

BYU wants Bosco to throw B.C.

United Press International

Robbie Bosco makes his debut Saturday as the successor to Steve Young ... and Jim McMahon ... and Marc Wilson ... and Gifford Nielsen. It would be an upset if Bosco didn't pass for at least 3,000 yards and 25 touchdowns this year as Brigham Young's next quarterback, then go on to a pro career. At least, that's what his four predecessors have done.

"People automatically think a BYU quarterback will end up in the pros, but the quarterbacks here have worked hard and have deserved what they got," said Bosco, who leads BYU against seventh-ranked Pittsburgh Saturday.

The Panthers vow to make Bosco's debut a rough one, although they are wary of the pass-happy Cougars. "It only took me one day of watching the film to know my job isn't going to be easy," said Pitt's Bill Fralic, a 6-foot-5, 285-pound offensive tackle so good at his job he is considered a legitimate candidate to become the first interior lineman to win the Heisman Trophy.

"It isn't going to be an easy game. It's going to be a tough game. Nobody on this team is overconfident." Pitt has quarterback John Congemi back, along with standout receiver Bill Wallace. The Panthers are once again considered among the East's elite and some feel they have enough talent to be national champs. "Whether we will be or not we'll find out," Fralic said. "Right now, there probably are 20 teams in the country that are in position to say that they could be awesome."

BYU will be without starting defensive tackle Shawn Knight, who cracked a bone in his ankle and will miss at least the first two games.

Pitt suffered only one major injury during training camp. Senior tight end Clint Wilson suffered a stress fracture in his foot and will be sidelined for at least a month.

Fralic suffered a concussion late in camp, but is expected to start Saturday.

In other games involving Top 20 teams Saturday, No. 4 Miami meets No. 18 Florida, No. 8 Clemson hosts Appalachian State and No. 20 Boston College hosts Western Carolina.

At Tampa, Fla., the defending champion Hurricanes scored a 20-18 victory over top-ranked Auburn last Monday, and now look forward to avenging their lone defeat of last season.

Despite a coaching change that saw Jimmy Johnson succeed Howard Schnellenberger, Miami is far more settled than it was before a 28-3 loss to the Gators in last year's opener. Going into the 1983 season, the Hurricanes pinned their hopes on an untested freshman quarterback named Bernie Kosar.

Now Kosar is one of the most feared passers in the nation. "We were apprehensive when we played Florida last year," Miami offensive tackle Dave Heffernan said. "Now the apprehensiveness is gone. We know we can play ball. Our confidence snowballed last year."

Florida must overcome an uncertain quarterback and coaching picture. Charlie Pell, who announced his resignation effective at the end of this season, still isn't sure who will ultimately replace Wayne Peace.

At Boston, Doug Flutie enters his senior year with the Eagles with high expectations. Many fans feel Flutie will challenge for the Heisman after passing for 7,125 yards in his first three seasons. The 5-9 Flutie is also among the nation's most exciting players and is sure to give Western Carolina fits with his scrambling.

Oilers sign Kennedy for final spot

United Press International

HOUSTON — The Houston Oilers Thursday picked up strong safety Mike Kennedy off waivers from the Buffalo Bills, filling the club's final roster position.

Kennedy, 25, played his rookie season last year for Buffalo, starting in seven games. He was drafted by the Bills out of the University of Toledo, cut and then resigned after four games.

He intercepted one pass last year and returned it 22 yards for a touchdown. He also was credited with 59 tackles.

The 6-foot, 195-pound Kennedy is expected to play a backup role at safety and play on the Oilers' special teams.

Kennedy fills the Oilers' 49th position on the roster. The team had held the place open, hoping to sign running back Mike Rozier of the Pittsburgh Maulers. Rozier, however, could not reach an agreement with the U.S. Football League club to release him from a three-year, $3.1 million contract.

The Raiders and the Houston Oilers play Sunday at the Astrodome.
