

Bryan-College Station Obstetrics & Gynecology Associates, P.A.
1701 Briarcrest Dr. Suite 100
Bryan, Texas 77802

Linda S. Dutton, C.N.P.

As a certified nurse practitioner in women's health care, she provides an alternative choice for confidential, comprehensive routine physical exams, birth control & minor gynecology problems.

By appointment
(409) 775-5602 8:30 a.m.-5 p.m. Monday-Friday

ENHANCE YOUR BEAUTY

by reshaping eyebrows and hairlines and removing unwanted hair on face, body & legs by ELECTROLYSIS

The Only Medically Approved, Safe and Permanent Method
Sheela Satya Member ATE, IGPE

Sheela Electrolysis Clinic
2703 Osler Blvd., Bryan
Free Consultation 779-7513 Day, Evening or Weekend Appointments 693-0389

Rangers rip Twins; Astros lose

United Press International
Rangers 9, Twins 3

Donnie Scott smashed a three-run homer and Charlie Hough continued his career mastery of Minnesota Sunday, leading the Texas Rangers to a 9-3 rout of the Twins.

Coupled with the Kansas City Royals' 6-5 victory over the Seattle Mariners Sunday, the decision dropped the Twins from first place in the American League West. Minnesota trails the Royals by one game.

Hough (15-12) scattered nine hits and was helped by two double-plays. He struck out eight to run his career record against Minnesota to 8-0. The veteran knuckle-baller notched his American League-leading 15th complete game.

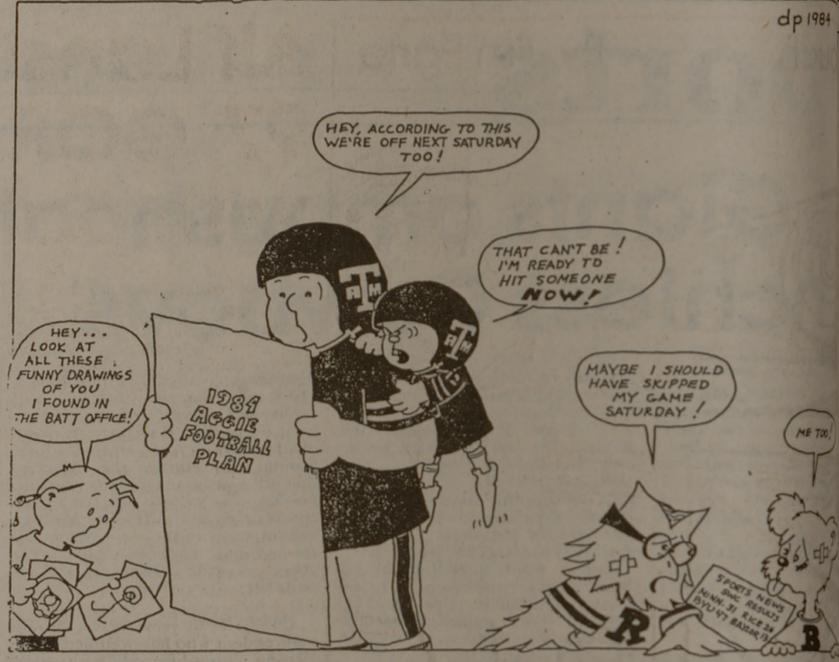

The Rangers took a 5-0 lead against starter Ken Schrom (4-9) in the fourth inning. Gary Ward led off with a single and took third when Buddy Bell reached on third baseman Gary Gaetti's error.

A wild pitch by Schrom allowed Ward to score and moved Bell to third. Pete O'Brien singled home Bell. After George Wright singled, Scott belted his second home run of the season to make it 5-0.

The Rangers made it 8-0 in the fifth on Ward's 17th home run, a solo shot, and a two-run double by Wright.

Kent Hrbek moved the Twins within 8-3 in the fifth with his 24th home run, a three-run blast.

Buddy Bell hit his ninth home run in the seventh to increase Texas' lead to 9-3.

A&M's Hickey accused of past NCAA violation

United Press International
MANHATTAN, Kan. — Texas A&M Women's Athletic Director and head basketball coach Lynn Hickey says she is shocked and hurt over allegations by her former Kansas State assistant coach and four former players that she broke NCAA rules concerning lending money to student athletes.

Hickey responded over the weekend to a report published Friday in The Manhattan Mercury.

The newspaper quoted former K-State assistant women's basketball coach Susan Anthony and four former players as saying Hickey rented an apartment for the players, paid off a bad check written by one player and lent money to two players to buy bus tickets home.

NCAA rules prohibit coaches from lending money to student athletes or providing "extra benefits" that constitute pay for their participation in intercollegiate athletics.

Anthony was fired last month and filed a lawsuit last week alleging racial discrimination because she was not promoted to Hickey's job. That post was given to Matilda Willis. Hickey, who posted a 125-69 record in five seasons at Kansas State, resigned in June to accept a head-coaching job at Texas A&M.

"I don't now or have I ever had to defend the integrity of the program at Kansas State. We ran a good clean program." — Texas A&M Women's Athletic Director Lynn Hickey Hickey said Saturday she is "hurt and shocked" by the charges and feels "sorry for Matilda (Willis) and others in the program." But she told the Manhattan newspaper her main concern now is her new job at Texas A&M.

"K-State is behind me now," Hickey said. "I want to get on with my job here."

A prepared statement from the Texas A&M sports information department quoted Hickey as saying, "I don't now or have I ever had to defend the integrity of the program at Kansas State. We ran a good clean program."

Dave Cawood, an NCAA spokesman, said the organization had no comment on the allegations against Hickey. The NCAA has a policy against saying whether it is investigating an athletic program or not, he said.

K-State Athletic Director Tower also declined comment Sunday, saying it is inappropriate to discuss charges made in a newspaper.

Anthony told the newspaper Hickey rented an apartment for players Priscilla Gary, Karolin, Barbara Gilmore and Dixon.

"She (Hickey) told us we had an apartment and that the rent was $340," Gary told the newspaper. "We told her we couldn't pay that. She said she would talk to the landlord to see if she could talk the price down. Days later, she told us the rent was now $225 a month and that was the only thing we had to pay each month's rent."

Gary said Hickey later gave her $92.50 in groceries for the month. She said Hickey gave $94 to Karolin, Michael Sweeney, and Dixon. She said she had a bad check incident.

Bonner and Franklin said Hickey gave money to player Jennifer Jones and Sharon Carr to take them to their homes in Dixon around the Christmas holidays. More said Hickey gave her money when she said she felt like she was on the team.

DEFENSIVE DRIVING COURSE
Sept. 10th and 11th
Ramada Inn

Pre-register by phone: 693-8178/693-8435

FEE $20

Ticket Deferral and 10% Insurance Discount

HEB

Step Up To Management

What we offer:

- Starting salary in the 20's
- Best training in the food industry
- Good benefits (paid vacation, life & medical insurance, profit sharing, credit union, free use of company lodges, paid relocation, rapid salary improvement).
- Management development programs

What we look for:

- Energetic, highly motivated future managers (indicators we review include: minimum GPA of 2.75, work experience and extracurricular activities).
- Individuals who can express themselves well... think on their feet... and can adapt to a fast pace in an exciting business environment.
- Self starters who can and will make decisions
- Individuals looking for a challenge and an opportunity for self achievement

If you want a career opportunity, a place where your hard work will produce results, then sign up for an interview now through the Placement Office.

OUR REPRESENTATIVES WILL BE ON CAMPUS SEPTEMBER 27th

We Are An Equal Opportunity Employer

HEB FOODS • DRUGS

United Press International
Padres 8, Astros 4

Steve Garvey and Carmelo Martinez drove in two runs apiece Sunday, helping the San Diego Padres build an 8-0 lead after two innings on the way to an 8-4 victory over the Houston Astros.

The victory put the Padres nine games ahead of second-place Houston in the National League West and reduced their magic number for clinching the first title in their 16-year history to 11.

Any combination of San Diego victories or Houston losses totalling 11 would give the Padres the division title.

Mark Thurmond (13-7) went seven innings for the victory. Mike LaCoss (7-4) took the loss.

The Padres scored five runs on five hits off LaCoss in the first inning. Garvey singled home Alan Wiggins with the first and Terry Kennedy and Kevin McReynolds added RBI singles.

McEnroe humbles Lendl once again

United Press International
NEW YORK — He felt terrible all day, and when his match was over John McEnroe was feeling even worse.

Which makes you kind of wonder just how Ivan Lendl feels.

After being pushed around for 3 00901202hours and 45 minutes by Jimmy Connors Saturday night, and not getting off the court until nearly midnight, McEnroe really wasn't in the mood to come back and play Sunday afternoon with the U.S. Open championship at stake.

But with no way out of it, McEnroe simply went about his job as swiftly as he could, terminating Lendl, 6-3, 6-4, 6-1, in only an hour and 40 minutes.

"I really feel exhausted right now," McEnroe said, despite the consolations of his fourth U.S. Open crown and a check for $160,000. "I feel unbelievable and I feel terrible at the same time. My body's just really said 'That's enough.'"

But he looked pretty bad himself. "I felt pretty bad the whole day, and then when I got out there I felt pretty good for a couple of sets, and I was able to get on top of him...I didn't get angry at anything because I knew that I needed every ounce of energy I had. I didn't feel that great at the end of the match. I'm glad it was three sets."

This was McEnroe's 66th match victory of the year against only two losses, and one of those setbacks was dealt by Lendl in the final of the French Open. In that contest, McEnroe won the first two sets, but lost the third and fourth to come back to win the next three.

Following a stretch in which he had beaten McEnroe seven times in a row, Lendl now has dropped six of his last 11 meetings with McEnroe. He was asked what he must do to beat the world's top ranking player.

"The only realistic change is to turn his serve better," said Lendl, who was unable to break McEnroe's time on Sunday.

highlight and write quick as a flash

TEXTAR more than just a highlighter

Switch from highlighting to jotting notes without changing pens. Textar comes in six bright fluorescent colors, each with a blue ballpoint pen.

Available now at your college store.

COUPON

INTERNATIONAL HOUSE OF PANCAKES RESTAURANT

Breakfast Special 99¢

Offer expires September 30, 1984

Includes 1 egg (any Style), Hash Browns, Buttermilk Pancakes or Toast.

Good Monday thru Friday

At INTERNATIONAL HOUSE of PANCAKES® RESTAURANT
103 N. College Skaggs Center

MSC CEPHEID VARIABLE NEW MEMBERS MEETING

LET ME OUT OF THIS MOVIE!
I WANT TO GO JOIN CEPHEID VARIABLE!!!

Tues., Sept. 11
7:30 p.m.
229 MSC
SF&F @ A&M

BLOOD SAMPLE - $5.00 -

We are conducting a serum survey for next winter's Flu Study and will take up to 3000 blood samples.

For information and to give a sample come see the Flu Fighters at:

COMMONS LOUNGE - Mon-Fri, Sept 10-14. 9:30 AM-5 PM (4 PM Friday)

MEDICAL SCIENCES BUILDING, Rm 162 - Mon-Tues, Sept 10-11. 9:30 AM-5 PM

BEUTEL HEALTH CENTER, Rm 002 - Wed-Fri, Sept 12-14. 9:30-4 PM

Help Stamp Out Flu- Dr. John Quarles 845-1358