In the MSC lounge

Lost and found auction Tuesday

By MARY FRANCES SCOTT
Reporter

The Memorial Student Center Lost and Found Auction will offer everything from umbrellas to gold jewelry from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Tuesday in the MSC lounge.

There will be a preview of the items at 9:00 but bidding will not begin until 10:00.

Sarah Melanie Wilson, chairman of the auction, said its highlights this year are several gold bracelets, an opal and gold ring and a man's gold Seiko watch. Other items include calculators, umbrellas and basketballs.

Wilson emphasized that the auction is cash only. However if you bid on something and don't have enough cash to pay for it, Wilson said the item will be held for you as long as you pay before the auction ends.

The items for the auction came from the MSC lost and found desk. Items are turned over to the auction if they are not claimed within six months. Wilson said an item with a name on it is taken to the University Police Department, which tries to contact the owner.

She said if someone sees something at the auction that belongs to him and can convince her of that, then she will return it to him.

The auctioneer, former Bryan Mayor Lloyd Joyce said, "Some people miss some really good buys by not coming (to the auction)."

Joyce said he did the auctioneering twice last year and that he's looking forward to coming next week.

Wilson said, "The money from the auction goes in to financing MSC committees."

Last semester the auction raised $3,000 but Wilson said she is expecting $1,500 to $2,000 this semester.

In the past the money has been used for decorating the MSC at Christmas, Wilson said, but the money is not earmarked for that specific purpose. However, she disdaisy the amount and quality of the decorations is a good indicator of the auction's success.

Pump Boys and Dinettes' comes to A&M tonight

By KATHY WIESEPAPE
Staff Writer

Pump boy: A tuneful guy who pumps gas at L.M. and Jim's Gas Station.

Dinette: A singing waitress at the Double Cupp Diner.

Drive down Highway 57, stop at the Double Cupp, and they might entertain you with a song and dance.

Or catch their act tonight or Tuesday night, when "Pump Boys and Dinettes" comes to the Rudder Theatre.

The musical is a tribute to small town America — the dreams and realities of the young men and women, the gas station guys. Through music and dialogue, it attempts to portray the lives of typical roadside workers with affection and warmth.

"Pump Boys and Dinettes" has been touring for two sold-out years in New York and was nominated for the Tony Award for Best Musical on Broadway in 1982. The musical is written by the Gable and Henry Gross, who play the leading roles in the touring company production, have delighted audiences from coast to coast with their version of the musical.

The play centers around its music, supplemented by dancing and dialogue. It offers a blend of a variety of styles — country, rockability, gospel, bluegrass, ballads and blues.

"Pump Boys and Dinettes" will be presented at 8 p.m. in Rudder Theatre today and Tuesday. Tickets are still available at the Rudder Box Office.
