Foundation at 600 Jersey, and open to the public.

Prager has taught Jewish history at the City University of New York and was a Fellow at the Russian and Middle Eastern Studies of the Columbia University School of International Affairs. From 1976 to 1983, Prager was director of the Brandeis-Bardin Institute in California. He is moderator of a radio program called "Religion on the Line."

Bonfire hardhats on sale this week

Maroon and white A&M hardhats for Bonfire, approved by OSHA, will be sold by the Associated General Contractors organization for the benefit of an AGC scholarship. The hardhats will be on sale in front of Sbis Dining Hall and Rudder Fountain Monday through Friday, until Nov. 10, from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Individual Aggieland photos taken

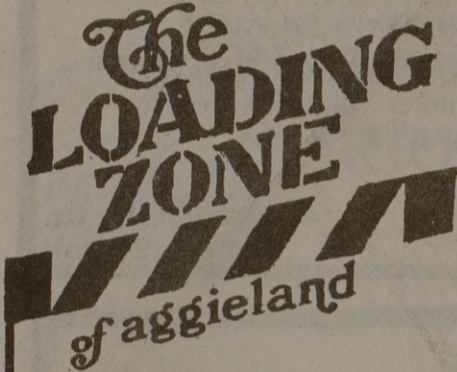

Individual pictures for the 1984 Aggieland are being taken at the Yearbook Associates office at 1700 S. Kyle, behind Culpepper Plaza, and will be taken at the Pavilion on campus.

Dates to have photographs made are:
 • Juniors — Nov. 7-11, Nov. 14-18 and Nov. 28-Dec. 2
 Yearbook Associates; and Dec. 5-9 at the Pavilion
 • Seniors, graduate students, veterinary and medical school students — through Friday at the Pavilion.

Society offers free help sessions

Pledges from Tau Beta Pi, a national engineering honor society, will be available to help any student in Math 151 and 253, and ME 211 and 212. The help sessions will be held every Tuesday and Thursday afternoon from 4 p.m. to 6 p.m. in 104D Zachry. They begin today and will continue through service through dead week.
