County fair goers pull "All-Nighter"

More than 4,000 people frolicked in the hay Saturday night at the MSC All-Night County Fair. The fair, sponsored by the MSC All-Night Fair Committee in conjunction with Coors, radio station KORA and Wrangler, featured more than 60 carnival booths, a barbecue cafe, western movies, hayrides and square dancing.

In addition, fair goers competed in more civilized rivalry such as seed-spitting and jalapeno-eating contests, and Bevo-calling and Wrangler jean competitions.

The Debonaires, winners of the 1984 Wrangler Country Showdown, played country and rock 'n' roll favorites for a crowded dance floor of county revellers.
