At top left, Texas A&M place kicker Alan Smith (11) celebrates with teammate Kyle Stuard (4) after kicking his fifth field goal against Arkansas State to tie the all-time Southwest Conference record for most field goals in a single game. Smith finished 1983 as the SWC's second leading scorer with 18 field goals and 18 PATs. At top right, Aggie quarterback Kevin Murray (14) rolls out to look for his receivers downfield against the University of Houston last year. Murray, a sophomore from Dallas, was chosen as the Southwest Conference Offensive Newcomer of the Year in 1983.

At bottom left, Texas Aggie fullback Roger Vick (43) bolts through the Arkansas Razorback defensive line during last season's game at Kyle Field. Vick, a sophomore from Tomball, played in only six games for the Ags in '83, but still managed to lead the team in rushing with 425 yards on 91 carries. At bottom right, Aggie tailback Rod Bernstine is mobbed in the endzone by his fellow teammates after scoring a touchdown against Arkansas. Bernstine, a sophomore from Bryan, was the second leading receiver for the Ags last season with 24 catches for 217 yards and two TDs.
