

movies on tap

Check theaters for specific times and prices. Movies subject to change without notice. All listings are current through press time.

Campus Theater 846-6512

Brainstorm: Natalie Wood and Christopher Walken star in this movie about a team of scientists who discover a device that can make people live others' dreams. Rated R.

The Erotic World of Angel Cash: Another rated X movie. Come on now, when you've seen one you've seen them all.

MSC Aggie Cinema 845-1515

The Year of Living Dangerously: Sigourney Weaver and Mel Gibson star in the story of a journalist in the middle of war-torn Indonesia. Directed by Peter Weir. Rated R. Friday and Saturday.

The Texas Chainsaw Massacre: A classic of the midnight set, this is the true and gory story of a murder spree in a small Texas town, directed by Tobe Hunter of Poltergeist fame. Rated R. Friday and Saturday. Midnight. Rudder Theater.

The Night of the Shooting Stars: This Italian film reveals life at the closing of World War II through the eyes of a child. Rated PG. Sunday 7:30 p.m. Rudder Theater.

The Muppet Movie: The original, with Kermit, Miss Piggy and a cast of nearly famous people doing old jokes with a little new flair. Rated G. Wednesday. 7:30 p.m. Rudder Theater.

MSC Cepheid Variable: 845-1515

Silent Running: The story of the ark is recreated as a solitary man decides the future of Earth's flora and fauna. Rated PG. Thursday. 7:30 p.m. and 9:45 p.m. 701 Rudder.

Plitt Cinema I&II&III 846-6714

1990: The Bronx Warriors A: A futuristic version of the gang of Warriors story. Rated R.

Dead Zone: Christopher Walken stars as a man who gains precognition in a car accident. Martin Sheen also is in this adaptation of a novel by Stephen King. Rated R.

Educating Rita: Michael Caine stars as an alcoholic professor who falls in love with, you guessed it, Rita. Rated PG.

Rocky Horror Picture Show: A classic cult film with a transsexual hero who delights in corrupting innocents. This film is a wonderful social commentary and spoof on horror films. Midnight. Rated R.

Manor East 823-8300

All the Right Moves: Tom Cruise, hot off his role in Risky Business, stars in the story of a high school football player trying to get a college scholarship. Rated R.

Never Say Never Again: Sean Connery returns as James Bond to save the world from nuclear terrorism. Bond goes from England to the Bahamas and the South of France in pursuit of his long-time enemy, Ernst Stavro Blofeld. Rated PG.

Trading Places: Eddie Murphy and Dan Akroyd star in this humorous prince-and-the-pauper story. These two talents come together to make one of the funniest comedies released this summer. For good entertainment come see this one. Rated R.

Post Oak 764-0616

Deal of the Century: Chevy Chase tries one more time. He hasn't scored with a decent comedy since Foul Play, but with co-stars Sigourney Weaver and Gregory Hines he may have a shot. Rated R.

Richard Pryor Here and Now: More of Pryor, this time in New Orleans. Expect the usual topics — sex, drugs and growing up. Rated R.

Risky Business: A delightful change of pace as far as teen-age adventures go. This particular film has wit and charm despite a few plot problems. Probably one of the most underrated films of the summer and fall. Rated R.

Schulman Six 775-2468

The Big Chill: A promising new movie. The story's about college buddies drifting apart. In college they all had been the non-conformists, but they now have become members of the establishment. Rated R.

Mr. Mom: A new movie with no new ideas. The movie is what happens when daddy stays at home and mommy goes to work. Rated R.

The Osterman Weekend: A spy thriller starring Rutger Hauer, of Blade Runner fame. Rated R.

Stryker: — We still have nothing to go on with this one, but the name sounds interesting. Rated R.

Tender Mercies: Stacy Keach is a down-and-out drifter, once a big country star, who settles down to begin a new life with a family. This is another of the year's better pictures. Rated PG.

Under Fire: More South American intrigue, this time with Nicke Nolte and Gene Hackman. Hopefully it's better than Beyond the Limit. Rated R.

Skyway Twin Drive-In 822-3300

East

Deadly Force and National Lampoon's Class Reunion: This unlikely combination puts a suspense with a comedy that "missed" more than a few theaters across the country, perhaps for good reason. Rated R.

West

The Man from Snowy River and Max Dugan Returns: This has got to be the best double feature at a drive-in for quite a while. If you missed Snowy River elsewhere in town, this is your chance. Rated PG.

At Ease

A visit with a cartoonist

by Kim Schmidt and Rebeca Zimmermann 4

It's Wurstfest time!

by Pat Allen 4

Editor Rebeca Zimmermann
Assistant Editor .. Shelley Hoekstra
Staff Writers..... Bonnie Langford,
Lauri Reese, Cary Stegall,
Angel Stokes

On the cover: Strangely enough, if some people had had their way, this might have been a common scene on this campus. Suggestions were made in A&M's past to turn the school into an insane asylum. See pages 8 and 9 for more information on this and other odd Aggie stories. Cover photo by Dean Saito.