

Summer in Smoke, to play here movies on tap

Check theaters for specific times and prices. Movies subject to change without notice. All listings are current through press time.

Campus Theater 846-6512

Brainstorm: Natalie Wood plays one of a team of scientists who discover a device that can make your dreams appear real. Rated R.

The Erotic World of Angel Cash: Another X-rated movie. Come on now, when you've seen one you've seen them all. Midnight.

MSC Aggie Cinema 845-1515

Sophie's Choice: Meryl Streep and Kevin Klein star in this strong drama of a Jewish woman in a Nazi concentration camp. Rated R.

Shampoo: Warren Beatty, Julie Christie and Goldie Hawn give you your money's worth with this story of a hairdresser obsessed with sex. Rated R. Saturday. Midnight. Rudder Theater.

Fitzcarraldo: The fascinating story of a man's dream to build an opera house in the middle of the Amazonian jungle. Werner Herzog directed. Rated PG. Sunday 7:30 p.m. Rudder Theater.

Barefoot in the Park: Neil Simon's comedy of married life starring Robert Redford and Jane Fonda as newlyweds. Unrated. Wednesday. 7:30 p.m. Rudder Theater.

MSC Cepheid Variable: 845-1515

Animal Farm: A&M really hasn't warmed up to the prospect of 1984, so here is your chance. This is Orwell's allegory set on a British farm. Unrated. Thursday. 7:30 p.m. and 9:45 p.m. 701 Rudder.

Plitt Cinema I&II&III 846-6714

Dead Zone: Christopher Walken stars as a man who gains precognition in a car accident. Martin Sheen also is in this adaptation of a novel by Stephen King, which just may turn out to be a classy Halloween movie. Rated R.

Educating Rita: Michael Caine stars as an alcoholic professor who falls in love with, you guessed it, Rita. Rated PG.

War Games: Matthew Broderick accidentally pushes a few too many buttons and lands himself in the middle of global nuclear war. This is one of the summer's best films. Rated PG.

Rocky Horror Picture Show: A classic cult film where the hero is a transsexual who delights in corrupting the innocent. This film is a wonderful social commentary and spoof on horror films. Midnight. Rated R.

Manor East 823-8300

All the Right Moves: Tom Cruise, hot off his role in Risky Business, stars this time in the story of a high school football player trying to get a college scholarship. Rated R.

Never Say Never Again: Sean Connery returns as James Bond to save the world from nuclear terrorism. Bond goes from England to the Bahamas and the South of France in pursuit of his long-time enemy, Ernst Stavro Blofeld. Rated PG.

Trading Places: Eddie Murphy and Dan Akroyd star in this humorous prince-and-the-pauper story. These two talents come together to make one of the funniest comedies released this summer. For good entertainment come see this one. Rated R.

Post Oak 764-0616

Deal of the Century: Chevy Chase tries one more time. He hasn't scored with a decent comedy since Foul Play, but with co-stars Sigourney Weaver and Gregory Hines he may have a shot. Rated R.

Richard Pryor Here and Now: More of Pryor, this time in New Orleans. Expect the usual topics — sex, drugs and growing up. Rated R.

Risky Business: A delightful change of pace as far as teen-age adventures go. This particular film has wit and charm despite a few plot problems. Probably one of the most underrated films of the summer and fall. Rated R.

Schulman Six 775-2468

The Big Chill: A promising new movie. The story's about college buddies drifting apart. In college they all had been the non-conformists, but they now have become members of the establishment. Rated R.

Deadly Force: Probably just another violent movie. Rated PG.

Mr. Mom: A new movie with no new ideas. The movie is what happens when daddy stays at home and mommy goes to work. Rated R.

The Osterman Weekend: A spy thriller starring Rutger Hauer, of Blade Runner fame. Rated R.

Tender Mercies: Stacy Keach is a down-and-out drifter, once a big country star, who settles down to begin a new life with a family. This is another of the year's better pictures. Rated PG.

Under Fire: More South American intrigue, this time with Nicke Nolte and Gene Hackman. Hopefully it's better than Beyond the Limit. Rated R.

Skyway Twin Drive-In 822-3300

East

Caboblanco and Graduation Day: A double feature with nothing in common. The latter is one of those "come if you like blood" type of movies. Rated R.

West

Final Terror and Ator: Go just to see Ator, one of the funniest movies released in a long time, and it didn't even try to be one. Rated R.

At Ease

Editor Rebeca Zimmermann
Assistant Editor Shelley Hoekstra
Staff Writers Cary Stegall, Angel Stokes

Are ticket-takers taken for granted?

by Cathy Smith 4

Traffic controllers helping Aggie fans

by Jaime Hataway 5

On the cover: Whether the football game is at home or out of town, tailgate parties are a big part of pregame activities for many Aggies. As the cover group shows, tailgate parties often become a family activity. See pages 8 and 9. Cover photo by Dean Saito.