

UT still in second place

Top twenty gets shuffled

United Press International
NEW YORK — Although three games matching ranked teams against each other last weekend shuffled the college rankings as expected, the top six teams didn't change at all.

Nebraska grabbed 38 of a possible 40 first-place votes and 598 overall points Monday to keep its commanding grip on first place in the latest balloting by the UPI Board of Coaches. No. 2 Texas received the other two first-place votes and 562 points, followed by No. 3 Auburn (526 points), No. 4 Georgia (491), No. 5 Miami of Florida (429) and No. 6 Illinois (416).

Auburn and Georgia fought off Florida 10-9, as the Gators fell from 10th to 13th. Texas struggled to a 9-3 win over Houston to hold first in the Southwest Conference, while Miami stayed in prime contention for an Orange Bowl bid with a 12-7 win over East Carolina.

Nebraska rolled over Iowa State 72-29 to stay in front in the Big Eight race and automatic Orange Bowl berth and Illinois stayed atop the Big Ten with a 50-23 win over Minnesota that practically clinched a Rose Bowl trip for the Illini.

Rounding out the Top 20 were No. 7 Southern Methodist, No. 8 Michigan, No. 9 Iowa, No. 10 Brigham Young, No. 11 Ohio State, No. 12 Boston College, No. 14 Pittsburgh, No. 15 West Virginia, No. 16 Alabama, No. 18 North Carolina, No. 19 Tennessee and No. 20 Washington.

Ohio State (56-17 over Indiana) moved up four spots and BYU (31-9 over Texas-El Paso) improved two places.

Moving up one spot each were SMU (20-6 over Rice), Boston College (34-14 over Army) and Alabama (32-26 over Louisiana State).

Idle Tennessee moved into the ratings for the first time all season, and Washington regained its ranking with a 23-22 win over Arizona.

Nebraska, 10-0, Texas, 8-0, and Georgia, 8-0-1, remain the only unbeaten teams in the ratings.

Tennessee's entry into the rankings gives the SEC five Top 20 teams, while Oklahoma's fall leaves the Big Eight with just one. There are four Big Ten teams, two each from the SWC and Atlantic Coast Conference, one each from the Pac-10 and WAC and four independents.

Michigan made the biggest upward move in the ratings, climbing eight spots after a 42-10 win over Purdue. Iowa (34-14 over Wisconsin), Pittsburgh (21-

Auburn at Georgia is the only meeting between ranked teams this week, although Miami faces a tough test at Florida State, while Maryland travels to Clemson.

17 teams pick Evans in 8th re-entry draft

United Press International
NEW YORK — Darrell Evans, who clubbed 30 home runs this year, was picked by 17 of the 26 major league teams and Kent Tekulve, who notched a 1.64 ERA with 18 saves, was chosen by 12 Monday as baseball clubs sought to strengthen themselves in the eighth annual Re-Entry Draft for free agents.

Evans was exempt from such classification because he has more than 12 years of credited service. Players who went through the draft are exempt.

SHAPE UP TWO

Here's a reminder for all you Ags about the new SHAPE UP TWO program. This program is offered through the Intramural-Recreational Sports Office and it is designed for those individuals who want to make a personal commitment to physical fitness.

The program is based on a assigned weekly school year system where the participant must fulfill his/her goals within a period from October 3, 1983 to August 31, 1984. This is different from the original SHAPE UP program which operates on a calendar year.

Weekly progress reports are available at the Intramural-Recreational Sports Department and weekly totals will be posted on the bulletin board outside the office.

A SHAPE UP TWO certificate is awarded for the completion of 250 points and a SHAPE UP TWO t-Shirt is awarded for the completion of 500 points. If you complete 1000 points your name will be inscribed on the SHAPE UP TWO Hall of Fame plaque. It's up to you Ags to get in shape, so why not SHAPE UP?

For those who are interested, the original SHAPE UP program still exists. It is available for anyone who is interested in getting in shape but doesn't want to be obligated to achieve weekly goals.

SPORTS CLUB UPDATE

The Extramural Sports Clubs have been scoring victories this semester and here are the results of their efforts! The Water Polo Club competed in the University of Texas Tourney at Austin on October 7 & 8. Texas A&M placed first out of 14 teams and was undefeated in the tournament. Then, on October 15 the club hosted the Aggie Tournament in College Station. The Texas A&M "A" team won first in this competition defeating 3 University of Texas teams.

The Men's Soccer Club played the University of Arkansas here in College Station on October 9 and won 3-0. Hector Lopea and Dave Ewan scored for the Aggies. The club traveled to Waco on October 15 to play Baylor but was outscored in a close game. Jim Bucholy and David Ewan made goals for Texas A&M but the Bears squeaked by and won 3-2.

The Women's Rugby Club has tallied up several victories. They beat the Louisiana State Tigers 8-0 and tied the Houston Hearts and the New Orleans Half Moons. The club also participated in the 13th annual San Antonio Sevens Tourney on October 22 & 23. They captured first place by beating the Houston Hearts 4-0, San Antonio Nones 8-0, and Oklahoma in a double overtime game 10-6.

The Men's Rugby Club also participated in the San Antonio Sevens Tourney and placed third in the men's division. Their first opponents, the Dallas Harlequins, edged by them 6-12. Texas A&M then won the next four games against Alamo City 18-0, San Antonio I 20-0, Baylor Strikers 20-0, and Austin Huns 18-0.

The Texas A&M Ultimate Team traveled to Spring Branch, Texas, to compete in the Ultimate Players Association Sectionals. The Texas A&M team placed fifth in the tourney and qualified for the U.P.A. Southern Regional Tournament in Austin.

Congratulation Extramural Sports Clubs!!!!

T.N.U.C. RACQUETBALL TOURNAMENT

David Locklear captured 1st Place in the men's division of the Intramural Field Goal Kicking Contest with a 52 yard field goal.

Congratulations go to Paige Peterson for setting a new Texas A&M Intramural record in the women's division of the IM Field Goal Kicking Contest! Paige kicked a 37 yard field goal.

FIELD GOAL KICKING CONTEST

On Wednesday, October 12, seventy-one participants tested their field goal kicking skills under the lights of Kyle Field. Sixty-two men and nine women entered the contest to determine just who could kick the longest field goal and also who could accumulate the yardage in the accuracy portion of the contest.

David Locklear booted a 52 yard field goal to clinch the men's title. Locklear also captured first place in the accuracy with 192 yards. Coming in close accuracy was Ted Croft with 160 yards.

Hearty congratulations go to Paige Peterson for setting a new Texas A&M Intramural record in the women's division. Peterson's record setting field goal was 37 yards long. She also won the accuracy competition with a total of 162 yards. Janet Brumby placed second in accuracy by kicking 125 yards.

The winners recieved Intramural Champions' t-shirts and had a big blast participating in the contest. A big thanks goes to all the participants. Keep on kicking!!
