MSC parties Saturday

It's MSC All-Nite Fair time! Beginning at 7 p.m. Saturday and continuing until 3 a.m. Sunday. There's going to be a whole lot of partying going on.

Student director Mike Cramer said that 50 university clubs have signed up to participate in the fair. Each organization will set up a game booth and receive 90 percent of the revenue generated from the games. The planning committee hopes that twenty more clubs will decide to participate before the fair begins.

Some of the activities that are planned for the main lounge are: square dancing exhibition, jalapeno eating contest and the Debonaires, a progressive country band, will play from 10 p.m. to 2 a.m.

In MSC 201 will be a barbecue cafe and John Wayne movies will be shown on a big screen television. Hayrides on the drill field are a first for the fair and will begin at 7.

Admission to the All-Nite Fair is $1 and separate activity tickets for the booths are a dime. Some booths will cost multiple tickets, depending on the activity. The games people play? Pudding throw, pin the tail on Bevo, can smashing, corn chip throwing, cracker eat & whistle .... A
