MSC Aggie Cinema
845-1515

Blue Thunder: Roy Scheider is in this futuristic story about police protection and riot control. The ultimate civil weapon is created and Roy Scheider is the only man with enough moral fiber to use this weapon properly. R. Friday and Saturday. 7:30 and 9:45. Rudder Theater.

M*A*S*H: Elliot Gould and Donald Sutherland are the comedians that keep the zany humor alive in this film, which spawned the highly successful television series of the same name. R. Friday and Saturday. Midnight. Rudder Theater.

Rashomon: A Japanese film which explores the eyewitness accounts of four witnesses to a rape. Subtitled. Unrated. Sunday. 7:30. Rudder Theater.

The Right Stuff: Aggie Cinema will be showing a special preview of this film. It is the story of the first American astronauts. The first 96 patrons will receive a free Right Stuff movie poster. PG. Sunday. 7:00. Rudder Auditorium. FREE

Foul Play: Chevy Chase and Goldie Hawn star in this madcap comedy about a zany librarian and a detective who get mixed up in a plot to murder the Pope. R. Wednesday. 7:30. Rudder 701.

MSC Cepheid Variable
845-1515

Watership Down: This animated story is about a colony of rabbits living in a hollow. Follow the rabbits as they are forced to move and fend for themselves in the world. PG. Thursday. 7:30 and 10:00. Rudder 701.

Plitt Cinema III
846-6714

Silkwood: Meryl Streep, Kurt Russell, and Cher star in this fact-based story of nuclear plant worker Karen Silkwood. This film is a highlight in movie going. Cher does an excellent job in her role in this film. R.

Terms of Endearment: Shirley Maclaine and Debra Winger star in this picture. It is a bittersweet, comedic story of the relationship between a mother and her daughter as they both grow up. This film is expected to garner many Academy Awards this year. R.

Yentl: Barbra Streisand is the first woman to write, direct, and star in the same film. Barbra has done a wonderful job with this, the project she waited eleven years to do. R.

Post Oak
764-0616

Sudden Impact: Clint Eastwood returns as Dirty Harry and the blood and violence continues. A strong stomach is recommended if you plan to see this flick. R.

Star 80: A very good film depicting the life of Playboy model Dorothy Stratten and her power-hungry husband who eventually killed her. Mariel Hemingway and Eric Roberts star in this superb film directed by Bob Fosse. R.

Hot Dog: Here is the obligatory party film for the season. The only redemptive value of this movie is the hot dog skiing presented amidst the bad acting and bad plot. R.

Schulman Six
775-2468

Reckless: A film that is nothing more than a cheap rip-off of the movie Breathless. If Richard Gere couldn't draw a crowd into see him, how are two newcomers going to do any better? See at your own risk. R.

Risky Business: Tom Cruise stars in this story of the model teenage son. Joel learns the power he has when his parents go out of town and in the process of all of the misadventure he somehow gets himself into Princeton. R.

Surf II: Another teenage party film. As usual this film has a very bad plot and very little acting in it. The only thing that saves this film is that it doesn't try to take itself too seriously. Another film to watch at your own risk. R.

The Big Chill: This film truly has the stars of the '80s in it. The plot revolves around college chums of the sixties getting together for a reunion and wondering what happened to the good old days. A wonderful film. R.

Uncommon Valor: A father (Gene Hackman) cannot accept the fact that his son is listed as a Vietnam MIA. Gene Hackman goes back to Vietnam to find his son and many other soldiers he is sure are still alive in POW camps. R.

Seven Doors of Death: Not only have I not ever seen this film but I have also never even heard of it before. It also seems no one I have talked to has seen it either, not even Mr. Schulman himself. The only thing I can say is that it sounds like a bad horror film. R.

Manor East
823-8300

Two of a Kind: The dynamic duo of Olivia Newton-John and John Travolta stars in this picture. They, however, are unable to recreate the magic they did in Grease. The most interesting thing about this movie is that both stars have John in their name and that is also where this film belongs. R.

Angel: Here is the melodramatic story of Angel — by day she is a high school student and by night she is a prostitute. Bad plot and bad acting fill this movie. R.

Never Cry Wolf: Walt Disney studios spent two years shooting this film on location in Alaska. It is the story of a man who gives up civilization and moves to the wilderness to survive in the wild. PG.
