Israel hits Palestine guerillas

United Press International
 BEIRUT, Lebanon — Israeli warplanes bombed a suspected Palestinian guerrilla base on a small island off the northern Lebanese coast Wednesday hours after Israel and Syria announced a Red Cross-mediated prisoner exchange.
 The Israeli military command in Tel Aviv said that its warplanes hit a "naval training base and a staging area for attacks" on an island located 4 miles northwest of the northern port city of Tripoli.
 All planes returned safely and the pilots reported scoring accurate hits, the command said.
 Quoting its Tripoli correspondent and police reports, the Christian Voice of Lebanon said Israeli jet fighters struck suspected Palestinian ammunition dumps on Aranab Island in a seven-minute attack Wednesday evening.
 There was no immediate report of casualties.
 "The Israeli planes scored direct hits against several ammunition depots and set them on fire," said the Voice of Lebanon, the radio of Israel's Christian Phalange party allies in Beirut.
 Israeli officials said the base belonged to a pro-Arafat wing of Al Fatah, one of eight factions in the Palestine Liberation Organization.
 Phalange radio said 14 jets took part in the raid, with two bombing the island while the rest flew cover through a curtain of anti-aircraft fire from guerrilla units.
 It was believed to be the first airstrike against Palestinian guerrilla targets in Lebanon since May 24, when Israeli warplanes attacked a suspected rebel base at Barr Elias in Lebanon's Bekaa valley.
 The air strike followed an announcement by both Israel and Syria of a prisoner exchange, which was seen as a move toward easing tensions in Lebanon.
 The Syrian announcement, broadcast on the official Damascus radio monitored in Beirut, said the exchange will take place Thursday.

Union marches on London

United Press International
 LONDON — Thousands of union members, many chanting "Maggie out," marched through central London Wednesday as rail workers disrupted commuter trains in a one-day show of support for striking coal miners.
 Arthur Scargill, president of the National Union of Mineworkers, led the marchers from the Tower of London through the heart of the city to the Thames River, where a massive rally was held on the south bank.
 "Two of our members died on the picket line protesting the right to work of those 4 1/2 million people in Britain who want to go to work," Scargill, an avowed Marxist, told the cheering crowd.
 "This union is not going to be defeated... Other governments give their coal industry subsidies and we want subsidies from (Prime Minister Margaret) Thatcher," he said.

 Scargill said the union would meet Friday with steelworkers to appeal for their support in the strike, now in its 16th week.
 The Trades Union Congress, organizers of the march through London dubbed the "Day of Action," claimed about 30,000 people took part to show support for the miners. Police, however, estimated the marchers numbered 10,000 to 15,000.
 Office workers leaned out of windows and lined the sidewalks as marchers passed by chanting "Maggie, Maggie, Out, Out, Out," referring to Thatcher.
 Many displayed yellow "Coal not Dole" badges and carried "MacGre-
