Upsets mark USFL in Week 4

Gamblers delight Dome fans

United Press International

The New Jersey Generals didn't intend to be such welcome guests, but they made the Houston Gamblers' home opener a success.

Houston quarterback Jim Kelly passed for 271 yards and one touchdown, and Gamblers cornerback Will Lewis intercepted two Brian Sipe passes and returned one for a TD Sunday to pace the hosts to a 32-25 U.S. Football League victory over the Generals.

Houston, 3-1, delighted 35,532 partisan fans with the triumph. New Jersey, also 3-1, was defeated for the first time under Coach Walt Michaels.

New Jersey took a 7-0 lead with 7:05 left in the first quarter when quarterback Brian Sipe passed 7 yards to tight end Jeff Spek.

But the Gamblers went 71 yards in eight plays to take an 8-7 advantage, Sam Harrell capping the drive by rushing in from the New Jersey 5. On the point-after attempt, the snap from center was high. Holder Greg Moser lateraled to place kicker Tony Fritsch, who threw a pass to Harrell in the right corner of the endzone for two points.

With 8:50 left in the second quarter Sipe was intercepted by cornerback Will Lewis at the Generals' 14. Lewis returned the ball to the New Jersey 1 and Harrell plunged in for the TD. Fritsch's PAT gave Houston a 15-7 halftime lead.

New Jersey's Roger Ruzek opened the second-half scoring with a 34-yard field goal, but Houston upped their lead to 22-10 as Kelly threw a 25-yard TD pass to wide receiver Scott McGhee.

Early in the fourth quarter, Fritsch kicked a 20-yard field goal and Lewis picked off a Sipe pass and returned it 34 yards for a TD to give the Gamblers a 32-10 lead.

The Generals scored twice in the last eight minutes, with Sipe throwing a 6-yard TD pass to wide receiver Clarence Collins and Herschel Walker scoring on a 1-yard plunge. Houston then ran out the clock to seal the decision.

In other games, Denver defeated Tampa Bay 36-30; Pittsburgh dropped Washington 16-7; Philadelphia routed Oakland 28-7, and Michigan topped Arizona 31-26.

At Denver, veteran quarterback Craig Penrose threw two touchdown passes and David Martin returned an interception 38 yards for the winning TD to lead the Gold over the previously unbeaten Tampa Bay Bandits.

Tampa Bay, 3-1, led 27-23 at the end of the third quarter and Zenon Andrusyshyn's 35-yard field goal gave the Bandits a 7-point lead at the start of the fourth quarter. But Penrose tossed a 13-yard TD pass to Leonard Harris to tie the game 30-30 and Martin intercepted Bandit quarterback John Reaves and dashed into the endzone for the decisive touchdown. The Gold improved to 3-1.

At Washington, Tony Lee kicked an 18-yard field goal with 1:56 to play and Jeff Delaney returned an interception 50 yards for a touchdown 40 seconds later to give the Pittsburgh Maulers their first USFL victory over the Washington Federals.

Glen Carano passed 57 yards for the Federals' other touchdown. Reggie Lier passed 7 yards to Joe Carano set up the final pass with a 62-yard toss to Rozier.

Pittsburgh improved in Washington dropped to 1-2. At Philadelphia, Ken Bryant, who gained 173 yards on 24 carries, scored a pair of touchdowns and Chuck Foy passed for two more Sunday lead the Stars over Oakland to spoil the debut of new head coach Chuck Huntley. At Pontiac, Mich., Derek Lowy caught two of quarterback Bobby Hebert's three touchdowns passed to help Michigan undefeated.

Aggies finish respectable season

By DONN FRIEDMAN Sports Editor

"We were there ... We were there," Forward Kenny Brown wrapped his warm-up pants around his 6-4 frame, slowly snapping the buttons up the side of his right leg. Across the room, guard Darnell Williams sat tucked away between two steel cages, his head drooping beside his sweaty high-top Nikes.

A reporter and a television cameraman slithered from locker to locker searching for a comment from one of the Aggies, but for the most part the Aggies were without words.

"We had it. We had it and we lost it," Brown mumbled.

The Texas A&M basketball team's season had come to an end, but the end was much further along the road than anyone would have dared guess at the start of the season.

At the season's beginning, sportswriters had picked the Aggies to battle for last place in the conference. But when its season finally ended, the team had come within one bucket of reaching the finals of the conference tournament.

The Aggies opened the SWC tourney at home against the University of Texas. Despite a lackluster crowd that barely would have filled the Campus Theater, the Aggies whipped the Longhorns.

But the next round of the tournament was in the big city—Houston—and the competition was big-city tough. SMU, with 7-0 center Jon Koncak, was looking for Joe Kleine's Razorbacks and Akeem Olajuwon's Cougars.

But SMU never even got to see the Cougars or Razorbacks play; instead they were greeted by Aggie center Jimmie Gilbert. Before the night was over the Mustangs were on the way back to Dallas to await an NCAA tourney bid. Gilbert and forward Winston Crite dominated the inside game; the Aggies out-rebounded SMU 38-27.

And while the big men rebounded, Brown hit from the outside. Not a timid shooter when he's hot, Brown launched shots, many from outside the three-point line marked off for NBA games, to score 20 points.

But despite Brown's hot hand, the Aggies needed a bit of divine guidance for the margin of victory. With 1:33 left to play in the game and the Aggies down 57-56, Metcalf called timeout.

The Aggies went into their passing game—holding the ball for a final shot.

Around the horn, Holloway to Williams. Williams to Holloway. 1:05 ... 1:04 ... 1:03.

Holloway dribbles. A pass to Williams. Williams is in trouble. A high arching pass toward the center stripe. Holloway reaches up with his left hand, his training as a football receiver paying off as he snatches in the complete pass—just inside the half-court hash mark. 0:30 ... 0:29 ... 0:28.

Holloway dribbles. Holloway loses control. Holloway saves. Brown is double teamed. Holloway passes to Williams in the corner.

0:08 ... 0:07 ... 0:06. Williams shoots over SMU's 7-foot center. The shot is way off.

Gilbert goes up, grabs the ball; goes back up. The ball drops through the net. Gilbert splatters on the floor. Radar, the Texas A&M trainer, rushes out to Gilbert. After a couple of minutes Gilbert is removed from the floor—nothing serious, just the air knocked out of him.

Metcalf sends in Al Pulliam to shoot Gilbert's free throw. He hits. SMU calls timeout, a desperation shot by Carl Wright. It's the Aggies 59-57.

After the game SMU Coach Dave Bliss said it wasn't the last shot that the Aggies took that beat the Mustangs.

"They out-quicked us to the loose balls," Bliss said.

"The winning shot was not what beat us; it was the follow-up. And that's what they beat us on all night."

So, Bliss and his Ponies returned to Dallas while the Aggies prepared for Arkansas.

The Hogs were ready. No matter where the SWC schedules the tournament the Hog fans come a-calling.

SOOOOOOOOIEEEEEEE PIGS. The walls of the Summit echoed.

SOOOOOOOOIEEEEEEE PIGS. And so it was the Aggies vs. the Hogs in the semi-finals.

Arkansas pounded the Aggies for the first 14 minutes, leading 24-9 with less than six minutes left in the half. The few Aggie fans, led by two yell leaders, were outmanned by the snorting Hog fans and their beautiful cheer squad.

All that was missing was a mud puddle to make the Hogs' day. But then Texas A&M Coach Shelby Metcalf called down the bench.

Looking like Oscar Mayer armed with a cleaver, Mike Clifford scored 5 points and had 3 rebounds as the Aggies pulled to within four, 24-20 at the half.

Throughout the second half the Aggies held onto the Hogs' curly tails, even taking the lead with 12:32 remaining in the contest.

It was a four-point contest the rest of the way.

With 1:44 remaining in the game A&M's Brown hit two free throws that tied it at 47-47. And after Ricky Norton missed the front end of a one-and-one with 33 seconds to go, the Aggies' chance at a second upset looked good.

Kenny Brown

But then with less than seconds left guard Darnell Williams was tripped and called traveling.

After a time-out, the Razorbacks threw the ball into Norton. And Norton, who wanted to hero all the way, brought the ball downcourt to just within three-point line and let the jump shot that hit nothing but net. A desperation shot that didn't come close. Arkansas 49-47.

Arkansas Coach Eddie ton had praised Metcalf and team that had almost brought their path to the SWC final.

"My hat is off to Shelby," Norton said. "He is one of the standing coaches in this league and he had his team inspired. They will be a contender from now."

The Aggies ended the season 16-14.

Brown on all-tourney

Houston center Akeem Olajuwon, who was named Sunday as outstanding player in the tournament, was named as the only unanimous selection to the all-tournament team.

Joining Olajuwon on the all-tournament team were Texas A&M's Kenny Brown, Rice's Tyrone Washington, Houston's Michael Young, and Arkansas' Alvin Robertson. Young was named to the team for the third time, following his selection in 1981 and '83.

Robertson was also a runner-up, having been named to the 1982 all-tournament team and winning the outstanding player ballot that year.

The second team included Ricky Norton of Arkansas, Kleine of Arkansas, Winston Crite of Texas A&M, and Franklin of Houston. Charles Balentine of Arkansas
