UT cabbie robbed of clothes

United Press International AUSTIN — Clad only in his underwear and socks, cab driver Michael Santos said he had a hard time convincing a woman early Monday that he had been robbed at gunpoint and needed to use a telephone.

Santos, 21, a University of Texas student, was robbed of his pants, shirt and shoes as well as his money during an early morning holdup by two men he picked up at a bus station.

After the bandits drove off with his cab, he said he ran to nearby house to telephone his employer and the police.

"I said, 'You're not going to believe this, but I'm a taxicab driver,'" said Santos.

After persuading the woman to call police, the woman still would not let Santos into her house. "I stood out there 10 or 15 minutes until her husband finally let me in," he said.

The cab was later found abandoned, its tires removed.

Funeral held today for trapped boys

United Press International

EL PASO — Funeral services are scheduled at 10 a.m. today for three young boys who were trapped in an unused freezer in a southern New Mexico community and died before family members discovered them.

Dead are Danny Cruz, 5, and his cousins, Mark Cruz, 3, and Raul Cruz, 4.

The tragedy was discovered Saturday afternoon at Chaparral, N.M., on the northeast boundary of El Paso, after the children had been missing for about an hour.

Laura Cruz, Danny's sister, said her father, Ismael Cruz, had purchased the old, chest-type freezer two weeks ago with the intention of repairing and using it. It was sitting about 30 yards behind the home, she said.

She said Danny and his cousins had been playing outdoors for about an hour but family members lost sight of them.

"We remembered the freezer and found them there," said Miss Cruz.

Mark and Raul were sons of Raul and Irma Cruz who lived nearby.

The Cruzes called the nearest ambulance service licensed to operate in New Mexico, Three Crosses Ambulance of Anthony, N.M. An ambulance dispatcher in turn alerted the Chaparral Volunteer Fire Department, since it would take some 20 minutes for the ambulance to get to the community, located below the eastern slope of the Franklin Mountains, north of the El Paso city limits.

Volunteer Fire Chief Jim Norman said his personnel administered resuscitation after their first aid until an ambulance could transport the boys to William Beaumont Army Medical Center, where they were pronounced dead.

apparent suffocation, he said. "Obviously they just climbed into the thing and the door dropped and latched closed," Norman said Monday.

"I read about these things happening. From what I understand, it just never occurred to the family the kids could open the lid in the first place."

Otero County Sheriff's Deputy David Henley dismantled the freezer with the help of Chaparral residents and took it to his headquarters in Alamogordo, N.M. to be held until investigation of the accident was completed. Then, he said, it was returned to the family if the family wants it.

Miss Cruz said the family did not intend to keep the freezer. "Not now, I don't know what we're going to do with it, but we're not going to keep it," she said.

Funeral services will be held at San Jose Catholic Church, El Paso, with burial in Coronado Cemetery.
