Tuesday, March 6, 1984/The Battalion/Page 5

Texas Ranger often mistaken for baseball player

By KARI FLUEGEL Reporter

nes nativity cas

vernment ar

tmas is a " al," and th

OHO

order on began de

Reagan's p s is we're h ocracy," sh

es not say

be bui put up to ip for the Bu

Fisk said

having bet

In one ca

make a single ried to serv

olice by the alphabetical iest offende f ever wal

his brothe is side in the months an nmy to reco I push lk," Jimmy

rom behind walk.' H n again.

the shoot village of 10 · · · · · ·

P

54

RVICE

Bob Connell is a Texas Ranger of the old-fashioned only Texas has the Rangers. ype. He never has been mistaken for the Lone Ranger, but student of Texas history would ertson counties. he has been asked if he's a base- know that there are all kinds of Connell spen all player.

tar and says "Texas Ranger."

For almost half of his 28-year criminal investigators for the todoit. state of Texas.

oldest state investigative unit in the United States. Every state has criminal investigators, but 'Anyone who is much of a stories about old-time Texas He wears a gray, felt Stetson Rangers," Connell says. "Proand behind his gray jacket he has a small, silver badge on his shirt pocket. The badge, about the size of a silver dollar, has a court draw are scale and bably some of them are very col-orful. Most of them are based on truth, but I think there have been some things that have been blown out of proportion over the very over the years.

"None of us are super men. areer in law enforcement, We all put our pants on like ev-Connell has been one of the 94 erybody else does — one leg at a Texas Rangers who are the time. That's about the only way

The 94 Rangers are divided

The Texas Rangers are the into six regions with 12 to 14 Rangers stationed throughout each region. Each Ranger has several counties in his territory. Connell covers Brazos, Burle-son, Leon, Madison and Rob-Connell spends little time in his office. Usually he is out travelling around his territory. "I'm out a whole lot," he says. "I don't like office duty. I meet a lot of good people and work with a lot of good people. With the exception of Brazos County, the law enforcement agencies in the area are small departments. The Ranger Service exists to be an assistant organizationto the smaller departments, Connell says. Rangers attend school each year to learn new investigative techniques and innovations in and dark, because all the trooporder to aid the smaller depart- er's work is directed toward traments with investigations.

Besides being an extra body on the scene, I'm one more man criminal enforcement. to help," Connell says. "Hopefully I've got some expertise to Connell's career was a triple lend to the situation and try to murder in Hearne during early help out.

To become a Texas Ranger, one must first be 35 years old and have at least eight years of law enforcement experience.

The majority of the Rangers come from the Department of Public Safety troopers, but they aren't required to be troopers before entering the Rangers.

Connell was a state trooper before he entered the Ranger Service.

"It is as different as daylight ffic enforcement," he says. "All my work is directed toward

The most publicized case in 1970.

A banker, his wife and daughter were killed when three men forced their way into the the banker's home with the intention of forcing the banker to open the vault at the bank. The vault had a time-lock, so the banker could not have opened the safe anyway.

The men then killed the banker and his family with a souvenir Bowie knife which the banker had purchased in Mex- doesn't feel his job is danger "We got lucky on that one,"

Connell says.

brains," he says.

Beer

This Week!

so much time on the case.

Serving Authentic, Homestyle Mexican Food

tody.

Alfredo's

with any food purchase

And this week:

20% food discount

Mon. & Tues.

after 5 p.m.

"It's probably not as dangerous as walking across Texas Avenue at certain times of the Within two to three days, Connell and the Robertson day," he says. County sheriff knew who the murderers were, and within a Connell also says that it takes no different qualities to become week the three men were in cusa Ranger than to become any "You know, sometimes with a other type of investigator, but it little luck, anything will do for does take a lot of patience.

The knife used in the mur-"Every time you receive some der hangs on Connell's office information, you've got to run wall. The sheriff gave the knife that information down, and a lot of times it's no good," he says. "Then you've just got to back off and go another directo Connell after the trial as a keepsake because he had spent Though Connell deals with tion, and try to keep at it till you do get the right answer. Somemurders, burglaries, thefts, assaults and rapes, he says he times you never do.'

49

At Northgate

846-3824

or Anytime -

Pitcher of Beer

OPEN 7 DAYS — HOURS:

Mon-Wed & Sat: 11am-2pm

Evenings: 5pm-9pm

Thurs & Fri: 11am-10pm

Sun: 5pm-9pm

Architecture job market looks good required to qualify for the test to

By ADA FAY WOOD Reporter

The College of Architecture and Environmental Design has a simple measure for the stength of the market for its $20,000. graduates: when firms in both Dallas and Houston are hiring it means happy days are here to the college right now are those for interior de-

Last year activity in Dallas was slow, and even in Houston, where there are nearly always jobs, opportunity was off a bit. But this year the excitement is back, with both big cities in full elor's degrees this year are dents the chance to co-op with a ranging from $15,000 to firm for six months and be $18,000. If students stay an- treated as a normal employee -other year and get a master's degree in Architecture or participate in the new Pre-Professional Experience Program they classes to participate. can expect to start at about signers, Priesmeyer said. That specialization requires a graduate degree. Graduates with a Bachelor of Environmental Design usually start as draftsmen under a project architect, working on models and designs.

Larry Priesmeyer, associate The Pre-Professional Experi-professor, says salaries for bach- ence Program gives the stu-

AUTO INSURANCE FOR AGGIES Call: George Webb Farmers Insurance Group

3400 S. College 823 8051 THE UNDERGROUND Sbisa Basement or Canned Soft Drink Special

Friday 3/2/84-Thursday 3/8/84 $1.996 pack OFFER GOOD TO THE LAST PACK "The Best Food. The Lowest Price."

Last Day To Vote Absentee The Choice Is Clear.

> In the Texas House of Representatives, Conservative Leadership and Experience Count.

> > RICHARD SMITH

Mayor-5 years City Councilman-3 years Member of Governor's Advisory Committee-4 yrs. NEELY LEWIS

None

new opportunity for bull sessions

'Insight' provides

By PATRICIA FLINT Reporter

and faculty sit in a circle exchanging opinions and asking questions of each other - learng and communicating. Such is the setting for each of formerly knew little about. ng and communicating.

he talks in the discussion series Insight is the brainchild of Jill Thrash, the coordinator of time I push year ago, and it is now sup-ported by four MSC commitrs with his Thrash says the primary goal of Insight is to provide a "grassr ago to lin roots" type of discussion to facother than academics. The secntrol and hi

Insight has been averaging 10-20 people a session. There-The conversation is casual fore, in terms of numbers she and spontaneous as students says that it has not been a success, but she believes it has been successful because many students are now able to form edu-

Thrash says that students of f Memorial Student Center In- ten don't know enough to start arguing, so basically the discussions are learning sessions.

JII Thrash, the coordinator of "SCONA has been criticized the series. She developed it a for this," she says. "People gather around a speaker and say, 'where did you get your de-Thrash says students must work to learn because without roots" type of discussion to fac-knowledge a person isn't able to ulty and students about subjects form an educated opinion. They invite people who don't ond goal is to provide under- know about the subject and standing and to promote mem- want to learn, and those who do ne program. The committees involved in ight are: MSC Great Issues, udent Conference on Na- 12:30 p.m. onal Affairs.

at may not do a program on erate attendance

all the programs," Sue Lie-er interaction among the know about it and either want committees that are sponsoring to participate in the conversation or just listen.

There will be an Insight discussion Thursday entitled "Stu-MSC Political Forum, the En-dowed Lecture Series and the will be held in the 146B MSC at

As for plans for the future, The adviser for Great Issues Thrash says, "I'm interested in aid, "I personally think that's making it an every other week ne of the neatest things about or once a week thing. I'm interhe program because we're ested in it staying informal -an rawing the four committees informal atmosphere with modnatever the Insight topic is. If it becomes too large she "It adds an extra dimension says it will become a lecture and people will not want to partici-

College Education

Presidential Candidate Supported

> 1983 Special Congressional Election

Experience in

Elected Public

Occupation

Office

Independent Businessman Engineer

Texas A&M

Ronald Reagan-1980 Ronald Reagan-1984

Phil Gramm

Trial Lawyer

University of Virginia

Jimmy Carter-1980 Democratic Nominee-1984

Dan Kubiak (Bryan/CS Eagle-Jan. 16, 1983)

The Record is Clear. Richard Smith thinks like us. He will vote like us in the Texas Legislature.

Vote for proven, conservative leadership. March 10

Vote Absentee before 5:00 p.m., Tuesday, March 6 at the College Station City Hall across from campus, or at the Brazos County Courthouse in Bryan.

Pol. Adv. paid by Citizens for Richard Smith, Robt. R. Wood, Treas., P.O. Box 3743, Bryan, TX 77805

Shoot for the Top!

If you plan to graduate in May or August with a B.S.M.S. or Ph.D. in an electrical, mechanical, or computer-science discipline, it's time to shoot for the top by building your career with a company that's going places. The company is LTV Aerospace and Defense Company, and we'll be on hand to talk with you Thursday, March 8, at Texas Á&M University. We're in the market for ambitious people who can help us maintain our momentum—and accelerate our pace—in these fields:

- Guidance & Control
- RF Systems
- Electro-Optic Systems
- Flight Mechanics
- Scientific Programming
- Digital Design
- Structural Design, Analysis

If you are unable to get on the sign-up sheet, please leave your resume at the placement office for our recruiter to pick up.

Aerospace and Defense Vought Aero Products Division We Believe in E.O.E. & We Practice E.O.E. U.S. Citizenship Required