Suspect termed 'model student'

United Press International
HOUSTON — The 17-year-old suspect in the shooting death of a woman mail carrier was described by his high school counselor as a slow learner but a model student.
 David Port has been charged in the June 7 death of Debora Sue Schatz, 23, who was shot three times in the head. Police believe Schatz's last delivery that day was to the Ports' west Houston home. They found blood stains, bullet holes and a bundle of undelivered mail in the house. Port is free on $20,000 bond.
 Port's parents, Bernard and Odette Port, have refused to testify before a grand jury investigating the case. They argue the privilege of parent-child should be the same as husband-wife. Under state law, spouses cannot be ordered to testify against each other.

They have been ordered to appear next week in a contempt of court hearing, where they face possible indefinite jail terms and fines of $1,000.

Spring Branch High School counselor Loring White said he met with Port and his father in 1983. He said Port was very quiet during the meeting and the father acted protective.

Police searching the Port home said a bullet hole was found in a picture of the father. Investigators will not say if they believe the shot was deliberate or random. No motive for the shooting has been revealed.

Honeymooner shoots self

United Press International
SAN DIEGO — A 19-year-old honeymooner from West Texas was in critical condition Wednesday after he accidentally shot himself in a San Diego motel room.
 Police spokesman Bill Robinson said Jimmy Don McKinney, Midland, Texas, was struck in the right temple with a .38 caliber bullet as he and his bride, Laurel, 19, prepared to leave for a day of sight-seeing.
 McKinney was apparently unloading the weapon, which he had brought for protection, when it went off, police reports said.
 Officials at the Church of Christ in Midland said the McKinneys were married June 16.

Court wants hearings

United Press International
AUSTIN, Texas (UPI) — The state Supreme Court Wednesday agreed that a trial court should conduct further hearings on Common Cause's complaint that the Metropolitan Transit Authority in Houston violated Texas' Open Meetings Act.

The high court refused without comment to disturb a 1st Court of Appeals order which held that the Harris County District Court prematurely dismissed Common Cause's lawsuit.

The Houston-based 1st Court conceded the transit authority substantially complied with the law.
