Come to Matamoros for dinner.

Imagine dining on a veranda overlooking the ocean, a cool Mexican breeze blowing in your face. Taste guacamole with just the right amounts of tomato and lemon, and enchiladas so full of melted cheese that they are about to explode. Feast upon tamales, spicy tacos, rice and of course, frijoles. Now you could go to coastal Mexico for these delicacies. Or you can come to Matamoros Night at the Padre Cafe.

United Way almost hits total goal

By ANN PARKER
Reporter

The Brazos County United Way's 1984-85 campaign drive has raised $418,821 and pledges are within 98.5 percent of the $425,000 goal, officials said Tuesday.

"We are virtually assured of reaching our goal," said Celia Stallings, the fund-raising drive chairman. "In fact, if the workers can complete the calls they've been assigned and (the contributors) return no more than last year's contributions, we'll go well over our goal."

Though the United Way campaign officially ended Nov. 16, Stallings said volunteers need to complete their calls and get results to the United Way office as quickly as possible.

"With pledges thus far, we are assured of providing the support we've promised to the 18 human service agencies in Brazos County," Stallings said.

United Way supports local agencies such as the Mental Health Mental Retardation Authority of Brazos Valley, Red Cross, the Boy Scouts of America and the Rape Crisis Center.

This year's campaign has exceeded last year's pledge total of $396,000 by more than $20,000 and has passed the $400,000 mark for the first time.

"We still need to finish our job in order to meet the goal we established to fully fund the United Way agencies in our county," Stallings said. "We hope it can be done within the next few days."

Recent pledges which greatly increased the total included a St. Joseph's hospital employees' pledge of $7,322, an employees' contribution of $3,483 from Republic Bank A&M, a K-Mart employees' pledge of $1,620 and a $1,242 gift from the Steak and Ale restaurant.
