Bashes' financial goal likely as outcome of ticket sell-out

By KARI FLUEGEL
Staff Writer

Despite the rain, the Aggie Cowboys' Bourbon Street Bash at the Brazos County Pavilion Friday night was a sellout.

Mike Cavanaugh, one of the coordinators for the Bash, said the tickets which were available at the door were sold out around 10 p.m. Even with the sky threatening to pour rain Friday afternoon, the pre-sales of tickets sky-rocketed.

About 4,000 people attended the Bash featuring music by the Busboys and the Dealers.

Proceeds from the Bash will be donated to the Christian Children's Fund and the Village of Hope.

The Aggie Cowboys' goal this year was to raise $5,000 to sponsor 25 children in the Village of Hope.

Last year the Aggie Cowboys donated about $3,000 to sponsor five Village of Hope children for a year, bringing the groups' total charity contributions from the Bourbon Street Bashes to nearly $10,000.

Cavanaugh said the group does not know yet if they reached their goal. Bills for the event are still coming in, he said.

"But it looks like the chances are very good for attaining our goal," he said. Police reported no fights and no arrests during the evening, Cavanaugh said.

"It was a very large, very controllable party," he said.

According to beer distributors last year, the 1983 Bash, when 101 kegs of beer were drunk, was the largest party in this area, Cavanaugh said. But this year 131 kegs were used, "which makes this the largest event to ever hit this area," he said.

"We definitely had a successful party. Even those stuck (in the muddy parking lot) were happy."

Regents

Zachry Engineering Center on Spence Street, a face-lift for the west campus area that would provide a new pedestrian mall and renovation and expansion of roads and utilities for the University's research park.

The utility renovations will cost about $5.5 million.

The landscaping project for the west campus area will include destruction of three buildings on West Main Drive, including the old creamery building. The project, which will begin by May, will cost $70,000.

The regents also heard a report on the status of the new Former Students' building that will be constructed on the south part of the main campus across from the University Police station.

Ground breaking should begin before the end of the year, with projected completion in the spring of 1986.

The building will cost about $7 million, and the Association of Former Students have raised all but $2 million of the cost.

Other items discussed included the appropriation of $400,000 to finish implementing a new student information management system. The new system will modernize the registration and financial aid system.

Regents also approved an appropriation of $10 million from the Available University Fund to match private grants under the Endowed Faculty Scholars Program.

Board members voted to name the circle around the Albritton Tower the Albritton Circle in honor of Ford D. Albritton who built the carillon.

Also, regents approved naming the park south of FM 60 and just west of the railroad underpass in honor of Dr. Eli L. Whiteley, the only living Texas A&M alumni Medal of Honor recipient, and in memory of seven other former A&M students who received the Medal of Honor.

Those to be honored are Daniel R. Edwards, George Keathley, Horace S. Carswell Jr., Turney W. Leonard, Thomas W. Fowler, William G. Harrell and Lloyd Hughes.

The park will be dedicated, along with the re-dedication of the World War I memorial which had to be moved for the building of the bell tower, during Armistice Day on Nov. 11.

Here's one college credit you'll use long after graduation

Really, it's simple economics. When you apply for and receive a Foley's charge card, you'll gain a credit rating; and your prompt payment and good judgment keep it A-1. Plus, you don't have to wait for graduation to get it-- let us know whether you're a junior, senior or graduate student. If we cannot verify your class status in the Student Directory, please attach verification of class status; for example, a paid fee slip. Fill out the attached form and return it to us. Send this application to: Foley's Credit Promotion Dept. P.O. Box 1971, Houston, Texas 77251
