

movies on tap

Check theater for specific times and prices. Movies subject to change without notice. All listings are current through press time.

Plitt Cinema III 846-6714

Purple Hearts: Cheryl Ladd and Ken Wahl star in this new film which is set during the Vietnam war. This is the story of their love which must withstand the powerful problems war presents. Is their obligation greater to their love or their country? R.

Romancing the Stone: Michael Douglas stars with Kathleen Turner in this spoof on adventure movies. This is the tale of a novelist who follows a soldier of fortune and becomes involved in his adventures, or rather, his misadventures. Danny DeVito is also a part of this wild treasure hunt. PG.

Hard to Hold: Heartthrob, Rick Springfield, stars in this movie about the difficulty a rock star has conducting a love affair. The movie has a few shots of Springfield on stage and the movie would not be complete without a few songs from the Teenage Idol. PG.

Manor East 823-8300

Greystoke: The Legend of Tarzan, Lord of the Apes: This new Tarzan film concentrates on the duality of the Tarzan character. John Clayton, the seventh Earl of Greystoke, was adopted by an ape colony after he had been tragically orphaned in Equatorial Africa by his human parents. Tarzan grew up to become the leader of this ape colony and does not even recognize that he is human. Tarzan is then rescued and restored to his proper place in society in Scotland. The former earl's American ward falls in love with Tarzan, the man who is part noble and part savage. PG.

Splash: Director, Ron Howard, has a new film starring Tom Hanks. In this picture, Hanks falls in love with a beautiful woman. But there is something fishy about this relationship. The woman is a mermaid. The most aquatic of the year. PG.

Ice Pirates: An action film set in the space age world. Robert Urich and Mary Crosby star in this futuristic comedy. PG.

MSC Cepheid Variable 845-1515

The Andromeda Strain: An alien spaceship wrecks and an extremely nasty microbe escapes; this small organism could create an epidemic, but a team of earth scientists work to save the universe. G. Thursday. 7:30 and 10:00. 701 Rudder. $1.00.

Post Oak 764-0616

Moscow on the Hudson: Robin Williams, as Vladimir Ivanoff, is a Russian circus musician who goes to New York with the circus. While in Bloomingdale's, Ivanoff defects to the United States. This is a comedy, but it also reminds every American that they live in a country where anything is possible. R.

Against All Odds: A new film which stars Jeff Bridges, Rachel Ward and James Ward in a love triangle. This film depicts the power of Los Angeles and how it almost consumes the main characters. Lucky for the viewers, the main characters escape to the Yucatan which is a fantastic background for the film. R.

Racing with the Moon: Sean Penn and Nicolas Cage star in this romantic comedy about two young men reaching manhood in the 1940's. Both young men experience love and friendship in this film about their final days before entering the service. Elizabeth McGovern stars as the object of Sean Penn's desires. This sounds like a very promising film. PG.

MSC Aggie Cinema 845-1515

Never Say Never Again: Sean Connery, the original 007, returns to the screen as James Bond. Connery pulls off saving the world from the evil SPECTRE gang and thrills all the women in his usual sophisticated manner. PG. Friday and Saturday. 8:45 and Midnight. The Grove. (8:45 only on Saturday.)

The Revenge of the Cheerleaders: The plot of this movie is the trials and the tragedies that these beautiful cheerleaders must go through to stop a merger between their trendy school and a tacky technical school. These girls will stop at nothing to save their beloved high school. R. Saturday. Midnight. The Grove.

The Way We Were: Barbra Streisand, a communist activist, and Robert Redford, the All-American boy, star in this sad, but touching love story. Streisand and Redford try to protect their love during a turbulent time and prove that love does not conquer all. Unrated. Sunday. 8:45. The Grove.

Skyway Twin Drive-In 822-3300

Trading Places: Eddie Murphy and Dan Aykroyd portray men that are polar opposites in the social/economic world. The fun really starts when they are thrown into one another's places. Their reactions to their new social positions are the highlights of the movie. R.

Sudden Impact: Clint Eastwood is back as Dirty Harry. While on vacation, Dirty Harry gets involved with a beautiful blonde and a murder case. Does this man ever rest? If you like lots of violence, then this is the movie for you. By the end of the movie Dirty Harry has killed thirteen men by himself, not including the man he caused to have a heart attack. R.

Schulman Six 775-2468

Police Academy: This is the story of an American city where the mayor abandons all eligibility restrictions to enter the police academy. Steve Guttenberg stars as the officer candidate who tries to get himself thrown out of the academy and falls in love with a female officer candidate at the same time. R.

Up the Creek: Tim Matheson stars in this movie about a wild and crazy river race. This seems to be a light hearted movie that will simply entertain you. R.

Footloose: 1984's answer to Flashdance. Kevin Bacon, of Diner fame, stars as the free-style dancer from Chicago who moves to a small town. Of course, he is not welcomed with open arms by the town elders and the town minister is especially repulsed by him. But the minister's daughter has different ideas about the new kid in town. This film will be remembered for the dancing and the music. PG.

Children of the Corn: The new Stephen King movie features a town where the children have taken control and killed everyone over the age of nineteen. This is all part of the ritual of their cult. These children worship a god in the corn who requires them to crucify adults. This movie is based on a short story by King. R.

Where the Boys Are: Lisa Hartman and Alana Stewart are seen in this film, almost to the point of exposure. This is a movie that explains why all the girls run down to Ft. Lauderdale for the summer. Because ... that's where the boys are. R.

Terms of Endearment: Shirley Maclaine and Jack Nicholson along with Debra Winger star in this heart-wrenching story. If you have not seen this movie yet, don't miss your chance. R.

At Ease

Editor.....Shelley Hoekstra
Assistant Editor.....Angel Stokes
Staff Writers.....Bonnie Langford,
Lauri Reese

Staff Assistants
Laurie Gresham, Louis Hilgartner,
Cary Stegall

Dr. G's brings live music to B-CS.

By Sally Schwierzke5

MTV — the hottest craze in music.

By Sarah Oates8

On the cover: This week At Ease takes a broad look at some local music trends. Also included is a special spread on Music Television (MTV) with an interview with V.J. Martha Quinn. Cover art by Stephanie Maynard.