

Mr. Bill says...
"Don't go home looking fowl at Thanksgiving!"

For all your grooming needs
 Barber & Roffler
Bill's Style Shop
 215 University Dr. 846-2228
 Appointments Available Monday-Saturday

FORMER KGB AGENT
VLADIMIR SAKHAROV

The Soviet Union:
WHO'S IN CHARGE?

MON. NOV. 19 8:00 P.M. RUDDER THEATER FREE
 Memorial Student Center

PRESENTS:
The 75th TEXAS AGGIE BONFIRE PRINTS

On Sale November 20-21, 26-28, and 30th at the MSC

Presale Prices
 8 x 10 - $3⁵⁰
 11 x 14 - $10⁰⁰
 16 x 20 - $20⁰⁰

Prices go up 'After The Fire' So order your Bonfire Photograph Now!
MSC CAMERA COMMITTEE BONFIRE PRINT! "THE ORIGINAL"

HELD OVER

LAST THREE DAYS

$38

Plus $6 Photo ID Card

24 HOUR GYMS OF TEXAS
 700 UNIVERSITY DR. E

846-0053

FACILITIES INCLUDE:
 COED CONDITIONING FLOOR
 FREE WEIGHTS
 ICARIAN EQUIPMENT
 NAUTILUS
 WET STEAM BATH
 DESERT DRY SAUNA
 RELAXING WHIRLPOOL
 PRIVATE SHOWERS,
 LOCKERS & DRESSING
 OPEN 24 HOURS WEEKDAYS
 AGES 16-80
 6 DAYS WEEKLY
 EXTRA
 COED & LADIES AEROBICS
 20 MINUTE TANNING BEDS
 LIFECYCLES
 NURSERY
 SUNDAYS

Houston wins again

Moon, Smith rip Jets, 31-20

United Press International
 HOUSTON — Warren Moon Sunday threw three touchdown passes, two to Tim Smith, to lead the Houston Oilers to a 31-20 win over the New York Jets.

Moon, who completed 20 of 28 passes for 207 yards, hit Smith on scoring strikes of 5 and 14 yards, and tossed a 10-yard scoring pass to Herkie Walls, helping the Oilers pile up 31 points, the most they have scored in a game all season.

Houston is now 2-10 after opening the season with 10 straight losses. Sunday's loss was the fourth straight for the Jets, who fall to 6-6.

The Jets led 13-10 at halftime, but Houston struck quickly in the second half, taking advantage of a Jets turnover. Linebacker Gregg Bingham forced Jets running back Freeman McNeil to cough up the ball, and Bob Hamm recovered on the New York 17.

Three plays later, Moon drilled a 14-yard scoring strike to Smith, and Joe Cooper's extra point with 11:58 left in the third gave Houston a 17-13 lead.

The Oilers added to their lead later in the period, moving to the Jets' 13 after a roughing-the-passer penalty and a 17-yard gain by Stan Edwards.

Two plays later, Moon rifled a 10-yard touchdown pass to Walls, who caught it between defenders Davlin Mullen and Ken Schroy, giving Houston a 24-13 lead.

Houston made it 31-13 with 10:06 left in the game when Larry Moriarty, who rushed for 138 yards, broke loose on a 51-yard touchdown run.

New York added a touchdown

Larry Moriarty rushed for 138 yards for the Oilers

Tim Smith caught 2 TD passes from Warren Moon with 4:51 left in the game on a 3-yard Tony Paige run.

The Jets took the opening kickoff of the game 85 yards in 12 plays, with Marion Barbar going around the left end from 12 yards out for a 7-0 lead with 9:22 left in the period.

On its next possession, New York had 1st-and-goal at the 9 but managed only 5 yards before settling for Pat Leahy's 19-yard field goal that gave the Jets a 10-0 lead.

Two plays later, Moriarty fumbled the ball after being hit by Kirk Springs, and Lance Mehl recovered, giving New York the ball on Houston's 37.

But the Jets had to settle for another Leahy field goal, this one from 27 yards out with 12:06 left in the half, putting New York up 13-0.

Houston then put together scoring drives to cut the deficit to 10 by halftime.

The Oilers' first scoring drive was highlighted by a pass from Moon that bounced off Mike Holston's shoulder into the hands of Edwards for a 20-yard gain. Moon capped the drive with a 5-yard strike to Smith with 5:36 left in the half.

Houston stopped New York's next drive and took over on its own 12 with 2:11 left in the half. Moon's 20-yard completion to Walls put the ball on the New York 25 with 1 second left, and Cooper kicked a 43-yard field goal as time ran out.

Bills shock Pokes, 14-3, end 13-game dry spell

United Press International
 ORCHARD PARK, N.Y. — Greg Bell ran 85 yards for a touchdown and caught a 3-yard scoring pass early in the fourth quarter Sunday to lead the Buffalo Bills to a stunning 14-3 upset of the Dallas Cowboys.

The victory was the first of the season for the Bills, who had dropped their first 11 games of the campaign, while the loss dropped Dallas to 7-5 on the season and muddled the divisional race in the NFC East. The Cowboys are now in a three-way tie for first place with the New York Giants and Washington Redskins.

Bell, a rookie from Notre Dame, scored what proved to be the clinching touchdown on the first play from scrimmage. He found a hole and ran 85 yards up the middle for a score just 21 seconds into the game to give Buffalo a 7-0 lead. The touchdown run was the longest from scrimmage against the Cowboys in the 25-year history of the franchise.

Buffalo had two drives start on the Dallas 21 and 34-yard lines in the first quarter but were unable to score. The Cowboys drove to the Buffalo 3 early in the second quarter but had to settle for a 20-yard field goal by Rafael Septien.

The Bills held onto the lead and at 3:12 in the fourth quarter widened it when Bell caught a 3-yard scoring pass from quarterback Joe Ferguson.

The Buffalo defense intercepted two Gary Hogeboom passes and sacked him three times for losses of 23 yards.

Hogeboom finished the game with 22 completions on 45 attempts for 222 yards, while Ferguson completed just 13 of 29 passes for 117 yards. He also had two passes intercepted.

Bell, who also had runs of 38 and 27 yards, finished the game with 206 yards on 27 carries, the best of his career. He became the first Buffalo running back to gain more than 200 yards rushing since 1978 when Terry Miller picked up 203 yards against the Giants.

The victory snapped a 13-game Buffalo losing streak.

The Bills sold 79,457 tickets for the game, just short of a sellout at the 80,000 seat stadium. It broke Dallas' streak of 43 consecutive sellouts on the road.

Orchard Park, N.Y. — Greg Bell ran 85 yards for a touchdown and caught a 3-yard scoring pass early in the fourth quarter Sunday to lead the Buffalo Bills to a stunning 14-3 upset of the Dallas Cowboys.

The victory was the first of the season for the Bills, who had dropped their first 11 games of the campaign, while the loss dropped Dallas to 7-5 on the season and muddled the divisional race in the NFC East. The Cowboys are now in a three-way tie for first place with the New York Giants and Washington Redskins.

Bell, a rookie from Notre Dame, scored what proved to be the clinching touchdown on the first play from scrimmage. He found a hole and ran 85 yards up the middle for a score just 21 seconds into the game to give Buffalo a 7-0 lead. The touchdown run was the longest from scrimmage against the Cowboys in the 25-year history of the franchise.

Buffalo had two drives start on the Dallas 21 and 34-yard lines in the first quarter but were unable to score. The Cowboys drove to the Buffalo 3 early in the second quarter but had to settle for a 20-yard field goal by Rafael Septien.

The Bills held onto the lead and at 3:12 in the fourth quarter widened it when Bell caught a 3-yard scoring pass from quarterback Joe Ferguson.

The Buffalo defense intercepted two Gary Hogeboom passes and sacked him three times for losses of 23 yards.

Hogeboom finished the game with 22 completions on 45 attempts for 222 yards, while Ferguson completed just 13 of 29 passes for 117 yards. He also had two passes intercepted.

Bell, who also had runs of 38 and 27 yards, finished the game with 206 yards on 27 carries, the best of his career. He became the first Buffalo running back to gain more than 200 yards rushing since 1978 when Terry Miller picked up 203 yards against the Giants.

The victory snapped a 13-game Buffalo losing streak.

The Bills sold 79,457 tickets for the game, just short of a sellout at the 80,000 seat stadium. It broke Dallas' streak of 43 consecutive sellouts on the road.

Saints' fate lies with Monday night game against Steelers

United Press International
 NEW ORLEANS — For the Saints, Monday night's contest against the Pittsburgh Steelers and a home battle six days later against San Francisco could determine the future of Coach Bum Phillips and the team's hometown.

If the Saints win both games, they could catapult back into the running for an NFC wild-card playoff spot. New Orleans has never made the playoffs, but came within a field goal last year of breaking its 17-year drought.

If they lose both games, owner John Mecom could show his disgust by making good on threats to sell the team to eager investors in Jacksonville, Fla.

For the Steelers, the game will be a chance to cement their hold on the AFC Central Division lead. Pittsburgh, 6-5, entered the weekend with a two-game margin over Cincinnati.

If precedent has any influence in Monday night's game, the Saints—might as well not show up. New Orleans has not won any of its six previous Monday night contests and blew a 21-point lead in the fourth quarter in a Sunday night loss to Dallas in mid-October.

The Saints, 5-6, have been able to triumph over only one team with a winning record — St. Louis.

Pittsburgh has won 14 of its 22 Monday night games, with Monday and Thursday night victories this season.

On top of that, the Saints have not beaten the Steelers since 1969 and Pittsburgh Coach Chuck Noll has an 11-4 record against Phillips, who as the Houston coach from 1975-80 faced the Steelers at least twice a year.

And to make matters worse for the Saints, Pittsburgh's record includes victories over three NFC West teams — the 49ers, Rams and Falcons — each of whom have defeated New Orleans this fall.

The Saints, 5-6, have been able to triumph over only one team with a winning record — St. Louis.

The Steelers will be led by Mark Malone, who grabbed the starting quarterback job from David Woodley and has responded with 79 completions in 153 attempts for 1,130 yards and eight touchdowns. Wide receiver John Stallworth has 59 receptions for 1,004 yards and seven scores.

Pittsburgh's offensive line, riddled by injuries this year, will be bolstered by the return of tackle Steve August, who missed three games with a strained right knee. He practiced Friday and has been upgraded to probable.

Richard Todd has hit on 133 of his 258 passes for 1,861 yards for New Orleans, with nine touchdowns and 14 interceptions.

Voice Your Complaints Directly to Student Government

ISSUES AND GRIEVANCES MEETING

Senate Resolution on Women in the Band will be discussed.
If you don't tell us... We can't do it!

TONIGHT 7:30 pm Room 701 Rudder
 Contact: Wayne Roberts 846-3628