N.Y. Giants ambush fumbleless Cowboys

United Press International

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. — Tony Stewart dashed a club-record yardage with the first of two Gary Hogeboom fumbles caused by line-backer Lawrence Taylor. And Phil Simms fired three touchdown passes today to spark the New York Giants to a 28-7 rout of the mistake-rone Dallas Cowboys.

The Cowboys, who turned the ball over five times in their season-opening triumph over the Los Angeles Rams, suffered three lost fumbles and an interception. The Giants improved to 2-0.

Simms threw first-quarter scoring passes of 62 yards to Byron Williams and 16 yards to Lionel Manuel before Taylor brought a Giants Stadium crowd of 75,921 to its feet early in the second period. Hogeboom fumbled up a Hogeboom fumble used by a blitzing Taylor and the backer scampered 81 yards for a score that demoralized the Cowboys. Hogeboom's return surpassed a 72-yard fumble return by Wendell Harris against Pittsburgh in 1966.

Zeke Mowatt snared an 18-yard pass from Simms early in the third period for a 28-0 lead. Dallas was limited to a 2-yard scoring pass from Hogeboom to Doug Cosbie midway through the third quarter. Hogeboom, who completed a club-record 33 passes against the Rams in his first NFL start, hit on only 21 of 43 for 242 yards.

Simms, who for 409 yards and four touchdowns last week against Philadelphia, completed 10 of 20 for 185 yards and Rob Carpenter gained 87 yards on 22 carries.

Simms made it 28-0 by hitting Mowatt between Everson Walls and Dexter Clinksdale. One play later Ron Fellows fumbled the second-half kickoff, with Byron Hunt recovering at the Dallas 18.

Hogeboom capped a 60-yard drive by faking a handoff to Tony Dorsett and flipping a pass to Cosbie, who beat Taylor across the middle. Hogeboom was 4-for-4 in the seven-play march and Dorsett, who rushed for 95 yards, had 20 yards on two carries.

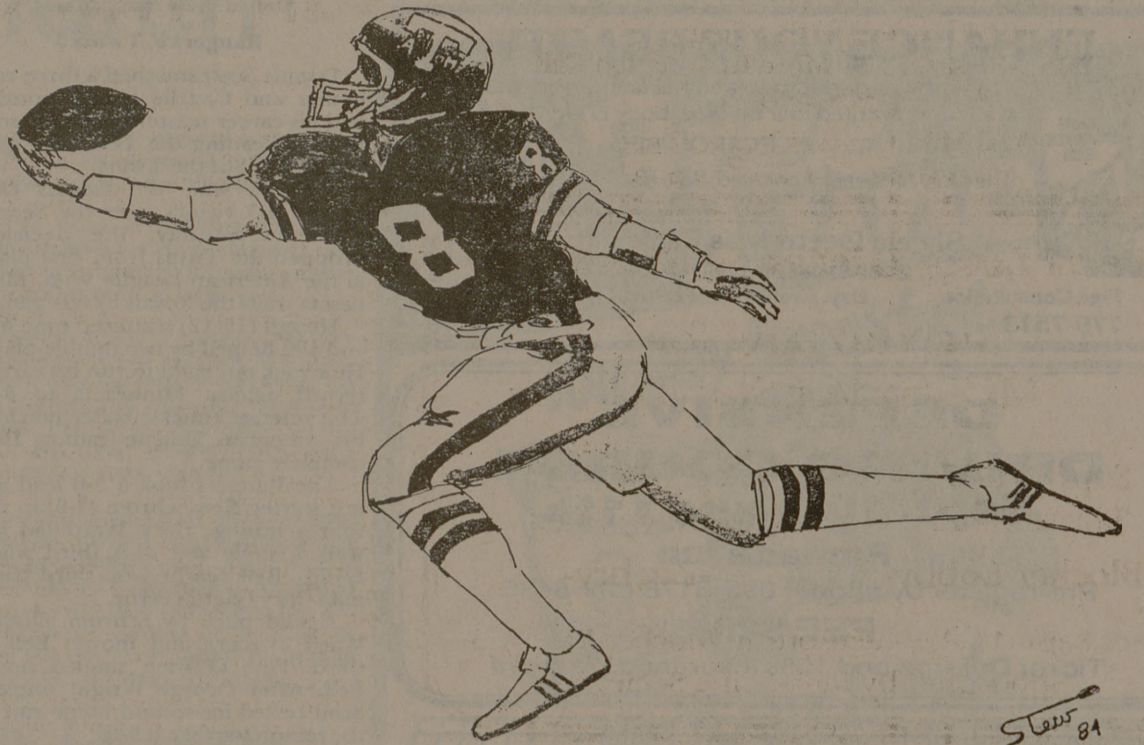

The Giants struck for two touchdowns in a 75-second span to take a 14-0 lead. Starting at his own 12, Simms hit Earnest Gray for 12 yards and Williams for 10. Two plays later, Williams took a Simms pass at the Giants' 45, spun away from Walls and cut down the left sideline to complete a 62-yard TD with 1:33 left in the opening quarter.

On the Cowboys' ensuing possession, Terry Kinard stepped in front of a Hogeboom pass looped for Ron Springs and returned the interception 29 yards to the 16. Simms needed just one play for the score, sprinting right and finding Manuel behind Walls in the right corner of the end zone. The rookie's first NFL reception made it 14-0 with 18 seconds left in the period.

Dallas drove from its 12 to the New York 6-yard line before Taylor struck for the first time. On 3rd-and-3, Hogeboom appeared confused following a timeout and with the 30-second clock running down, he faded to pass. Taylor came from the blind side to Hogeboom's left, stripped the ball and Hogeboom took off for a 21-0 lead at 5:45 of the second period.

Late in the half, a 23-yard interference penalty against Kinard gave Dallas a first down at the 10, but Taylor again shot through on the blind side and caused a Hogeboom fumble. Kinard recovered at the 5 to end another Dallas' threat.

Pagel riddles 'defenseless' Oilers with 3 TD passes

United Press International

The Indianapolis Colts managed just 168 yards rushing, but it was that ground game generated by Curtis Dickey and Randy McMillan that helped quarterback Mike Pagel throw three touchdown passes against the Houston Oilers defense.

"Our running game is our pride and joy," Pagel said after leading the Colts past Houston Sunday, 35-21.

"We feel we can run on anybody and when it starts working, it does open up our passing game."

Pagel and Ray Butler combined for two scoring passes and the third-year quarterback hit Tracy Porter on a 33-yard scoring play. His three touchdown drives in the second quarter put Indianapolis on top to stay at 21-14.

"There were a few things here and there that weren't working real well, but our receivers got by them at the right time," he said.

Colts coach Frank Kush called the effort one of the best since he's been associated with the team.

"With a ball club like ours, every win is very significant," he said. "It's very important we develop ... something to hang our hat on," he said.

Across the field, Oilers coach Hugh Campbell said, "We need to be men about this."

"We have the type of team that has to play our best to win and I don't think we played our best today."

Pagel's first touchdown pass of the season, a 31-yarder to Butler with 1:12 to play in the first half, gave the Colts a 21-14 lead.

He hit Butler again for 14 yards in the third quarter and connected with Tracy Porter for 33 yards in the fourth quarter.

Pagel, in his third season out of Arizona State, completed 15 of 20 passes for 215 yards in directing the Colts to their first win of the season.

Curtis Dickey, who rushed for 84 yards on 22 carries, scored on a 9-yard run for the Colts in the second quarter and Pagel ran in from one yard out for Indianapolis' first touchdown.

Oilers quarterback Warren Moon threw for 365 yards, but the three Houston touchdowns came on runs by Earl Campbell.

The first Pagel-to-Butler score ended an 85-yard drive that took less than two minutes. Pagel completed a 14-yard pass to Butler in the drive and then hit George Wonsley on a 17-yard screen play. The Colts lined up quickly following a 9-yard gain by Dickey and Pagel hit Butler for the score.
