Garlits captures NHRA title

United Press International

INDIANAPOLIS — "Big Daddy" Don Garlits won his first National Hot Rod Association event since 1979 Monday, capturing the Top Fuel title in the $1 million 30th U.S. Nationals at Indianapolis Raceway Park.

Garlits, 52, Ocala, Fla., beat Connie Kalitta, Ypsilanti, Mich., in the finals of the 16-car race with a quarter-mile clocking of 5.52 seconds at 259.36 miles per hour. Kalitta followed in 5.69 seconds at 250 mph.

For Garlits, one of drag racing's biggest legends, it was his sixth U.S. Nationals title and his 22nd NHRA career victory. Garlits won his first Nationals title in 1964 and added victories in 1967, '68, '75, '78.

Garlits is the oldest driver ever to win an NHRA event.

"This is my greatest victory because of my age," Garlits said. "I'm not supposed to be able to do this."

Mariners snap Rangers three-game win streak

United Press International

ARLINGTON, Texas — Barry Bonnell singled in the game-winning run during a four-run fourth inning Monday night as the Seattle Mariners ended the Texas Rangers' three-game winning streak with a 7-3 victory.

Mark Langston, 14-9, and Ed Nunez combined on a nine-hitter to give the Mariners their sixth straight victory at Arlington Stadium dating back to last September.

Langston recorded his eighth victory in his last 10 decisions, allowing nine hits and five walks and striking out seven in 7 1/3 innings. Nunez blanked the Rangers over the final 1 2/3 innings for his sixth save.

Seattle took a 5-2 lead with four runs in the fourth inning off loser Frank Tanana, 14-13.

With Texas leading 2-1, Ken Phelps and Al Cowens walked with two out and Steve Henderson's base hit scored Phelps to tie the game as catcher Ned Yost dropped right fielder George Wright's throw. Bonnell singled in Cowens to give Seattle a 3-2 lead and Jim Presley singled in Henderson to make it 4-2.

Bonnell scored all the way from first on the play when shortstop Jeff Kunkel made two errors after Presley successfully advanced to second.

Yost's first of two doubles, in the sixth inning, cut Seattle's lead to 5-3.

The Mariners added single runs in the eighth and ninth innings on RBI doubles by Cowens and Spike Owen to pad their lead 7-3.

Seattle took a 1-0 lead in the first on an RBI groundout by Alvin Davis. Texas took a 2-1 lead in its half of the first on Gary Ward's RBI double and a run-scoring single by Buddy Bell, who had three hits.

At Yankee Stadium, Joe Cowley and Dave Righetti combined on a four-hitter and Bobby Meacham knocked in the game's first run with a seventh-inning sacrifice fly to give New York a 2-0 triumph over the Toronto Blue Jays. The Yankees pulled within five games of second-place Toronto in the AL East.

In other early games, Oakland downed Chicago 8-2 and Boston defeated Milwaukee 8-5.

At Chicago, Mike Heath drove a pair of runs, including the winning run, and Chris Codomo and Chuck Rainey combined on a hit to lead the A's. Carney Ford smashed a three-run home run to lead Oakland, 2-3, in the first four hits in seven innings.

At Milwaukee, Jim Rice and Armas cracked home runs to lead the Red Sox, 2-1, in night games. Cleveland beat California 6-5, Baltimore beat Detroit 7-4 and Minnesota beat Kansas City 4-1.

At Cleveland, Mel Hall and Carter cracked solo home runs to lead the Indians, 2-1.

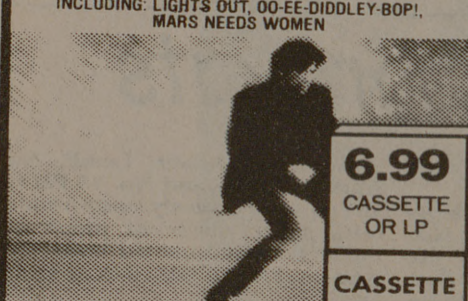

At Detroit, Mike Young belted Aurelio Lopez's second of a grand slam in the eighth to snap a 3-3 tie and lift Baltimore, 4-3.

At Kansas City, John Bates scattered four singles over 7 1/2 innings and the Twins scored two earned runs on a second-inning double by Ron Washington.
