Mining exec faces large civil suits

United Press International ATOKA, Okla. — A mining company president who says he has found the world's largest gold deposit in southern Oklahoma is facing more than $770,000 in civil suits stemming from oil and gas ventures, a United Press International investigation revealed Thursday.

Daniel B. Thomas, the president of Morningstar Inc., a company involved in a reported gold find in Atoka and Bryan counties, is being sued by Trend Oil Co. for breach of contract, Tulsa County court-house records show.

Thomas, along with Atoka Christian Explorations Inc. and the Los Angeles Church Loan Co., is involved in the search for gold in Atoka County.

Thomas has called the strike the largest in the world. The operation is being funded by the church loan company, a non-profit religious corporation headquartered in Norwalk, Calif.

Thomas was set up last three limited partnership companies about three years ago in Tulsa and incorporated a fourth company in Arkansas in 1979 "to explore, market and produce resources from the earth."

Additionally, UPI has learned Thomas set up last three limited partnership companies about three years ago in Tulsa and incorporated a fourth company in Arkansas in 1979 "to explore, market and produce resources from the earth."

A suit filed in Tulsa Dec. 9, 1981, on behalf of Trend, a Texas company with offices in Tulsa, alleges Thomas and Good Earth Energy Inc., the Arkansas corporation, violated an agreement to transport gas from wells in Atascosa County, south of San Antonio.

The suit alleges that after Trend spent $100,000 installing a transport system, the wells owned by Good Earth Energy went dry.

Attorneys for Good Earth Energy say the company had no contractual obligation to supply the gas once the wells failed to produce.

Thomas and Good Earth Energy also were sued by Hardesty Realtors of Tulsa for more than $7,000 in back rent for a Tulsa office in the Exchange National Bank Tower.

A Hardesty official said the overdue rent was paid last fall. UPI also has learned Oklahoma oil and gas properties transferred to Morningstar, Utah corporation, to increase the company's assets, are owned by Good Earth Energy and Good Earth Bartlesville Associates.

The oil and gas properties consist of two gas wells, one partially completed oil well and a partially completed gas well, UPI investigation shows.

Thomas is a general partner in both companies, records show.

Thomas told UPI earlier this week the oil and gas leases were transferred in exchange for more than 111,000 shares of Morningstar stock to boost the company's assets so it could be listed with Moody's, a national stock listing company.

Krueger woos Valley area voters

United Press International EDINBURG — U.S. Senate candidate Bob Krueger, scrambling for Democratic primary votes in the all-important Rio Grande Valley, pledged Thursday to work for federal economic aid and a regional hospital for the problem-plagued Valley area.

Krueger, in the midst of a three-day swing through the poverty-stricken but voter-rich lower Valley area, said the Valley is in dire need of a regional, non-profit hospital to serve Hidalgo, Cameron and Willacy counties and surrounding areas.

In many South Texas counties, he said, there is but a single doctor for each 3,500 residents, many of whom are too poor to afford care except from non-profit hospitals.

Unemployment in the Valley is as high or higher than anywhere in the country, Krueger said. "And the gutures of the federal government to remedy that situation are inadequate."

Grand jury indicts Texas lawmaker

United Press International EL PASO — A Texas lawmaker was indicted by a state grand jury today on 16 counts of using taxpayers' money to pay off gambling debts.

providing for a choice of four criminal charges on each of the four payments.

Stable Rep. Bobby Valles, D-El Paso, surrendered and was booked into El Paso County Jail. Bond was set at $20,000.

Mrs. Christensen and her husband, Dana, were granted immunity from prosecution in exchange for their testimony against Valles, a district attorney's spokesman said.

The grand jury returned the indictments after hearing three days of testimony about why Valles placed Laurinda Christensen, wife of an alleged gambler, on his state office payroll in 1982. She was paid $12,000 between January and October, 1982, according to state records.

Valles waited impatiently several hours before being called to testify for about 15 minutes. He then walked quickly through the courtroom.

Courthouse sources indicated the charges against Valles involved four payments to Mrs. Christensen, with the counts

He was called in again a third time. Police officers said they had been questioning Valles' press and former aides about the work Mrs. Christensen did while on Valles' payroll.

Valles is a candidate for election in the May 5 Democratic primary. He has been endorsed by a number of groups including teachers unions and state employees organizations.

IF THERE'S LEADERSHIP IN YOU, OCS CAN BRING IT OUT.

OCS (Army Officer Candidate School) is a 14-week challenge to all that's in you... the mental, the physical, the spirit that are part of what makes a leader.

If OCS were easy, it couldn't do the job. It wouldn't bring out the leader in you, or help you discover what you have inside.

But when you finish and graduate as a commissioned officer in the Army, you'll know. You'll know you have what it takes to lead. And you'll be trim, alert, fit, and ready to exercise the leadership skills that civilian companies look for.

If you're about to get your degree and you want to develop your leadership ability, take the OCS challenge.

Call your local Army Recruiter, and ask about OCS.
