Miami readies for the Gators

United Press International
EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. — The Miami Hurricanes had better have purchased some lasting souvenirs during their trip to the Kickoff Classic because memories of the game will quickly fade.

Hours after scoring a 20-18 upset of top-ranked Auburn Monday night, the Hurricanes were on a plane heading home. After a day of sleep, Miami was back on the practice field Tuesday night to prepare for Saturday's game against Florida.

"As soon as we get this ballgame out of our minds the better off we are because we play Florida on the road Saturday night," Miami coach Jimmy Johnson said. "We better forget about Auburn by six or seven o'clock in the morning."

Consider the Tigers forgotten. Miami is looking forward to a chance to avenge last year's 28-3 loss to the Gators. That was the Hurricanes' last defeat; the defending national champions have won a nation-leading 12 straight games since then.

Win or lose at Tampa, Fla., Saturday, the Hurricanes are then off to Ann Arbor, Mich. to battle 10th-ranked Michigan Sept. 8.

"Like last year, we'll have to earn the top spot," Miami linebacker Bruce Fleming said. "This (Auburn) was a big advantage, it will help get us ready for Florida and Michigan — two big tests."

Auburn has nearly three weeks to prepare for its next game — a Sept. 15 battle at Texas. Tigers coach Pat Dye has given his team the rest of the week off, but not as a reward for its play Monday night.

"They whupped us in every phase of the game except the kicking game," Dye said of Miami. "The game was definitely won at the time of scrimmage, they beat us on both sides."

A bright spot for Auburn was freshman Robert McGinity, who was a question mark going into the game, but he played well kicking three field goals.

Miami came up with the answers for most of its questions and showed the potential to be better than the team which Howard Schnellenberger coached to the national title last year. Sophomore Alonzo Highsmith and freshman Warren Williams contributed immediately in the backfield. Highsmith gained 140 yards and Williams had two big plays on the game-winning drive.

The Miami defense contained Auburn All-America running back Bo Jackson, who had 20 carries for a total of 96 yards. Tigers junior quarterback Pat Washington completed 7-of-16 passes for 124 yards, including a 31-yard TD to Clayton Beauford, but failed to move the team consistently.

"We'll get better," Dye promised. "I still think Bo Jackson is the best back in America."
