C.S. bond election set Tuesday

Capital improvements up for vote

Staff writer

College Station is having a bond election Tuesday and residents are being asked to vote on several bond issue proposals which would continue the city's Capital Improvements

Program.

The capital improvements plan was first considered last ugust when residents rejected half of the ten proposals. The number of issues now being proposed has been cut to seven. Proposition 1: City participation in the installation costs of water and sewer lines. Proposed funding — $1,800,000.

EF

KI

Proposition 3: Remodeling water and sewer lines. Proposed funding — $1,800,000.
In new subdivisions, developers are responsible for the extension of water and sewer lines to proposed lots. If the city predicts a larger line will be needed, the developer is required to in-stall the larger line and the city pays for the increased size of the Proposition 2: Construction of a new two-story police building and renovation of the existing police and municipal some sections of Central Fire Station and adding an annex to the south side of the station.

Proposed funding — $555,000. Proposition 4: Construction of an additional one-story fire station capable of housing one engine company, one ladder company and one ambulance crew. Proposed funding -$700,000.

A location will be chosen to accomodate the expected growth along State Highway 6 South. If this growth doesn't occur, the bonds will not be sold.

Proposition 5: Additions to the public services warehouses, including a welding shop, street and sanitation locker room, flat repair area, dry storage, covered parking for equipment and a small vehicle work rack. Landscaping of the area is also proposed. Proposed funding —

Proposition 6: Renovation of Lincoln Center, specifically the community recreation center, gymnasium, maintenance facil-ity and softball field and surrounding area. Proposed funding — $1,150,000.

Also proposed is the develop-ment of other neighborhood parks at Brentwood, Glennhaven and Sandstone Parks and the construction of an onsite maintenance facility to maintain Southwood Athletic Park and the surrounding Proposition 7: Street improvements. Proposed funding — $6,325,000.

For the past several years College Station has participated in major street construction, as outlined by the subdivision ordi-

The ordinance requires developers to be responsible for all city decides a larger street is needed, the developer is required to construct it and then the city repays the developer for the additional costs.

A bridge participation program is being proposed along the same lines as the existing programs for utilities and streets. It is proposed that the city share in the cost of constructing bridges over creeks needed for proposed major thoroughfares.

The proposed funding for several recommended projects under Proposition 7 is as follows: $1,000,000 for participation in major streets; $1,200,000 for miscellaneous rights of the proposition of the of t for miscellaneous rights-of-way; $1,000,000 for bridge participation; $2,100,000 for street rebuilding; $125,000 for miscellaneous curb and gutter replacement; $500,000 for intersection improvements; $200,000 for Marion Pugh Drive; $100,000 for Holleman Drive — winding road to Texas Avenue; and $100,000 for bus turnouts.

Polling places

The following polling places will be Street.
Holleman Street is under construction, but the Linch ing places will be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. Tuesday:

• City Voting Precinct 8 — South Knoll School on Boswell Street, Multi-Purpose

Building, Room 305.

• City Voting Precinct 9 — College Station Community

Center on Jersey Street.

City Voting Precinct 10 (includes County Voting Precinct 10 and the part of County Voting Precinct 10 and the Precinct 10 and the part of County Voting Precinct 10 and the ty Voting Precinct 28 inside College Station city limits) — College Station Police Station, Municipal Courtroom.

City Voting Precinct 24 —
College Hills School library on

Williams Street.

City Voting Precinct 31 —
A&M Consolidated High School on Nueces Drive, Room 121.

• City Voting Precinct 32 (includes County Voting Pre-cinct 32 and the part of County Voting Precinct 2 inside College Station city imits) — College Station Fire Station 2 on Rio Grande.

Center can be reached by Fair view Street. City Voting Precinct 34-College Station Central Fire Station on Texas Avenue

• City Voting Precinct 35 (includes County Voting Precincts 20, 21 and 35) — Municipal Building at 101 Churc (the Old City Hall Building Some polling places has been changed because of areas annexed during 1983. Residents who have been voing at Peach Creek Commu ity Center should vote Tus day at the College Station Police Station. Those who have been voting at Wellborn Water Board Offices should vote at College Station Fire

Texas A&M students who are registered to vote in College Station may vote in the election.

For more information about the election, contact Cit Secretary Dian Jones at t • City Voting Precinct 33 — College Station City Hall call 764-3512 or 764-3520.

Where You Get More

OPEN

For Your Money

MSC

CAFETERIA

"QUALITY FIRST"

6:30 a.m.-7:00 p.m. Daily

Citizens vote on 5 propositions Suspects the Bryan city council. The

By KELLEY SMITH

Vaccine Study Screening Samples $5.00

We will be taking blood samples to select for future vaccine studies as follows, Jan. 24-26:

> Health Center, Basement Rm 03: Tues, Wed, Thurs. 9:30am-4:00pm

Commons Lounge: Tues, Wed-9:30am-7:30pm Thursday 9:30am-6pm

Come to these locations for more information or to give your sample.

Dr. John Quarles 845-3678

Bryan voters will go to the polls Tuesday to vote on five propositions authorizing the sale of general obligation bonds to fund several community pro-

The following bond issues will be voted on at the election:
• Proposition 1: $14,525,000

general obligation street improvement bonds. The money would be used for streets, traffic systems, sidewalks and street lighting.
• Proposition 2: $7,100,000

general obligation park and re-creational facilities bonds. The money would finance work on two parks - one on the east and west side of the city, a recreation complex and a community

• Proposition 3: $5,400,000 general obligation Bryan municipal government facilities bonds. The money would be used for city offices and police department facilities.
Proposition 4: $3,200,000

general obligation railroad grade separation bonds.

• Proposition 5: $1,00,000

general obligation sanitary land-fill bonds. The money would fund the construction of a new landfill that would be in operation in about five years.

City secretary Dorothy Mal-lett says the issues were chosen

The issues were chosen by a "blue ribbon citizens committee." Eighteen Bryan citizens were appointed to the committee.

by a "blue ribbon citizens committee." Eighteen Bryan citizens were appointed to the committee to examine city facilities and streets to find where the city's needs were.

The committee's recommendations were then presented to General obilgation bonds are financed with city taxes. If all propositions are passed, Mallett said, there would be an increase in city taxes, but it would not be large and would be done gracouncil approved the recom-mendations, but with a cut of ab-out $2 million. The cuts were made mostly in the area of street improvements where repairs are already scheduled, Mallett

The last big bond election Bryan had was in 1977. Only two of the nine issues passed at that dually over several years.

'That's the reason now our parks are in such a bad shape,"

Mallett said that all 17 city polling places will be open on Tuesday.

distracted surrender

United Press International

CERRITOS, Calif. - She iff's helicopters distracted in robbers in a discount depart ment store, allowing 30 peop inside to escape, authorities Sunday. The suspects then se rendered.

Jailed on robbery charge were Lisa Collins, 21, and & E. Gregory, 33, who authorize said escaped in May 1983 fm Tehachapi State Prison, who he was serving time for arms

Sheriff's deputy Wes Slide said the suspects entered the Price Club store in suburbanla Angeles about 7:15 p.m. Saw day through a rear entrance. They then collected cash at herded customers and or ployees to one side of the stor. A worker managed to tripas lent alarm while another called sheriff's substation in Lab ex-J

The robbers apparently we gion. distracted when several sherif helicopters arrived moments ter, allowing the customers the C employees to slip out of the More

The pair surrendered also are e: 20 minutes later, Slider said Sta

An aisle-by-aisle search of hArka store turned up $130,000 Kenti cash and two handg inside a duffle bag, Slider sail

MSC Town Hall evelopment

An Evening of Jazz with presents

Sunday February 5, 1984 8:00 pm Rudder Auditorium

Tickets: $9.00, $8.50, $7.50 MSC Box Office 845-1234

Office of Development Texas A&M University 610 Evans Library

Msc Aggie Cinema's First General Meeting Monday, Jan 23rd 7:00 p.m. 601 Rudder Tower

EVERYONE IS WELCOME!!