Oilers extend nose dive to nine in loss to Bengals

United Press International

HOUSTON — Larry Kinnebrew rushed for three touchdowns and scored another on a screen pass to lead the Cincinnati Bengals to a 31-13 victory over the winless Houston Oilers Sunday.

Kinnebrew, who rushed for 80 yards and had 24 yards in pass receptions, scored two touchdowns each in the first and second halves to account for all of Cincinnati's touchdowns.

The victory raised Cincinnati's record to 3-6. The Oilers, 0-9, have now lost 31 of their last 34 games.

Cincinnati built a 17-7 lead at halftime, and the Bengals' defense shut down a Houston drive that started the second half.

The Oilers had moved to the Bengal 35 and decided to gamble on a 4th-and-7. But quarterback Warren Moon was sacked for a 10-yard loss by defensive end Ross Browner.

Cincinnati took over at its own 45 and 10 plays later, Ken Anderson lofted a screen pass to Kinnebrew on the right side, who then scampered in from 11 yards out.

Jim Breech added the extra point to give Cincinnati a 24-7 lead with 5:35 left in the third quarter.

Late in the third quarter, Cincinnati took over at the Houston 46. Three plays later, Kinnebrew broke loose for a 22-yard gain to put the ball on the 2.

Kinnebrew tried to bull his way over the line twice but was stopped short. On 3rd-and-goal, Kinnebrew got over, and Breech's PAT gave the Bengals a 31-7 lead with 12:46 left in the game.

Houston scored a touchdown on its next drive. Oliver Luck replaced Moon and drove the Oilers 75 yards in 10 plays with Luck going the final 3 with 7:18 left in the game.

Kinnebrew scored two touchdowns in the first half, and Breech added a field goal as time expired to rally the Bengals to a 17-7 lead.

Houston had jumped ahead 7-0 in the first quarter. Willie Tuller accepted a Ken Anderson pass intended for Cris Collinsworth.

The Oilers moved quickly. They hooked up with Herkie Walker, 76 yard gain that moved the ball the 1. It took a diving tackle by Simmons to prevent the score.

But on the next play, Larry Riarly dived across for the end zone and Florian Kempf added an extra point with 2:01 left in the quarter.

Cincinnati, however, came away with 17 unanswered points.

The Bengals took the extra kickoff and marched 67 yards in 11 plays. Kinnebrew capped the drive with a second-effort burst for a yard out and Breech's PAT with 11:19 left in the half gave the Bengals a 7-3 lead.

Cincinnati got the ball back on Houston 25 two plays later. Reggie Williams intercepted a pass intended for Jamie Williams
