

Ag wins at Oaklawn

United Press International
HOT SPRINGS, Ark. — Jockey Dave Whited saved Miss Aggie Lue for a late run on the outside, guided her past Pat Day and Teriyake Stake in the stretch and held on to win Tuesday's $17,500 feature race at Oaklawn Park.

Miss Aggie Lue, owned by L.O. Bates and trained by Marcus G. Medrano, got out of the gates in sixth place among the nine horses in the 6-furlong test for older fillies and mares. The Texas-bred filly made up only one place by the quarter mark, but pulled into second at the head of the stretch and blew past Day and his mount for a two-length victory.

Day and Teriyake Stake came out of the gates just behind Snyder and Miss Aggie Lue, but gained the lead at the halfway point and held it until Whited's familiar late run.

Miss Aggie Lue, getting her third victory of the Oaklawn season, paid $10.80, $5 and $3.20. Teriyake Stake, the co-favorite at 5-2, returned payoffs of $3.80 and $2.80, while the other co-favorite, Outspoken Lady, carried Chris Valovich to a $2.80 payoff for the show position.

High paid Evans leading Tigers

United Press International
DETROIT — Shelling out big bucks for Darrell Evans is already paying off for the Detroit Tigers.

Evans, 36, was Detroit's first free agent signee of consequence during the winter when the Tigers acquired him to play the infield and hit a few baseballs into Tiger Stadium's close-in right field fence.

The veteran got his first look at the nearby blue seats Tuesday and sent a capacity crowd of 51,238 home happy after the Tigers' first game by cracking a three-run first inning home run to start Detroit on its way to a 5-1 victory over the Texas Rangers.

Detroit's sixth straight victory from the start of the season equalled the club's best start back in 1911.

"I think this is probably the best first week I've ever had," said Evans, batting 278 with two home runs and eight RBIs in his first two games. Both of his home runs came with two men on base.

Evans' home run sparked a four-run first and Dan Petraitis pitched a four-hitter to lead Detroit unbeaten.

Dave Stewart, who like Evans came over from the National League this winter, walked the first two Tigers he faced before Evans cracked a 1-0 pitch low way up the seats in the upper deck.

"He was struggling," Evans said of Stewart. "He didn't want to walk me. I knew he was going to have to come in with a strike."
