

movies on tap

Check theater for specific times and prices. Movies subject to change without notice. All listings are current through press time.

MSC Aggie Cinema 845-1515

Staying Alive: John Travolta revives his role as Tony Manero, the dancing waiter from Saturday Night Fever. Now Tony waits for his big break as a professional dancer while he tries to handle romance with his co-star, Cynthia Rhodes. PG. Friday and Saturday. 7:30 and 9:45. Rudder Theater.

Saturday Night Fever: For all you dancing, disco fools, you can see your favorite Disco King, John Travolta, in the movie that started it all. R. Friday and Saturday. Midnight. Rudder Theater.

Come Back To The 5 & Dime Jimmy Dean, Jimmy Dean: In 1975 the James Dean Fan Club of a small West Texas town gathers to commemorate the anniversary of their hero's death. Cher, Karen Black, and Sandy Dennis portray a group of friends, who after twenty years, exchange secrets and confidences of high school days. PG. Sunday. 7:30. Rudder Theater. $3.00

... And Justice For All: Al Pacino is an ambitious lawyer out to show the corruption and injustice of the U.S. legal system. In this movie Pacino is an inspiration for all liberals to try to change the system. Jack Warden and John Forsythe support Pacino in this picture. R. Wednesday. 7:30. 701 Rudder.

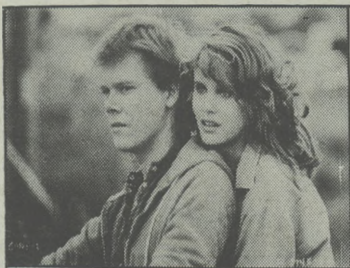

MSC Cepheid Variable 845-1515

An American Werewolf in London: Two Americans visit London and are attacked by a werewolf. One dies, the other goes to the hospital and finds that he has also become a werewolf. Great make-up work in this film. R. Thursday. 7:30 and 9:45. Rudder Theatre.

Schulman Six 775-2468

Reckless: A film that is nothing more than a cheap rip-off of the movie Breathless. If Richard Gere couldn't draw a crowd into see him, how are two newcomers going to do any better? See at your own risk. R.

Risky Business: Tom Cruise stars in this story of the model teenage son, Joel. Joel learns the power he has when his parents go out of town, and in the process of all of the misadventure he somehow gets himself into Princeton. R.

Footloose: This movie is this year's answer to Flashdance. Kevin Bacon, of Diner fame, stars as the free-style dancer from Chicago who moves to a small town. Of course, he is not welcomed with open arms by the town elders and the town minister is especially repulsed by him. But the minister's daughter has different ideas about the new kid in town. This film will be remembered for the dancing and the music. PG.

Lassiter: James Bond thought he had it all until Lassiter. Tom Selleck plays the romantic rogue who comes to the aid of his country in this World War II picture. But for the risks he takes, he reaps the benefits. The benefits? Co-stars Lauren Hutton and Jane Seymour. R.

Weekend Pass: A movie for all who would enjoy three men in the Navy with their first pass since they enlisted. A low budget film with a great deal of sex, violence and very little plot. R.

Manor East 823-8300

The Big Chill: This film truly has the stars of the 80s in it. The plot revolves around college chums of the sixties getting together for a reunion and wondering what happened to the good old days. R.

Educating Rita: Michael Caine plays a literature professor who feels his life is going nowhere. He meets a woman who wants to learn about literature, and they both want to learn more about each other. Humor on a high level. R.

Never Cry Wolf: Walt Disney studios spent two years shooting this film on location in Alaska. It is the story of a man who gives up civilization and moves to the wilderness to study a pack of wolves and to survive in the wild. PG.

Plitt Cinema III 846-6714

Silkwood: Meryl Streep, Kurt Russell, and Cher star in this fact-based story of nuclear plant worker Karen Silkwood. This film is a highlight in movie going. Cher does an excellent job in her role in this film. R.

The Right Stuff: This is one of the year's most acclaimed movies. This film gives an account of the birth of America's space program. This film explores the private lives of our early astronauts. It's funny as well as inspiring. PG.

Blame it on Rio: Michael Caine vacations with friend, Joseph Bologna, in Rio de Janeiro. Both bring their daughters along, but Bologna's daughter makes a play for Caine. A good comedy, but not a great movie. R.

Post Oak 764-0616

Terms of Endearment: Shirley Maclaine and Debra Winger star in this picture. It is a bittersweet, comedic story of the relationship between a mother and her daughter as they both grow up. R.

Unfaithfully Yours: Another Dudley Moore comedy in which a man spends his time thinking up different ways to kill his wife, played by Nastassja Kinski, after she supposedly has had an affair. R.

Star 80: A very good film depicting the life of Playboy model Dorothy Stratten and her power-hungry husband, who eventually killed her. Mariel Hemingway and Eric Roberts star in this superb film directed by Bob Fosse. R.

At Ease

Editor.....Shelley Hoekstra
Assistant Editor.....Angel Stokes
Staff Writers.....Bonnie Langford,
Lauri Reese
Staff Assistants
Laurie Gresham, Louis Hilgartner,
Cary Stegall

Science fiction books big sellers
By Bonnie Langford.....4

Best seller lists help readers
By Sally Schwierzke.....5

On the cover: James Kneip, originally from Dallas but currently working in Bryan, shops for books at the Waldenbook Store in Manor East Mall. Cover photo by Dean Saito. Inside photos by Mike Davis.