Career Fair offers business contacts

By SUZANNE METSCHER
Reporter

This is the week for handing out resumes and meeting successful members of the business community and possible future employers.

The College of Business Administration is sponsoring Business Week 1985 which begins today with a reception for company recruiters and invited student leaders and faculty.

A major component of Business Week is the Sixth Annual Business Career Fair.

The fair is designed to help students learn more about career opportunities by interacting with representatives from close to 80 major companies.

The companies will set up a total of 80 booths in the lobby of the Blocker Building on Tuesday and Wednesday. There will be 40 booths each day.

Any interested students may come by the booths and talk to recruiters.

Tuesday evening at 7 there will be a Career Fair Banquet at the Brazos Center.

Students interested in attending the banquet may purchase tickets for $6.50 in the lobby of the Blocker Building until 4:00 p.m. Monday.

Regent David G. Eller, chairman and chief executive officer of the Granada Corporation, will be the keynote speaker at the banquet.

The Business Student Council expects between 600 and 700 students and about 250 company representatives to attend the banquet.

On Wednesday night, selected students will participate in the "Take a Student to Dinner" program.

Each recruiter will select one student to attend the dinner.

Bill Bradley, president of the Business Student Council, suggests students interested in dining with a particular representative wear business attire and hand out resumes when visiting the booths.

Students must be invited by a representative in order to attend the dinner.

Several Career Fair seminars will be held throughout the day on Tuesday and Wednesday beginning at 8:00 a.m.

For more information on specific seminars and speakers contact the Business Student Council at 845-1320.

A group of seminars about women in business will begin at 9:30 Thursday morning. The speakers will be women holding top executive positions with major corporations.

Bradley says this year's Career Fair is the longest ever and preparations for it are going great.

Students should make an effort to meet with the representatives while they are at the fair, he said.

"They are here to hire students," Bradley said.

Bradley said that the Career Fair is put on by over 150 students who sign up to work on different committees to help put on the fair.
