

Lewis lets Anders return

Benny is back for UH

from staff and wire reports
Benny Anders, Phi Slama Jama's "instant offense" in their 1982-83 second place national finish, is once again a member of the University of Houston basketball team, it was announced Tuesday.

Anders, who quit the team earlier in the season because he wanted more playing time, Cougar head coach Guy Lewis said, will start at the bottom.

"He was dissatisfied before for not getting over 18 minutes playing time," Lewis said. "There's no way he is going to approach 18 minutes of playing time now. He knows that, he has accepted that."

"I find it very difficult not to have a forgiving attitude because I, myself, have asked for forgiveness many times," Lewis said. "I have no animosity towards Benny Anders."

Texas A&M Head coach Shelby Metcalf said Anders is "being treated more than fairly," Metcalf said that the return of Anders probably wouldn't affect the team too much.

"With or without him, they're going to have five good players on the court," Metcalf said. "If they put him out there, they'll have to take somebody else off."

The 6-5, 188-pound Anders is often referred to as "Instant Offense" by teammates and fans. He gained recognition in the last 17 games of last season by averaging eight points in 14 minutes per game during that span. Anders never started last year, but played in 30 games.

On Dec. 26, after the Cougars nationally televised victory over Louisville at the Chaminade's Silver Sword classic in Hawaii, Anders and Braxton Clark told coach Lewis that they wanted more playing time. Clark and Anders were reportedly sent back to Houston before the teams next game.

The Cougars lost that game to Fresno State. The game was the finals of Chaminade Silver Sword Classic.

Anders had reportedly tried to return to the Cougars a few weeks ago, but Lewis had refused to let him rejoin the team.

But after the Cougars loss to Kentucky Saturday, Lewis apparently had a change of heart.

Anders did seem to care why he was allowed to rejoin the team — only that he was glad to be back playing with the Cougars.

"I don't think I could play anywhere with any better people than all-Americans like Akeem (Olajuwon) and Michael (Young)," Anders said. "I am happy here. I want to go back to Final Four for the third straight time."

"I am going to get back into the flow and get my head screwed on straight. I'm going to ask my teammates to help me get back on the right track."

Anders will be in uniform Saturday when the No. 7 ranked Cougars, with 16-3 record resume Southwest Conference play against Baylor in Waco.

Baylor lost to the University of Texas Saturday night in Austin. The hapless Bears have now lost 11 straight games and 13 of their last 14 games.

AUSTIN — Doctors performed surgery on the right knee of Texas Longhorns running back Edwin Simmons, the first of two operations he is scheduled to have this winter.

A spokesman for the University of Texas said doctors realigned Simmons' kneecap and did some general repair work in the knee joint. Simmons' right leg is slightly shorter than his left and doctors said that has caused a chronic irritation.

SAN ANTONIO — The San Antonio Spurs used a three-guard offense featuring newly reacquired Ron Brewer to score a 117-109 comeback victory over the Seattle SuperSonics in NBA action Tuesday night.

Brewer, playing his first game since rejoining the Spurs from Golden State, hit two key jump shots to start the fourth quarter and change a 92-90 deficit into a 102-97 lead.

Starting guards George Gervin, with eight points, and John Lucas with four assists fueled the final charge helping San Antonio overcome a 68-65 half-time deficit.

Gervin finished with 35 points, Brewer had 12 on 6-of-7 shooting from the field, and Lucas finished with 16 assists.

Spur forward Mike Mitchell hit 27 points and had a season-high five assists before fouling out.

Sonic backup guard David Thompson led an early Seattle fast break that accounted for 19 first-half layups and slams. A Thompson layup gave the After five games Simmons had gained 259 yards on 30 carries, averaging 8.6 yards per carry including two straight 100-yard games against Rice and Oklahoma, Simmons injured his left knee in the Arkansas game Oct. 15 and missed the rest of the season. After a month's recuperation, Simmons is scheduled to have surgery on his left knee to repair a dislocated kneecap.

Doctors indicated that Simmons would miss spring training and faces extensive rehabilitation to be ready for the 1984 season.

And if school officials at UT get their way, the 1984 season for Texas may be even tougher.

Texas and Notre Dame are trying to arrange an inter-sectional football game between the two traditional national powers in the mid 1990s, school officials said Tuesday.

UT Athletic Director DeLoss Dodds said he and Notre Dame Athletic Director Gene Corrigan are discussing a series for either the 1994-95 or 1995-96 seasons.

"Corrigan and I talked about it three different times and each time he's been more receptive," said Dodds.

The Longhorns and the Fighting Irish have met eight previous times in football with Notre Dame holding a 6-2 edge.

The last three meetings have been in the Cotton Bowl, the most recent in 1978 when the Irish spoiled Texas' bid for a national championship.

The 27-year-old Swede nailed down his 40th giant slalom triumph from 84 starts — and his 77th World Cup win in all — with two sizzling runs.

He clocked an aggregate time of three minutes, 13.96 seconds down the new snow of the Rettenstein course. Second was Austrian-born Marc Girardelli, racing for Luxembourg, in 3:15.21, and Swedish newcomer Joergen Sundqvist was third in 3:16.36.

Rockets, Spurs win; Gervin scores 35

Warriors 98	Sonics 109
Rockets 118	Spurs 117

Sonics their largest lead, 61-50 at 4:43 before halftime.

Thompson finished with 22 points and center Jack Sikma had 17 and nine rebounds against a foul-plagued Artis Gilmore.

The Sonics fast break stalled in the second half and could manage only eight assists and eight layups or slams.

Brewer played with the Spurs in 1980-82.

In Houston, Ralph Sampson had 23 points, 15 rebounds and eight blocked shots to lead the Houston Rockets to a 118-98 victory over the Golden State Warriors Tuesday night.

The win was the fifth straight for the Rockets, who improved their record to 18-25. The loss dropped Golden State to 20-23.

Eric "Sleepy" Floyd led Warrior scorers with 22 points.

The Rockets outscored Golden State 39-14 in the period to take a 93-65 lead entering the fourth quarter. In first nine minutes of the period, Sampson scored 10 points, gathered five rebounds and blocked three shots to give Houston a commanding lead.

Rockets point guard Ford also hit eight points during that spree. Ford finished game with a season-high 132 points.

The Rockets led at the 54-51. Houston hit 25 of 50 goal attempts in the game's two periods, while Golden State was able to connect on only 57 attempts from the floor, 33 percent.

Sampson led Houston scorers with 13 points in the first and Floyd paced the Warriors with 16.

Stenmark wins giant slalom

KIRCHBERG, Austria — Swedish slalom king Ingemar Stenmark Tuesday continued his remarkable series of assembly-line race victories, winning a men's World Ski Cup giant slalom by almost 1.3 seconds.

He clocked an aggregate time of three minutes, 13.96 seconds down the new snow of the Rettenstein course. Second was Austrian-born Marc Girardelli, racing for Luxembourg, in 3:15.21, and Swedish newcomer Joergen Sundqvist was third in 3:16.36.

Stenmark said the course, containing 60 gates in the first run and 63 on the second and with a drop of 392 meters, was "just the kind I like, tough and fast."

The Swede opened up a staggering lead of 1.22 seconds over Girardelli on the first leg, and though he did not need to put in one of his famous second-leg charges was still fastest again in the afternoon heat to complete a devastating performance.

Sundqvist, 21, scored his best World Cup finish by far in his second year on the circuit. Yugoslav Jure Franko finished fourth in 3:16.48, and local star Guido Hinterseer, a member of one of Austria's premier ski racing families, was fifth in 3:16.68, almost three seconds behind Stenmark.

The victory, Stenmark's second straight giant slalom, put the Swede into second place in the men's overall World Cup standings with 145 points.

The shy leader Pirmin Zurbriggen of Switzerland. Third is Austria's Andreas Wendt with 132 points.

Zurbriggen, who did not finish Tuesday's race, also led giant slalom standings with 132 points, with Franko second and Stenmark and Hans Enniger tied for third with 128 points.

Stenmark, barred from month's Winter Olympic cause of his semi-professional status, said he will race weekend in a supergiant slalom scheduled at Garmisch-Partenkirchen, West Germany. A race he usually avoids because of its similarity to the down-
