

Back-up QB leads Chargers past Cowboys

United Press International
Ed Luther may be just a back-up quarterback on a team playing out a lost season, but his performance Sunday might seem rather important to the Dallas Cowboys at season's end.

Luther completed 26-of-43 passes for 340 yards to fuel the San Diego Chargers' 24-23 upset of the Cowboys that snapped a four-game losing streak. The loss dropped the Cowboys to 9-2 and into a tie with Washington of the NFC East. Although Dallas and Washington share the conference's best record, one will have to settle for a wildcard playoff berth and their Dec. 11 meeting in Irving, Texas, will help decide which team it will be.

Washington was a 33-17 winner over the New York Giants Sunday.

Luther's 19-yard touchdown pass to tight end Pete Holohan put San Diego up 24-6 early in the third quarter and a late surge by the visiting Cowboys fell short.

Danny White, who was 31-of-47 for 302 yards and three touchdowns, hit Tony Hill for a 35-yard TD on the second play of the fourth quarter and pulled Dallas to within one point on a 4-yard pass to Billy Joe DuPree with 8:13 left.

The Chargers jumped ahead 7-0 when Miles McPherson blocked a Danny White punt with 6:22 left in the first quarter and San Diego linebacker Derrie Nelson scooped up the loose ball and ran 21 yards for the score.

San Diego made it 14-0 lead with 4:01 left in the half when Chuck Muncie crashed over right tackle to score from 2 yards out and Rolf Benirschke's 37-yard field goal with six seconds left in the half made it 17-6.

The Redskins moved into a tie with Dallas by capitalizing on three of New York's four turnovers to set up 13 points. Mark Moseley's four field goals also helped extend the Giants' winless streak to seven games. John Riggins added a pair of 2-yard scoring runs and Joe Theismann threw an 18-yard TD pass to Charlie Brown for the Redskins.

In other games, the Los Angeles Raiders edged Denver 22-20, San Francisco crushed New Orleans 27-0, Buffalo dumped the New York Jets 24-17, Kansas City shaded Cincinnati 20-15, Houston shocked Detroit 17-7, Green Bay shaded Minnesota 29-21, New England whipped Miami 17-6, Chicago nipped Philadelphia 17-14, St. Louis defeated Seattle 33-28, Cleveland blanked Tampa Bay 20-0 and Pittsburgh dropped Baltimore 24-13.

On Monday night, Atlanta hosts the Los Angeles Rams.

Chris Bahr kicked a 39-yard field goal with eight seconds remaining to overshadow a brilliant final-quarter performance by John Elway and lift the Raiders. After Elway had scored on a 4-yard touchdown run with 58 seconds left to give the Broncos a 20-19 lead, Plunkett completed three passes to tight end Todd Christensen for 45 yards to set the San Francisco defense sacked Saints quarterback Dave Wilson nine times. The victory gave the 49ers a 7-4 record and first place in the NFC West pending Monday night's game between the Los Angeles Rams and the Atlanta Falcons.

Joe Ferguson threw a 33-yard touchdown pass, his third of the game, to Joe Cribbs with 22 seconds remaining to lift Buffalo, sending the Jets to their fifth loss in the last six games. Ferguson, who earlier had touchdown passes of 10 yards to Mike Mosley and 19 yards to Byron Franklin, hit Cribbs streaking down the left side of the field on a 1st-and-10 from the Jets' 33.

Bill Kenney threw a 21-yard touchdown pass to Willie Scott and also rushed 1 yard for a score to lift Kansas City, snapping the Bengals' three-game winning streak. The Kansas City defense chipped in seven sacks and two interceptions of Ken Anderson.

Oliver Luck passed for two touchdowns and Earl Campbell ran for 107 yards to help Houston end a 17-game losing streak with its first victory since Sept. 19, 1982.

Lynn Dickey fired a 19-yard touchdown pass to James Lofton with 2:12 left in the game to boost Green Bay into a tie with the Vikings for the NFC Central Division lead. The loss overshadowed an outstanding all-around performance by Minnesota's Darrin Nelson, who caught seven passes for 137 yards, rushed 16 times for 119 yards and returned a kickoff 22 yards for a club-record 278 total yards.

Steve Grogan and Tony Collins rushed for first-half touchdowns and the New England prevented Miami from scoring a touchdown. The Patriots have won seven of their last eight meetings against the Dolphins at Foxboro, Mass.

Bob Thomas' 22-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter snapped a 14-14 tie and Walter Payton rushed for 131 yards on 23 carries to lead Chicago and sink the Eagles to their sixth straight loss.

Neil Lomax hit Roy Green with four touchdown passes but St. Louis needed a 33-yard field goal by Neil O'Donoghue with 7:50 left to hold off the Seahawks. Lomax tossed passes of 15, 23, 7, and 63 yards to Green in the first half as the Cardinals built a 28-14 lead. Seattle's Steve Largent caught three TD passes from Dave Krieg.

Mike Pruitt scored twice, Matt Bahr kicked two field goals and the Browns blanked Tampa Bay for their first shutout in nine years to keep their playoff hopes alive.

Cliff Stoudt threw two touchdown passes to lead Pittsburgh, dropping the Colts to 6-5 and crippling their chances of winning the AFC East. Pittsburgh has the AFC's best record at 9-2.

Although Dallas and Washington share the conference's best record, one will have to settle for a wildcard playoff berth and their Dec. 11 meeting in Irving, Texas, will help decide which team it will be.

Taylor had been sacked only three times before Saturday's game. It couldn't be anything but discouraging for Taylor to be continually facing a maroon jersey.

"Some of it was my fault," Taylor said, adding that he wasn't staying in the pocket to pass, which left him unprotected.

The Aggie defense also prevented any serious running attack by the Hogs, who mustered up only 39 net yards rushing.

"We just couldn't generate a running game, and that's always disastrous," Holtz said.

The Arkansas offense wasn't the only one having problems. The defense had its own problems, the biggest of which was Kevin Murray.

Arkansas linebacker Milton Fields said Murray deserved a lot of credit for the win.

"Murray did a real good job," Fields said. "We were having to play man-to-man. The backs were making us go wide which left the middle wide open. Murray took advantage of it."

PUNT, PASS & KICK

The IM Punt, Pass & Kick Contest was held Thursday, October 27 at 6:00 p.m. on the Penberthy Intramural Complex. This special event tested the 16 participant's strength and accuracy. Each contestant had to punt, pass and kick a football as far as possible within a straight line. If the ball went off course, this distance was subtracted from their total yardage.

So, without further ado, here are the winners of this year's contest. In the men's division first place went to Jett Johnson with 130 total yards. Pat McMillan came in second with 126 yards.

Janet Braly who total 91 yards became the winner of the women's competition. The second place title went to Charlotte Wilson with 61 total yards.

Congratulations to our winners, who received Intramural Championship t-shirts, and we hope to see all of you again next year.
