

Inside

Cover: Fine wine, candlelight ... and a video? If you're looking for a great way to take your mind off of your problems without straying too far from home, renting a video cassette player and some tapes may be the answer. You can rent a player and tape for anywhere from five to ten dollars at a number of video outlets in this area and spend a blissful evening sipping the vino while enjoying your favorite flick.

At Ease

Editor Bill Hughes
 Assistant Editor Angel Stokes
 Editorial Assistants Robin Black, Dena L. Brown
 Senior Staff Writer Leigh-Ellen Clark
 Movies Shawn Behlen

At Ease's guide to pampering yourself6

Features

Bathing: the ultimate luxury
 Rubber duckies and bubbles are an incredible combination8

Deadline extended in Battle for earth
 "Battlefield Earth" logo design contest deadline is Nov. 15.....5

Last weekend for Austin crafts fair
 Seven different Hill Country arts and crafts shows Nov. 3 and 4.....5

Opera gives Cinderella story new life
 Patricia Flint reviews Western Opera Theater's "La Cenerentola"10

The "King" is back in town again
 Joe "King" Carrasco and special guests The Dishes play tonight12

Diversions

Best Bets
 Robin Black previews clubs, concerts and other distractions4

Movie Reviews
 Shawn Behlen reviews "Terminator" and "Body Double"3

At the movies
 What's showing at theaters around town16

Album Reviews
 Walter Smith reviews new albums by Orchestral Manoeuvres in the Dark and Jellybean.....13

Books
 Robin Black reviews "Texas Crude: The How-to on Talkin' Texan"4
 Dena Brown reviews "On Campus Cookbook"4