Four players tied for Legends lead

United Press International
AUSTIN — The quiet, gentlemanly Art Wall and the boisterous Tommy Bolt warmed up on the back nine Thursday to fire a 6-under-par 64 and tie the twosome of Mike Souchak and Ken Venturi for the first-round lead in the Legends of Golf at the Onion Creek Club.

Venturi, whose only competitive appearance each year comes in the Legends, chipped in from 40 feet at the 17th and Souchak made a 30-foot birdie at the 18th hole to move their team into a share of the top spot in the $500,000 tournament that inspired the current boom in seniors' golf.

"Tommy did all the work," said Wall, who won the Masters a quarter of a century ago and who teamed with Bolt to win this event in 1980.

"From the fifth hole on through 18 Tommy hit a lot of wonderful shots. Some of them were in the category of great golf shots. I think that's the best I've seen him play in the six or seven years we have played together. He was awesome."

Bolt and Wall birdied seven of the last 13 holes with Bolt making six of those birdies.

The two leading teams had a one-shot advantage over the duos of Miller Barber-Julius Boros and Gay Brewer-Billy Casper.

Sam Snead and Jim Ferree were among those at 4-under 66 while defending champions Roberto de Vincenzo and Rod Funseth shot 67.

Bolt and Wall's personalities, though clearly different, have combined to make them a yearly threat in this unique tournament. But Bolt, despite his hot putting stroke Thursday, gave Wall most of the credit.

"The reason I made all those birdies is simply because my partner is always on the green," said Bolt, who celebrated his 66th birthday last month. "I hit a couple of good shots, but I hit some bad shots."

Bolt also said he resented the suggestion that he and Wall made up an "odd couple."

"Yeah," he said. "I'm outspoken and Art isn't. But we're not an odd couple. We're human beings."

The opening round of the tournament was also spiced by a hole-in-one on the 11th by Tom Nieporte, who won $25,000 for the ace.

Fight Night

Boxing on the Brazos

By KARLA K. MARTIN
Reporter

Perhaps you've found their tracks of white shoe polish smeared across your car windshield, or seen them stalking around campus with signs on their backs. Well, never fear, their rampage is temporary and their reason is obvious: FIGHT NIGHT.

For the last week, the pledges of Sigma Phi Epsilon have been dutifully advertising Fight Night, the Sig Ep's eighth annual boxing tournament.

The tournament, which begins tonight at 6 in the Brazos County Pavilion, features two divisions of boxers: the Greek and the open divisions.

The Greek division will be made up of fraternity members, while the open division, will have four Corps of Cadets teams and three boxing club teams.

The boxers will be fighting on teams of five.

Rusty Jones, Fight Night Chairman of the Sig Eps, says along with the three rounds of boxing, this year's tournament also will feature pillow fights by 40 sorority members.

The boxing preliminaries are tonight from 6 p.m. until midnight and Saturday afternoon from noon until 4 p.m. The finals and pillow fights will be held Saturday night from 6 p.m. until midnight.

The judges of the tournaments are local and College Station businessmen. The referees are:

- Dickie Cole, who has an international referee judge of world title fights.

- Hank Miller, a 1953 graduate of Texas A&M who was international referee and a service boxer in the Marine

- Roy Harris, four-time Golden Gloves champion, fought Floyd Patterson for the heavyweight championship of the world in 1958.

- Carl Kickham, a referee for three years, who was a Fight Night lightweight champion.

Taylor's takes stakes

United Press International
LEXINGTON, Ky. — Favorite Taylor's Special took the lead at the halfway point Thursday and loped home without any urging by jockey Pat Day to win the $150,000-added Blue Grass Stakes by 3/4 lengths.

Taylor's win at Keeneland in the last prestigious prep before the May 5 Kentucky Derby, piled with his earlier victory in the Louisiana Derby will make him one of the early favorites for the Run for the Roses.

Two other early Derby choices, Devil's Bag and Skipper, skipped the Blue Grass.

Co-second favorite Silent King, with veteran Bill Steyer as his jockey, was second in the 1/8-mile Blue Grass.

Longshot Charmed Rook, 2 1/2 lengths back in third, followed by the other co-second choice, Fight Over five lengths behind.

Despite a fast track and warm, sunny temperature, Taylor's Special ran a slow 1:52 1-5 on the 1 1/16-mile track.

The bay colt, trained by William Mott and owned by William F. Lucas, won $117,850 plus a $16,200 Breeders' Cup Award. Those awards earned to just less than $370,000.

A $2 bet on Taylor's Special a 9-5 shot, paid $5.60, $3.60 and $2.60. Silent King, a 5-2 bet, paid $3.60 and $2.60. Charmed Rook, an 8-1 longshot, earned $18.00, $9.00 and $6.00 on a $2 bet.

Mighty Adversary, an early favorite, was scratched Thursday because of a cracked hoof, but track officials said he remains a candidate for the Derby.

Bold Southerner, runner-up in the eighth post, took an early lead, but faded to second at the quarter mark and faded to last.

Taylor's Special came out of the fifth post in fifth place and was in third place at the quarter mark but took the lead by a half length halfway and was never headed.

The order of finish was Taylor's Special, Silent King, Charmed Rook, Fight Over, Rexason's Hope, Artichoke Vague. He is a Great Deal Bold Southerner.

A crowd of 20,187 had a betting mutuel pool of $545,118.
