

Balloon Bonanza

764-0950 822-1617
1405 Harvey Rd. 405 N. Pierce
(across from Sears) (Mike's Grocery)
College Station Bryan

Let Us Add Happiness to Your Occasion!

STEAK ROOM

TOKYO STEAK HOUSE

SPECIAL DINNER $4.95 with Student ID Sun - Thurs.
11th century Japanese recipe prepared at your table, by your own personal chef.

TEPPAN-YAKI CHICKEN, TEPPAN-YAKI SHRIMP
Japanese onion soup, special green salad served with Japanese vegetables, steamed rice, fortune cookie and tea.

Lunch Special

Ramen $1.90
Yakisoba $1.90
Fried Rice $1.90

411 Texas Ave. 846-5711
Across from Ramada Inn

Hanifan calls refs 'human'

United Press International

ST. LOUIS — Cardinal coach Jim Hanifan Monday came to the defense of officials feeling the heat from St. Louis fans enraged over two calls in Sunday's loss to the Dallas Cowboys, 24-17.

"It's part of the game," Hanifan said of the officiating. "You get into the human factor here. We all make mistakes."

Hanifan said the problem with officiating is the complexity of football today.

"You've got a heck of a lot of things going on — multiple types of coverages," he said. "It's not like it used to be. It was a simpler game. And I think being a simpler game, it was a little easier to call."

Both of the controversial calls that raised the ire of Cardinal fans and players involved St. Louis wide receiver Roy Green, the NFL's leading pass receiver.

On the first play, Green appeared to have hauled in a 39-yard touchdown pass from Neil Lomax that would have given St. Louis the lead with 26 seconds left in the third quarter.

However, field judge Pat Mallette ruled Green pushed off of Cowboy cornerback Everson Walls and called the play back on offensive pass interference.

Walls said Green's push was "slight," adding, "I thought he beat me for a touchdown."

The second call was actually a no-call and appeared even more blatant in replays. The Cardinals were trying to comeback in the fourth quarter of the 24-17 loss when Lomax passed to Green. But before the ball got to Green, Walls popped him from behind. No penalty was called.

Hanifan, however, dismissed the officiating as the breaks of the game, and pointed to a more important factor for the defeat — six turnovers.

"You often look at turnovers and say, well, that's from sloppy play or careless play," he said. "A lot of times a turnover is because of somebody trying to do something a little bit more than the ordinary."

"In the final analysis of it, whether you're a mature team or a young team, if you lose the ball four times in fumbles, you've got yourself a world of crap."

In fact, Hanifan said it was a tribute to the team that it was in position for a tying touchdown in the final minutes despite the four fumbles and two interceptions.

"When it's all said and done, in my mind, we should have won that football game," said Hanifan. "We damn near did it anyway with a helluva lot of adversity, with turnovers, with penalties, with touchdowns called back. We were still in the cotton-picking ball game."

The Cardinals now are 6-5 and facing what Hanifan called "an uphill battle" for a playoff berth.

"What we've got to do is get out there in the next five weeks and play our game," he said.

A Kick In The Grass
Texas A&M Women's Soccer Team player Tracy Holly attempts to slip the ball through the legs of a University of Texas defender during Saturday's match. The Aggies' final game for this season ended up in a scoreless tie, even after playing two overtime periods.
Photo by FRANK IRWIN

Dickerson legend to be

Payton passes torch

United Press International

LOS ANGELES — The torch Walter Payton carried as the NFL's premier running back for so many seasons has been passed. The flame now goes to Eric Dickerson.

The final step in the exchange of the NFL's unofficial "Golden Cleat Award" was made Sunday, when Dickerson romped for 149 yards and a pair of touchdowns in the Los Angeles Rams' victory over the Chicago Bears. Payton finished with only 60 yards rushing.

For awhile, the doubters will remain. Those who have watched Payton confuse and baffle NFL defenses for a decade will be unable to let go. He is, after all, the all-time leading rusher, having left the legend of Jim Brown in his wake earlier this year.

"Eric Dickerson is not the best I've ever played against," Chicago linebacker Mike Singletary said after the Bears' loss. "But he's in the top two."

Asked who the top runner was, Singletary replied, "I'm not going to say. But he's in the room right now."

Even the modest Dickerson casts his vote for Payton.

"To me, he's the greatest," Dickerson said. "I think he's the best running back in pro football."

But if you polled the 28 NFL team owners in strict confidence, there's little chance all 28 wouldn't make Dickerson their first choice.

Although he gained 208 yards a week ago against St. Louis, Sunday's performance against the tough Bear defense may have been Dickerson's finest. He took control of the game in the second half, dancing his way to a seemingly effortless 99 yards and both touchdowns with a remarkably different running style than Payton's.

When Payton runs, you look for a linebacker or safety. When Dickerson runs, you glance around for Ginger Rogers.

This season, Dickerson has cranked out eight 100-yard games, piling up 1,309 yards. Payton is second with 1,172 yards.

OK. Sometimes the stats don't give the whole truth. Maybe Dickerson has carried the ball more often than Payton. Wrong. Dickerson has 241 carries this year and is averaging 5.4 yards per rush. Payton has carried the ball eight more times and is averaging 4.7 yards per carry.

But even the majority of the Bears, very carefully trying not to damage the feelings of their franchise-carrier, gave Dickerson the nod.

"I had great respect for Eric Dickerson in college," said linebacker Otis Wilson, "and I still have respect for him. He just kept coming at us."

Dickerson, whose strange glare and oversized mouthpiece screen behind his cage facemask give him the appearance of a creature from another land, has averaged 119 yards per game this season. If he averages just 20 more per game against Green Bay, Tampa Bay, New Orleans, Houston and San Francisco, he breaks O.J. Simpson's NFL season record of 2,003 yards.

If he doesn't get that record this season, he almost surely will before he gives NFL defenses a break and retires. The 24-year-old from San Antonio says he's still learning.

"I'll get better," he vows. "You get better as you get older. People haven't seen the best of Eric Dickerson yet."

Even Payton knows the sleek one in L.A. now rules the jungle.

"The only way I could keep Eric Dickerson from breaking my record would be to keep playing as long as him," Payton said.

DIKE CHICKEN
Try Our Burgers For Lunch
307 University Dr.

The Battalion SPREADING THE NEWS
Since 1978

The Choice Is Yours!
	PONDEROSA	MOTEL 6
ROOM RATES	* 16 ⁹⁵ SINGLE	16 ⁹⁵ SINGLE
TELEPHONE	FREE LOCAL CALLS 24-HR MESSAGES WAKE UP CALLS	NO PHONE IN ROOMS
TV	FREE H.B.O. FREE COLOR TV	NO H.B.O. 99¢ DAY, B&W $1.25 COLOR
BATHROOM	BATH TUB & SHOWER	SHOWER ONLY
RESTAURANT	ON PREMISES 5 A.M.-10 P.M.	NO
LAUNDRY MAT	COIN OPERATE	NO
POOL	YES	YES
TRUCK PRKG.	YES	NO
ROOM SIZE	LARGE	SMALL

*Special Rate does not apply to football or graduation games.
PONDEROSA MOTOR INN
College Station, Texas 3702 Texas Ave. S. (409) 693-6810
1 Mi. So from K-Mart

Eastmark Apartments
7600 Central Park Lane
NOW LEASING
Lg. & Sm. 1 Bedroom with 1 Bath
Spacious 2 Bedrooms with 2 Baths

- Convenient to Post Oak Mall and Parkway Shopping Centers
- Close to Medical and Professional buildings
- Volleyball and Basketball Courts
- Game Pool
- Laundry Facilities
- On Site Management & Security
- Walk In Closets
- Private Balconies & Patios
- Convenient to Campus
- Outside Storage
- Frost Free Refrigerators With Ice Makers
- 24 Hr. Maintenance
- Free Cable

Pay just 1/2 rent for the 1st 2 months with a 9 month lease. Located off Southwest Parkway near the East Bypass.
Tres Development Corp.
Office Open: Mon.-Fri. 8-5, Sat. 10-5, Sun. 1-5
ph 693-8066

An Apple for the Teacher...
BARGAINS FOR YOU
Battalion Advertising
845-2611

WOULDN'T YOU REALLY RATHER BE IN EUROPE?
TAMU SUMMER STUDY ABROAD PROGRAMS
INFO MEETING Thursday Nov. 15 8:30PM
ITALY ENGLAND
MSC Rm 140A MSC Rm 140
Sponsored through the College of Liberal Arts
FOR MORE INFORMATION: STUDY ABROAD OFFICE
101 Academic Bldg. 845-0544

ROXZ
TEXAS STYLE ROCK & ROLL
IKA is sponsoring
A PARTY AT ROXZ
WEDNESDAY NIGHT
75¢ BEER
$1.50 BAR DRINKS
ALL NIGHT!!
ROXZ
Post Oak Mall TEXAS STYLE ROCK & ROLL 764-0920

Sorry, No vacancies this semester. However, We're taking application deposits for a waiting list for Spring, Summer & Fall of 1985.
country place apartments
3902 College Main 846-0515
* AT&T UNIVERSITY COLLEGE MAIN
WELLBORN RD.
OLD COLLEGE
693-8
A COMPASS MANAGED COMMUNITY