COVER

- 7 Letter from the co-editors Pow, zowie, bim, bam, boom, bang, bippo, bop! You're dead.
- 9 Is it survival of the fittest or the funnest? Tricia Parker takes to the woods with a good sense of humor and a bad sense of aim. She played the Survival Game and we won't say she lost — she did come back with a story.
- 11 Dallas-based Photon: 'living video game' It's a Photon Warrior's mission to score points by shooting members of the opposing team with a light beam from a Phaser. The life-size video game replaces the joystick with a laser.
- 11 Star Force creates Houston's other world Creator and owner Bill Lewis got the idea for this game while watching his kids play their own version of "Star Wars." Now the big screen action can be lived by Joe Earthling.

FEATURES

- 4 'Beyond Therapy': outrageously human Texas A&M junior Peck Phillips is directing the Aggie Players in "an adult comedy," March 5 and 6 at 8 p.m. in Rudder Forum.
- 4 Series to give student talent at student prices MSC OPAS is sponsoring the J. Wayne Stark Series. Student talent from across the state will be presented for $1.
- 6 L.A. band at A&M Wednesday Week, an all-girl band from Los Angeles, is bringing their brand of bop-rock to Rumours today at 4 p.m. The concert is sponsored by MSC Basement.
- 6 Awareness Week: information, not sermon Student Government and Student Services have teamed up to get the word out on drug abuse and the responsible use of alcohol.

ENTERTAINMENT

- 3 Men: good excuses to review films Reviewer Marcy Basile tells us about her favorite excuse to go see a film. And it's not that she's tired of TV (or because it's her job).
- 3 Album reviews Reviewer Walter Smith gives a listen to and reports on Jean-Michel Jarre's Zoolook and The Boomtown Rats' In The Long Grass.
- 16 At the movies Marcy, in her own special way, tells us what's where, what it's about and if you should shell our your hard-earned money or not.
