Council hears fee hike request

By LYNN RAE POVEC

The MSC Council Monday night heard a presentation on increasing the university center use fee from the present $10 a semester to a $20 a semester by 35 percent of the center's income and is used to maintain, equip and operate the center.

To raise the ceiling on the fee, a majority of students would have to approve the increase at the next election at the end of March C.

Conner said the fee increase is needed for the center to break even on operational costs. The center operated at a deficit of $121,000 last year, he said.

The fee has not been increased since the university center addition was built in 1973,
