AT LAST: TCU gets respect

United Press International

NEW YORK — Texas Christian and Cal State-Fullerton aren't teams you normally think of as Top 20 material, but they certainly have the credentials to be there.

In the latest voting by the UPI Board of Coaches, TCU showed up 19th and Fullerton 20th. It was TCU's first appearance in the Top 20 since the Horned Frogs were ranked No. 8 in 1959. This is the first time Fullerton has ever been ranked since moving up from Division II in 1974.

The top of the rankings weren't so surprising.

Washington is ranked first for the third straight week and Texas is No. 2.

The Huskies received 26 of 42 first-place votes and 608 total points after a 28-12 win over Arizona. No. 2 Texas, which had been No. 1 for two weeks earlier in the season, received nine first-place votes and 571 points after a 13-7 victory over Southern Methodist that knocked the Mustangs out of the Top 20.

No. 3 Brigham Young, No. 4 Nebraska and No. 5 South Carolina benefitted from a Kansas upset of Oklahoma to move up. BYU received five first-place votes and 523 points, Nebraska got two first-place votes and 519 points and South Carolina jumped three spots with 423 points.

TCU is 6-1, including four straight victories, and leads the nation in total offense, rushing offense and scoring offense. The Southwest Conference school averages 397.4 yards (323.3 rushing) and 38.6 points per game.

Fullerton, among just five unbeaten Division I-A schools in the nation at 9-0, is ranked for the first time ever. The Titans moved up from Division I in 1974 and are the only Pacific Coast Athletic Association team in the Top 20.
