Friday, March 9, 1984/The Battalion/Page 3

Mop-Up Reimbursement project a success

By MIKE DAVIS Reporter

EAL

11

The project was to re-nburse students whose perty was damaged dur-Christmas break; the goal as 10 raise $3,000; the eans was through donations nd a bicycle auction; the re-

John McMaster, head of Operation: Mop-Up," says he project was even more nuccessful than he had moped; when the donations re added up and the rets of the auction were tald, the total was $3,445.32. McMaster says the money all be delivered Thursday nd today to the recipients of Operation: Mop-up was an effort by some Texas A&M udents to partially or fully simburse those students se property was damaged broken pipes this winter. dorms were involved, ach having its own representative who collected and evaluated the claims from that ceive some reimbursement for their property, McMaster says. The two students who The group planned to collect the money solely through donations, but the university won't be receiving any reimbursement claimed only police heard about the pro-ject and decided to help out. They donated about 75 bi-

Carpet damage, he says. The committee elected not to reimburse for any carpets or momentos, McMaster says, cycles to be auctioned with all of the profits going to the though a few of the claims, project. The auction was held by Rudder Fountain last Frilike some stereos and shoes, were reimbursed in full. McMaster says he will have all of the checks delivered bebringing the project fore spring break, after which Operation: Mop-Up will be The project had also col-lected over $1,300 in donamopped up. McMaster says there will be

Operation: Mop-Up will re-

A committee, consisting of the five representatives, Mc-Master and two advisers, met Monaster says there will be nothing more for Operation: Mop-Up to do unless some-thing similar happens again. With Operation: Mop-Up coming to a close McMaster says the project more Monday. Based on the evaluations of the claims made by the dorm representatives, the committee decided which of says the project was successful the claimants would receive in more than one way. the money and how much have people in the community who really care about each other," he says.

United Press International all said they adamantly refused to support Perot's proposal for an appointed board. AUSTIN - State Board of Education Chairman Joe Kelly There is no one calling for Butler said Thursday an assistant to education reformer H.

Ross Perot offered him a guber-natorial appointment if he would support Perot's proposal to abolish the elected state board and replace it with an ap-

Butler said Dallas attorney Tom Luce, chief of staff and legal counsel for Perot's Select Committee on Education, offered him a spot on an appointed Board of Education if he would endorse the dismantling of the current 27-member gets off offering," said Butler, who has been at odds with Perot since the formation of the select committee. "I thought the governor had appointment pow-

they might be considered for a position on a seven member board appointed by the gover-denied making any such offers.

Both Perot and Luce flatly

Butler, Davis and Leveridge

"I don't see how he (Luce)

pointed panel.

elected panel.

the abolishment of the State Board of Education except Mr. Perot." Davis said.

Perot denies offering state posts

Butler supported Davis' view: "My philosophy is that the schools belong to the people. They should not be subjected to a dictatorship and that'swhat Mr. Perot wants.

Davis, who also is a member of Perot's select committee, said he did not think Perot made an outright offer of a position on the appointed board in exchange for his support. How-ever, he conceded Perot gave the impression Perot would have a role in deciding who was on an appointed board. "Maybe he believes he could have some influence on who is selected," Davis said. "Maybe he could. He is a very powerful man, a very wealthy man.

A proposal to scrap the elected panel already has cleared a subcommittee of Perot's panel. Davis said he thinks Perot has a one- or two-vote margin of support for the plan among members of the select committee.

Any recommendations finally adopted by Perot's committee must first be approved by the Legislature before they are actually enacted.

Leveridge said she discussed her that changes his panel the prospect of an appointed Board of Education during a telephone conversation with Perot and was offended by his suggestion.

His general tone was that if I would support an appointed board my name would be con-sidered," she said. "I told him absolutely not.' Leveridge said Perot had told would recommend were going to be unpopular with the public and that an elected board would not be able to take the political criticism associated with them.

"I don't think there's a chance you'll see a new system if it's left to the state board," Perot said in published reports Wednesday.

Forty cadets to spend break soaking up recruits, not rays

Thirty-four of the 36 students requesting help from

they would receive.

By Mark E. Lish

Reporter Texas A&M wants YOU!" The Corps of Cadets will aim t message at high school stunts during recruiting proms scheduled for spring schools in their hometowns to tell students about life in the I for end-a Corps and opportunities at a tractadis Texas A&M, Kirk Joseph, Corps public relations officer, aid Wednesday.

tk House. "It's important to keep our r's Market strength up," Joseph said. "The of a dinne. Corps is not something that will o on forever by itself. We have

The cadets recruit out of a personal commitment and dedation to the Corps, Joseph sharp people they'd like to see in their units," he said.

Police Beat

The followng incidents were reported to the University Po-As you can is these ce Department through merchants MISDÉMEANOR THEFT: don't ge ooks are ford Architecture Center. its, so if you doing okay argains the lo-speed bicycle was stolen from the Dunn Hall bike rack.

day, b $2.088.

tions.

About 40 cadets will visit high

work at it to keep it going.

"They want to get the kind of

607 Texas Avenue

696-1427

(across from Texas A&M)

• A General Electric desk amp was stolen from 300 Lang-• A red Schwinn Traveler

The main recruiting drive is the fundamental concepts and during the Christmas holidays purposes of the Corps. when about 400 cadets travel to Joseph said the o

Joseph said the emphasis schools all over the nation during spring break recruiting

The atmosphere is different perfect for your favorite cocktail. And what food! The menu is pure temptation with a variety of selections. Popular prices, too. Discover Julie's Place soon speaking to classes, giving slide is on cadets recruiting friends presentations, and explaining who are still in high school.

ers. Two other board members, Will Davis of Austin and Mary Ann Leveridge of East Bernard, said Perot himself had ap-"It's nice to see that we proached them about supporting an appointed board. They said that Perot had indicated

• A silver Motobecane Mirage 10-speed bicycle was stolen from the Walton Hall bike rack. e vou re nt at Hard • A Texas Instruments 5130 coupon at calculator was stolen from 102 Doherty Building. our 50 or eyegla

upons exp xpire in A

at any Agg

i't get a dis

k House,

Jusinesses

ne People

g to outd

sure mud

edeemers.

e you $2 of

m pizza. 11.60 B.C offers as e price of

he price o

n Earle Cripple Creek Goes Condo!

LOCATION: In the heart of student living on University Oaks, Cripple Creek is on the shuttle bus route and is popular because of its closeness to restaurants. clubs and shopping. Investors can enter their condo in a lease pool and be assured of professional management.

PRICE: Starting as low as $39.950. Cripple Creek is affordable for even the most discriminating budget.

VALUE: A large part of the cost of an Aggie's education can be returned through tax benefits and equity.

904 University Oaks #56 (409) 764-8682 (409) 846-5741 Models Open Daily Developed by Stanford Associates. Inc.

Announcing

OPENING MON., MARCH 12 Bryan and College Station's finest and most complete party clothes and formal wear store

• Formals (long & short) • sequin apparel • tuxedos formal accessories

believe